Volunteers serve pupils at Cecil summer school

At Cecil Elementary School No. 7 is Summer School. Nine junior high pupils are assisting teachers in working with groups of pupils.

They direct groups in independent reading activities, read stories, show filmstrips, help youngsters in the cafeteria, direct play groups, and assist with other activities unique to their particular classrooms.

They have been on the job each day, and most of them plan to remain until the summer session ends August 4.

They are: Gina Bridges, Cheryl Kess, Paul White, Marjorie Cowan, Claudia Lawrence, Nena Weldon, Hillary Wiseman, Darnella Richardson, and Diane Smith.

Another volunteer workers at Cecil this summer is Odie Walls, age 71. Mr. Walls, a retired stevedore from Elizabeth, N.J., visits the Head Start classroom of his grandson, James De Shazo.

Mr. Walls thoroughly enjoys his work in Mrs. Shirley Carrington's classroom. He assists the teacher and boys and girls wherever he can.

"One of the most enjoyable experiences I have is coming to Head Start here at Cecil each day with my grandson. I like to help wherever I can, says Mr. Walls.

Mrs. Carrington values Mr. Wall's assistance and looks forward to his visits. "Our class is not the same when he is not with us," says the teacher.

"In his leisure time, Mr. Walls enjoys gardening and playing checkers.

Mrs. Ruth Cowan is the principal of Cecil Summer School. Leonard Wheeler, elementary specialist, serves as curriculum coordinator.

The school is located at 2000 Cecil Ave.

Robber is stain on Wednesday nite

Late Wednesday night an off-duty policeman shot and killed a would-be robber in the 3300 block Elgin Ave.

Homicide officers told the AFRO that Officer Gary Eresser, 25, picked up Gary Gaskins, 23, at the corner of Howard and Fayette Sts. at 11:30. Eresser was moonlighting as a cab driver.

The officer was directed to the 3300 block Elgin. Reaching that point, he felt a sharp object against his throat. Gaskins climbed into the front seat and searched the officer.

When the robber found the cab, when the officer pulled a gun from his boot and fatally shot Gaskins.

Gaskins resided at 3309 Elgin Ave.

Would ban Sunday sale of liquor until 1 p.m.

Troy Brailey, 4th District House of Delegates representative, has pre-filed a bill for the next session of the General Assembly to prohibit the sale of alcoholic beverages in Baltimore City during usual church hours on Sundays.

Delegate Brailey's bill is designed to curtail unpleasantries and sometimes embarrassment to churchgoers who must pass such establishments in the vicinity of their churches.

The Brailey bill would set up a penalty of not less than $50 for the first offense of violating the sale of alcoholic beverages during the prohibition hours, and for each succeeding offense a fine not less than $100 and/or a jail term of not more than 30 days.

Specifically, the prohibition hours would be between the hours of 2 a.m. Sundays, regular closing cohoic dispensing establishments, and 1 p.m. the same day.

Many establishments now open at 6 a.m. on Sundays.

A number of the state's counties now have laws regulating the sale of alcoholic beverages on Sundays, and they vary.

Delegate Brailey plans to hold a series of public hearings on his bill, which he expects to be opposed by the alcoholic beverage industry.

ANTHONY BURREL POWELL, son of Mr. and Mrs. Powell is now in basic training at Fort Ord, Calif. He is a former Job Corpsman from Anaconda, Montana.

MELVIN GILL
A student at Community College of Baltimore and a narcotics counselor, Mr. Gill is a Democratic candidate for City Council in the 2nd District.

'Pomerleau lies,' says Del. Boswell

In a three-page open letter to Commissioner Donald G. Pomerleau, Del. Hildegardeis Boswell (D-4th) charges:

"In your zeal to indict an entire black community, you not only err, but lied deliberately to your peers.

"For over two years I sat in meetings of the Black United Front, which by the way, held no secret meetings.

"They were all public and held in the community rooms of various churches and listened to compaints of police abuse and other problems.

"I am still searching for the Black United Front to which you alluded in your statement.

Del. Boswell aLeges: "During each meeting, at least two of your undercover agents were present ... One was instructed to disrupt meetings to give you an opportunity to discredit the organization, however he was exposed and relegated to silence."

She further demands, "Since you have made the charge ... you have a public duty to fully outline what you mean ... in the interest of justice."

Del. Boswell concludes: "Since you feel that you cannot work with the total community, I strongly urge you design your post as Commissioner, so that we can ply our talents toward making Baltimore the great city that it should be."
