Douglasites gather from Alaska to D.C.

Members of the February and June, 1946 graduating classes of Douglass High School came from as far away as Alaska and as near as Columbia, Md. for their reunion, here, Friday night.

The gala affair, also filled with sentiment since some classmates had not seen each other since graduation, was held in Martin's West. William E. Adams was toastmaster. And Miss Essie Mae Hughes, one of the classes' advisors was speaker. Rounding out the weekend was a picnic at Columbia City, Saturday and worship at Emmanuel C. C. Church, Sunday.

Coming 3,000 miles from Juneau, Alaska was Rosalie Taylor Walker. Earl Hooks flew in from Nashville, Tenn. From Markham, Illinois came George H. Brown, and Pontiac, Michigan was the departure point for Booker T. Yancey. Barbara Jones Bagwell travelled from Nashua, New Hampshire and Dr. Robert P. Bishop and Mrs. Sadie Taylor Turner made it in from Hempstead, N. Y.

Coming from Long Island, N. Y. were Beatrice Nickols Washington, Ophelia Mann Nelson and Pearce Lee Richburg. A large number came from Washington, D. C., including Helen Schyler Perry, Beulah Gray Diggs, Donald G. Roberts. John C. Hagan, Mae Walker Eldridge and Mary F. Stewart.

From Columbia City were Robert and Josephine Hilson, Alfred R. Washington, Lillie Kess Frazier and Nathaniel H. Hoff.

Classmates from the Baltimore area in attendance were:

New parking lot opens downtown

Commissioner of Transit and Traffic, Hugo O. Liem Jr., has announced that a new parking metered lot, located on the northeast corner of Pratt and Calvert Sts., is now available for parking by the general public.

The traffic chief said that the lot will have 124 parking metered spaces. The meters will be in effect 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, with a 10 hour parking limit. The rate will be 5 cents per ½ hour, 10 cents per 1 hour, $1 per 10 hours.

Orioles play after 'Stars'

Two junior American Legion all-star temas from Maryland will meet for their 1971 contest Sunday, July 25, prior to the 5:30 p.m. Orioles-Angels game at Memorial Stadium.

The American Legion game, starting at 2:45 p.m., is one of several features of the annual American Legion Day at the park and will precede a presentation to Orioles 24-game winner Dave McNally, selected as American Legion Baseball "Graduate of the Year" for 1970.

Research funds granted

NEW YORK — Federal funds, $16.4-million, have been granted for the establishment of 29 specialized centers of research on diseases of the heart, blood vessels and lungs.

Each enter will concentrate on special problems relating to the prevention, diagnosis or treatment of such diseases.

By applying various tests and treatments to large numbers of subjects, it is hoped that these centers can identify the most promising procedures, using statistical and analytical methods that were previously unavailable.

Out of school and he manns the gas pumps

Baltimore businessman, Michael A. Williams, Sr., has completed a three-week course in service station management at American Oil Company's Dealer Development Center in Baltimore. He operates the service station at 2200 Garrison Blvd.

The center, one of 11 conveniently located throughout the nation, is devoted exclusively on teaching independent businessmen the variety of special skills necessary for the successful operation of a modern service station.

Among subjects covered were electronic motor analysis, manufacturer-recommended servicing requirements, and the company's own customer-oriented sales philosophy.

Mr. Williams and his wife, Mrs. Gwendolyn Williams, live at 2012 Wynham [illegible] They have two children, Michael Jr., 14, and Michael Jr., 1½.

HERE IS PANTRY PRIDE'S NEW PRICE POLICY

"WE WILL NOT BE UNDERSOLD ON ANY WEEKLY ADVERTISED FOOD ITEMS—BY THE MAJOR FOOD CHAINS; A&P, A-MART, GIANT, ACME or BIG VALU."

Pantry Pride has the lowest possible discount prices in the city and we're proud to say "we will not be undersold" on any weekly advertised food item, at any time, by any other major supermarkets.

Oh, once in a while some other supermarket will run a special price for a day or two and when this happens Pantry Pride says again that "we will not be undersold". Just clip out the current ad from the other store. Bring it to Pantry Pride and we will meet the price no matter what the item, or whichever supermarket.

You know, when you can get the lowest discount prices plus a 200% double your money back guarantee on your meat purchases, shouldn't you make Pantry Pride your everyday food store?

Remember, Pantry Pride will not be undersold on advertised items. We're stubborn about things like that! . . . why shop anywhere else?
