Award-winning 5th in bouncy fall special

"The 5th Dimension Travelling Sunshine Show," a joyful blending of song and laughter, will be presented on ABC Wednesday, August 18.

Appearing with the 5th Dimension are Dionne Warwick, The Carpenters and Merle Haggard, in the special announced by Martin Starger, vice president in charge of network programming.

The musical hours beams its spotlight on the many talents of the 5th Dimension and their guests in elaborate production numbers and specially written routines.

The Grammy Award-winning 5th Dimension has been at the top of the music world ever since their first recording, "Up Up and Away," by the then unknown songwriter, Jim Webb. It was the 5th Dimension which first ushered in the new decade with the album "The Age of Aquarius/Let the Sunshine In."

The two girls and three guys who make up the group are Marilyn McCoo, Billy Davis, Jr., Florence La Rue Gordon, Ron Townson and Lamonte McLemore.

"The 5th Dimension Travelling Sunshine Show" is produced by Ernest D. Glucksman and Burt Rosen, and directed by Jorn Winther. Executive producers for the hour are Marc Gordon, David Winters, Burt Rosen and Murray Chercover for Winters/Rosen Productions in association with the CTV Television Network, Ltd.
