Noted old family dines soul style at annual reunion in Baltimore

Through the years the descendants of Albert and Mrs. Vinie Williams of South Carolina have retained the family link through annual family unions.

Such a reunion was held in Baltimore this past 4th of July weekend with family members and guest traveling from as far away as Ohio, North Carolina, South Carolina, New York, and Connecticut to exchange family news and growth while eating fabulously prepared food.

The reunion began officially July 3, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Scott, 3905 Callaway Ave., Baltimore, but original planning and preparation began much earlier under the direction of Hostess Mrs. Vinie Williams-Crain and Host Earl Hunter of New York and Mrs. Laura Scott of Baltimore.

* * *

Saturday night, July 3, the family spent a marvelous time eating a dinner which was both crab feast and soul food.

The menu consisted of crabs, fish, pig's feet, potato salad and kale.

Sunday morning began with a large Southern-style breakfast of sausage, bacon, and old fashion grits, country biscuits, eggs, and fruit.

All members of the family attended the morning services at Saint John A.M.E. Church.

The main family meal was served in grand fashion and consisted of roast pig, ham, turkey, corn pudding, green peas with pearl onions, greens, deep dish macaroni, salad molds, hot rolls, cakes and pies and ice cold drinks.

Some members of the family began to leave Monday morning, but many remained behind for the family meal of traditional barbecue.

The official list of persons attending included local family, friends and more distant family relatives:

Wyche faces weapons indictment

Charles Lee Wyche, recently acquitted of murder charges in the death of Eugene Leroy Anderson, an alleged Black Panther police informer, was indicted here Tuesday by a Federal Grand Jury of having a sawed-off shot gun and manufacturing it.

The 31-year-old former supervisor of Self-Help Housing, was accused in the two-count indictment of unlawfully possessing a firearm and unlawfully making the firearm in violation of Federal firearm statutes.

Wyche was formally charged under the indictment as having knowingly possessed the unregistered sawed-off shotgun, and knowingly making the firearm without having paid the "making tax" as required under federal law.

Charles G. Bernstein, assistant United States attorney, reportedly indicated arraignment would be scheduled sometime next week.

Wyche was formerly charged in the death of Anderson, an alleged police spy engaged in informing police upon Black Panther activity at their Eden St. headquarters in Baltimore.

He was acquitted of the murder of Anderson, whose skeleton remains were found in Leakin Park in October, 1969, after a Criminal Court jury deliberated just two hours. The trial came before Judge Anselm Sodaro after Wyche had been jailed eight months. Larry Gibson is defense attorney.

The commission was concerned that its image in the business community has been "seriously harmed" by Pomerleau's charges that its director "consorted with revolutionaries."

This statement might "weaken its whole program" and becloud the fact that the CRC has settled 98 per cent of its cases without public hearings or going to court.

Stating that Commissioner Pomerleau "will not cooperate, doesn't know our name or what we are doing," the commission charged he had never responded to the CRC's plea for a meeting with him.

Though Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro III, was supportive of the commission and director, the commission is hopeful that the mayor will initiate meetings with the commission, Governor Marvin Mandel and Commissioner Pomerleau to air these grievances.

The CRC agreed to issue an open letter to the press. Mayor D'Alesandro and Gov. Mandel, contents of which would be composed in executive session.

CHERRY HILL COMMUNITY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH held its first confirmation class for the year, Sunday. Members of the class met members of Session and were received by the Rev. C. Andre Kearns following breakfast with their parents. The confirmation service was conducted by the Rev. George Eggleston, director of the community center at Knox Presbyterian Church. The class was instructed by Mrs. Leana C. Ferrell, clerk of Session. Above, first row, from left, are Vernon Hart, Michael Oliver, Byron Fair; second row: Mrs. Dorothy Hart, Rochelle Oakes, Anthony Whittaker and Nathaniel Wright; third row: Mrs. Zipparah Kirk, Mrs. Hazel Ferrell and William G. Ferrell.

Drug Alert program now available

In an effort to bring total awareness of its program to the community, Northwest Drug Alert has printed brochures which are available to interested groups and persons by calling 887-7800, ext. 8520 or 8229, or by writing Northwest Drug Alert, Sinai Hospital, Belvedere Ave. at Greenspring, Baltimore, 21215.

The brochure explains the purposes of Northwest Drug Alert and the treatment patients receive when participating in the program.

The program originated by the Associated Jewish Charities and Welfare Fund, with comprehensive help from the Family and Children's Society, the Jewish Family and Children's Service, the Northwest Baltimore Corporation, the Jewish Big Brother League, the Jewish Community Center, The Maryland State Department of Vocational Rehabilitation, the Associate Placement and Guidance Bureau and the Department of Employment Security, has two main treatment centers at Sinai Hospital.

As a treatment, rehabilitation and evaluation center, Sinai Hospital offers a medical and psychiatric treatment program for drug abusers and hard core addicts.

The Clinic for Sofi Drug Abusers, housed in Sinai's Department of Psychiatry, offers psychiatric treatment and counseling on an individual, family or group basis to persons under 21 and with written parental consent, whose abuse is of the followig types of drugs: opiates, barbiturates, amphetamies and hallucinogens.

The Clinic for Hard Core Addicts is for those who have been addicted to opiates for two years or more. This program is designed for temporary maintenance leading to eventual detoxification.
