Ice Cream Man, 17, Robbed of $190

LAST MOMENTS OF SUMMER VACATION pleasure outdoors is enjoyed by two families at the Timonium Fair. From left are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Briscoe and son Joseph Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Taylor and children, Marsha, 7 and Myra, 9.

Holdup was in daylight, no witnesses

Arthur Lee Spencer, 17, 3900 block Hilton Rd., a driver of a "Twist" Ice Cream truck, told police he was robbed of $190 in coin and currency Saturday after noon as he repaired the generator on the vehicle in the 700 block Frankfurst St.

He told police two young men with close chopped bush haircuts pulled up behind him in a vehicle.

One suspect "got out of the passengers side of the car and jabbed a pistol into his left side stating, 'Give me your money,' he told investigating officers.

Police reports say "at this time the victim reached into his pockets and gave the gunman an undeterminable amount of change."

The gunman is said to have asked, "Is that all you have?"

At this, the gun was pushed deeper into the driver's ribs, police reports show.

Mr. Spencer climbed onto the truck and gave the suspect all the money he had which totalled $190.00. The suspect then told him to stay inside the truck," reporting officers said.

A second suspect turned the lights off on the car.

The pair "travelled a short distance up Frankfurst Ave. and then turned around and headed toward Cherry Hill."

The youth drove up Patapsco Ave. looking for a police officer.

Scholarship applications ready soon

The Maryland State Scholarships Board has announced that application packages will be distributed within the next two weeks. The packages will be given to all high school seniors and college students.

William Anthony, executive director of the agency, said that the packages will be physically given to all of the students, regardless of what the student plans to do after graduation.

The applicant must take either the Scholastic Aptitude test (SAT) or the American College Testing Program exam ACT) and describe his financial situation through the Parents' Confidential Statement to be eligible for grants.

The tests must be taken in November or December, or test grades may be submitted from previously taken sessions.

The Senatorial grants are awarded by the 43 state senators. Each senator may give out up to 40 scholarships a year.

Complaints sent to Pomerleau on police incident of Aug. 14

Homer Ray Dorsey, an assistant district employee of the Baltimore office of the Equitable Life Assurance Society and his wife claim they were both brutally beaten by police on Saturday, Aug. 14.

In a recent letter to Commissioner Donald S. Pomeneau, they disagreed with police version of how the incident took place.

According to Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey at about 1 a.m. that Saturday night, the car in which he and his wife were driving was forced to the curb by a taxicab as he was on Garrison Blvd., between Liberty Heights' and Forest Park Ave.

When both the cab and the Dorseys were stopped at the traffic light at Forest Park Ave., Dorsey and the cab driver got out of their vehicles and moved towards each other.

According to the Dorseys, before they got together, he was immediately thrown against the cab by two uniformed police officer who were in the area and who according to Dorsey seem to "Come out of nowhere."

Then according to the

ROLAND S. NEWMAN, Vietnam veteran, and his bride, the former Miss Mildred Louise Maker, leave the altar of the Saint James United Methodist Church following their marriage Saturday.

Miss Maker wed to Vietnam veteran

Miss Mildred Louise Maker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest T. Maker Sr., was married to Roland S. Newman, Vietnam veteran, in St. James United Methodist Church, Saturday.

Mr. Newman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Newman and a student at Baltimore Institute, where he is studying drafting.

The Rev. Albert Hammond officiated at the ceremony, a [illegible] of organ music was by Mrs. Sadie Mo'ock.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of satin, lace trimmed at the bodice, the empire waistline neckline and cuffs of the full bishop sleves. The lace was re-embroidered with crystals. The veil of silk net worn by Miss Maker was edged with lace, and she carried a sheath of white roses interspersed with purple snapdragons.

The maid of honor, Miss Brenda Hudson, wore an ensemble in orchid. Her headpiece was a brief orchid flirtation veil and she carrier carnations tinted to match her dress.

Miss Cynthia Barnes, bridesmaid, wore violet, identical to that of the honor attendant. The flower girl, Tonya Maker, was also in violet. David Maker was ring bearer.

Ernest Maker Jr. was best man for Mr. Newman. Usher was Nathaniel Maker.

A reception for 150 guests was hedl in the Recreation Center of the McCulloh Homes.

The newlyweds will be at home at 436 Park Heights Avenue.

MR. AND MRS. RONALD P. LOCKE, married in Taunton, Mass. in June, were given a homecoming reception by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Freddie K. Williams in Glen Burnie, Md., Saturday. Mrs. Locke is the former Miss Cheryl Emily Hobert of Norton, Mass.

Reception honors Mr. and Mrs. Locke

Mr. and Mrs. Freddie K. Williams were hosts at a reception, Saturday, that honored their son, Ronald Patrick Locke, and his bride, the former Miss Cheryl Emily Hobert.

Mr. Locke is the daughter of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Williston Holbert of Norton, Mass. She and Mr. Locke were wed in a double-ring ceremony in the First Portuguese Baptist Church in Taunton, Mass. on June 26. Her father officiated and her aunt, Miss Arabella Hinton, was organist. David Holbert was soloist. Gary Locke was best man for his brother, and Miss Donna Lopes, of Boston, Mass., maid of honor for the bride, was a guest at the reception on Saturday.

For her wedding the bride wore a princess gown of antique white satin designed with long bell sleeves and lace inserts on sleeves and bodice. Her attendant wore a paisley print with short puffed sleeves.

For the reception Mrs. Locke selected an ankle length African print with hot pants.

The reception, held at the Furnace Branch Road home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cornish in Glen Burnie.

The bride, a graduate of Norton High School, is a sophomore at Pembrooke College, Providence, R.I. Mr. Locke, who graduated from Northerg High School, this city, is a senior at Brown University, Providence.

(Out-of-town guests were: Miss Donna Lopes of Boston, Mass.; David Holbert; Gorman Cooper of Rocky Mount, N.C., Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Richardson, Miss Kimberly Richardson, Raynor Richardson, Mrs. Jean Paige, Alvin Jackso, Mr. and Mrs. Ollis Locke, Mrs. Catherine Zocke, of Alexandria, Va.; Miss Gloria Robinson of Newark, N.J., and Miss Yvonne Robinson of Oswego, N.Y.

Baltimoreans attending included:

Mrs. Mable Johnson, grandmother of the bridegroom, Mesdames Connie Thomas, Margaret Pollard, Serena Jordan, Della Brisbane;

Messrs. and Mesdames Charles Perry, Chester Benbow, Henry Davis, Ralph Cornish, Frank McAlister, Charles Hicks, Calvin Royster;

Mistes Gloria Robinson, Yvonne Robinson;

Misses Valerie Henry, Orpha Armstrong, Terry Baker, Robin Baker, Joyce Jines, Joyn Locke, Theris Williams, Andrea Williams;

Marion Williams, Russell Brown, Robert Docking, Fletcher Greene, Wayne Benbow, Randy Cornish, Estes Dunnigan, Tyrone Baker, Thomas Jackson, Gary Locke, Robin Baker, Ronald Jones.

Other date data — non nuptial — includes Pauline Brooks and the Clever Kiquejay's Champagne Luncheon Fashion Show at Martin's West on the 19th. The affair, with which most of you are thoroughly acquainted, will, this year, benefit the R. W. Coleman Association for the Handicapped. One o'clock is the hour.

Serena G Mills and Pauline Rush Stewart are doing a fall showing of fashions for men and women in the auditorium of the New Provident Hospital. Eddye Mae Traynham will provide the millinery accessories and Jim Massey is concentrating on the men's furs and fashions. (He's the guy who does those marvelous belt buckles which will tear you up be you man or woman). The feminine garb will come from Queensway.

And I understand that that $100-per black tie affair of the Arena Players, scheduled for the 9th at their Orchard Street Playhouse, is to be a stopper. Recipts will go towards the building fund for the Black Theater of Baltimore, which the group means to be a people-to people theater center to operate in an integrated set up for performance in all the arts.

The September 9th date will be the premiere of Langston Hughes' Gospel musical, "Tambourines to Glory," and will feature professionals and the veteran actors of the Playhouse. Bettye Eubanks is chairman.

Peregrinators: Flozella Clark was back, this week, from a fabulous journey in Eastern Africa . . . but her co-planner, Ruth Davis, is still tucked in a hospital in Rome, Italy, having become ill just as the group was ready to enplane for the States. With Mrs. Davis is her nephew, Mike Evans.

The 10 friends who Flo and Ruth garnered for the trip included Lilla Barnum, Leona Young, Eloise Brown, Lois Merritt, Mike, Helen Pope and daughter, Marilyn, and the Clarks' daughter, Maria.

From what I hear the whole shebang became thoroughly endowered of the beautiful African countries, where, they say, the weather is much like that of California, and the people proud and beautiful.

* * *

They also ran into a number of Americans, who also seem to have to become enamoured enough to have planned to remain there . . . among them Mamie Brooks Gray, formerly of this town, who has become a social worker in Tanganjika, and plans to stay. In the same Territory is Marvin McLinn (he's the son of Dr. and Mrs. Harry McLinn of New York) who is holding down a post as probation officer in Dar es Salaam.

They were received by Ambassador Clarence Clyde Ferguson of Uganda. He, you remember, was at one time dean of the law school of Howard University. And Mort Copeland, of hereabouts and Belair, Md., is heading a safari business in Nairobi. Dr. and Mrs. E. E. (Charlotte) Holt and Dr. Evans Gilkes of this town were in the party that took the trip following the medical convention in Philadelphia.

* * *

Mrs. Elmira E. Harris and her daughter, Miss Myra A. Harris, along with Mrs. Harris' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James (Dr. Rebecca) Carroll, have returned from an extensive tour of West Africa. They visited the Ivory Coast, the Republic of Mali, Niger, Senegal and Morocco. They also spent a few days in Madrid, Spain. Last year the Harrises and Dr. Carroll toured Bangkok, Thailand, Kyoto, Osaka and Tokyo in Japan and Hong Kong in China.

Gertrude Urquhart says her trip to Morocco was simply grand. Dr. Herbert Frisby posts that there no dull moments for him on his cruise in the Caribbean. He was in Kingston, Jamaica, when last heard from. Mrs. Nicki Randolph perked off to the Virgin Islands.

* * *

The folks on this side of the waters were having fun, too. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Marlow took their daughter and son, Lydia and Gene, and flew off to California. They are back now. And Mrs. Lelia Cooper and Miss Margaret Gasaway, that unseparable mother-daughter team, were in Atlantic City for the past couple of weeks. Others who have visited that shore are Rep. Lena K. Lee and the Thomas (Alice) Matthewses. Mrs. Ida Russell is enjoying Miami Beach, Fla.

Heart-warmers: The Auxiliary to the National Medical Association making an award to Baltimore's Mrs. M. L. Barksdale at the 35th annual session's luncheon in Philadelphia. She garnered the most beautiful pin.

Mrs. Dorothy Kimble James, Mrs. Shirley Simms Auston and Mrs. Sedral Owens West working like beavers to round up members of the Carver High School Class of 1946 for a reunion in Mardel's West on September 25. Members should call 947-0360, 542-3452 or 323-0460 (in order above to discuss the party.

VISIT TO GERMANY — Mrs. Shirley Lee Young spent four days in Landstuhe, Germany with her son, Pvt. William H. Young Jr., who has been stationed in Germany since February.

Beauticians plan meeting
