

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Simmons have six children, namely: Miss Harriett Ruth Simmons, Mr. Lawrence F. Simmons, Mary Higgins Simmons (now Mrs. Byron E. Harrington), Thomas W. Simmons, Jr., Anna Howard Simmons and John Frederick Simmons.

Comptroller of the Treasury: HUGH A. McMULLEN (Democrat), Cumberland, Maryland.

Hugh A. McMullen, the son of Hugh and Eliza McMullen, was born at Franklin, Allegany County, Maryland, December 9th, 1859. His father was a native of Ireland, coming to America in 1845. He enlisted in the U. S. Army at Galena, Ill., in 1846, for service in Mexico. His mother, Eliza McMullen, was born in Frederick County, Maryland.

Hugh A. McMullen attended the public and private schools of Allegany County until the age of ten and one-half years, at which time he began work in a store. He continued at this occupation until the age of sixteen, when he began work at a mine in Lonaconing, Maryland. After five years employment he gave up this work and in 1880 went to Colorado where he was engaged in contracting and "prospecting" for two years. Returning to Allegany County in 1882 he began business in partnership with his brothers, Daniel F. and John P. McMullen, which partnership has always continued. Mr. McMullen is engaged in the mining, mercantile and banking business and is identified with many of the business enterprises of his county. He was married at Mt. Savage, Maryland, June 18, 1889, to Anna M. Mullydy. His children are Mary Elizabeth, Daniel F., Jr., Catherine, Hugh A., Jr., Alice, Helen, Josephine and John.

He was elected Comptroller of the State Treasury of Maryland November 2nd, 1915, and re-elected on November 6th, 1917.

State Treasurer: WILLIAM P. JACKSON (Republican),
Salisbury, Maryland.

William P. Jackson, son of William H. and Arabella H. Jackson, was born at Salisbury, Maryland, January 11, 1868.

His forefathers, who were Scotch-Irish, were among the early settlers of the Maryland peninsula and have always been closely identified with its government and development.

He was educated at the Wilmington Conference Academy at Dover, Del., and after finishing his education, entered the
