

weeks later, and he has since resided there and in Baltimore County. He is a son of the late Lawrason Riggs, and a direct descendant of Francis Riggs, who settled in Calvert County in 1663, members of this family having afterwards spread through Anne Arundel, Frederick and Montgomery Counties. His maternal grandfather was the Hon. Jesse D. Bright, who was for four terms United States Senator from Indiana.

At the age of eleven he entered St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H. He graduated as a civil engineer from Princeton University in 1887, standing second in his class. After practicing this profession a short time in Iowa he returned to enter the machine shop of Robert Poole & Son Company; went to Detrick & Harvey Machine Company on February 9, 1891, and retired from business as vice-president of that company on January 15, 1903; entered the services of the Maryland National Guard as Second Lieutenant of Company E, Fifth Infantry, on April 29, 1890; elected Captain of Company F, same regiment, on February 23, 1891, and Major on November 12, 1895; was mustered into the service of the United States on May 14, 1898, as Major, Fifth Maryland United States Volunteers, and mustered out with his regiment at close of Spanish-American War on October 22, 1898; resigned from the Maryland National Guard on January 26, 1899; appointed Adjutant-General of the State of Maryland January 29, 1904.

State Tax Commissioner: BUCHANAN SCHLEY (Democrat), of Washington County.

Governor Hamilton's successor in the leadership of the Democrat Party in Washington County was Buchanan Schley. This gifted man began his political career in 1879, when still young. That year he was nominated for State's Attorney for Washington County, but was defeated by John F. A. Remley, the Republican candidate. Soon afterwards, he disputed with Governor Hamilton, the leadership of the county conventions, and more than once was victorious over the friends and supporters of the veteran leader. After Governor Hamilton's death and down to the present time, Mr. Schley's leadership has been almost undisputed. Only three times has Mr. Schley been an office holder, and not often an office seeker. He was appointed by President Cleveland Surveyor of the Port of Baltimore. In 1901 he was superintendent of the State Census, and in 1902 he was elected Tax Commissioner of the State of Maryland. Mr. Schley is the youngest son of Frederick A. Schley and his second wife, Miss Hall, a granddaughter of Mrs. Mary Pottinger, sister of Judges John and Thomas Buchanan. The sister of Buchanan Schley's mother was the wife of Col. George Schley, half brother of Buchanan Schley.
