dents, Grant Valentine, 25, and Aubrey Wyatt, 25, after reviews by Faculty Committees.

The students who are entering their third and final year at the Baltimore school campus of the University of Maryland were dropped from the school for alleged "academic reasons."

A number of leaders from the black community met in an exhaustive conference in August with Dean William Cunningham of the Law School.

Joseph H. Thomas Jr., the attorney representing the student's before the faculty committees said, "The school must make meaningful changes to insure that the students entering the school graduate."

This year 24 students are enrolled. Leaders have charged that financial and academic aid to black students is minimum and that institutional racism is at the core of the problems confronting minorities who attend there.

Mr. Valentine worked during the summer in he Juvenile Division of the State's Attorney's office.

Mr. Wyatt worked during the summer in the Narcotics Division of the State's Attorney's office.

Both were reinstated after reviews before faculty committees. Mr. Wyatt was readmitted after the review committee took his case to the entire faculty for approval.

Classes for the students are expected to begin Monday, September 13.

PUBLIC NOTICE

"Notice is hereby given that the State Highway Administration of Maryland in accordance with U.S. Department of Transportation, Federal Highway Administration: Policy and Procedure Memorandum 20-8 dated January 14, 1969, has requested from the Federal Highway Administration by letter dated August 30, 1971, Location Approval for I-70N from Hilton Parkway to Baltimore Street in Baltimore City, Maryland.

Location Approval has been requested for the Interstate Division's proposed location as presented at the Location Public Hearing of February 16 and 18, 1971. The location as proposed and contained in a study report developed subsequent to public hearings held at Gwynns Falls Junior High School and Cardinal Gibbons High School, provides for I-70N to cross Hilton Parkway at Gwynns Falls — thence turning southeasterly and paralleling Gwynns Falls Stream. Proceeding southerly following the Gwynns Falls Valley, I-70N is proposed to cross under a reconstructed Baltimore Street Bridge at Gwynns Falls.

Parents, police school officials at Southwestern

Acting School Superintendent Sterling Keyes was at the meeting at Southwestern High this morning (Friday) which was attended by some 150 parents, representatives from the Community Relations Commission; Police Community Relations Division, school security guards, City Councilmen, a state senator, and police Department guards.

Generally all classes in which some 1,600 pupils are enrolled were operating as expected and halls quiet and empty before 12 noon.

An AFRO reporter on hand this morning quotes pupils as saying whatever incidents took place among students from Tuesday through Friday occurred in the afternoon at the end of the school day.

This morning police arrested two outside teenaged boys for trespassing and one student Thursday evening on the same charge.

A police patrol car was seen taking six white youths from the campus this morning (Friday).

A police official reports, "Politicians are making a field day out of it, wrongly so. Rumors are flying. Children who do not want to go to school anyway are calling home reporting a riot is in progress, an utter untruth."

Task Force on duty for Primary Day

Maryland Attorney General Francis B. Burch, announced today (Friday) that he has set up an election day task force of 18 assistant attorneys general who will be stationed at the eight police districts and central police stations on Primary Day, Tuesday, Sept. 14.

Mr. Burch, said this action is being taken to "meet immediately" any difficulties which should arise during the voting hours.

In addition, he explained, members of his staff would be stationed at the Supervisors of Elections, Fayette and Gay Sts., and in his own central office to coordinate the task force. The Task Forces is designed to protect all rights of voters.

In a related matter, Mr. Burch announced there would be no prosecution of those candidates who failed to file pre-Primary Election financial reports.

However, he noted that the law requires no person elected to public office cannot collect any salary until the required reports have been filed.

Plans being readied for new Dunbar High

"The new Dunbar is a living fact; of this we are almost certain."

Clarence Blount, principal of Dunbar, presented a brief description Thursday afternoon of the new Dunbar High School to be built on Orleans and Caroline Sts.

Mr. Blount said, "Because the school will be a radical deviation from the traditional high school, a different type of staff will have to be trained to run it. Therefore, we have to begin now."

At the new Dunbar curricula offerings will be "pupil-oriented" and scheduling will be personalized.

"The student will move at his own pace and his own rate of speed and comprehension."

The Board of Estimates has appropriated to the Department of Education $50,000 for the beginning of a project which will coordinate the operations and management of the new Dunbar.

Mr. Blount will be the coordinator of that project and will temporarily leave his position as principal of the school.

Succeeding him will be Raymond Carpenter, now as assistant administrator there.

Mr. Blount will receive the same salary in his position as co-ordinator. He will occupy an office in the present building.

The new structure is expected to be one of the most advanced community high schools in the country.

who started studying there just this past Tuesday.

Officer Helm has been assigned there along with other policemen and school security guards for the period of unrest.

Major James A. Watkins of Police Community Relations Division said the opening day confusion spilled over into incidents of assault and robbery and concern of parent on Wednesday and Thursday.

Police and security and school officials held a meeting Wednesday with the principal, John Feathers.

Mr. Feathers told the AFRO:

"We've had 30-40 cases of assaults. In every case it's black against white. I haven't personally investigated every one but have these personal reports from parents.

"I have asked for increased security. We already have three."

Earlier this afternoon talked with Mrs. June Ross and John Wilson of community relations division. We plan to invite members of the community to meet with me and my staff and find some ways to improve the situation.

"Youngsters come from board hand of the city north of Edmondson below county line, southward along Hilton, spreading out north and south of Baltimore Street, then into the inner city. We also have groups from Violetville, Morrell Park, Cherry Hill, Locust Point, a wide sweep of Baltimore itself, reflecting all the problems of the city."

Pill, cancer unrelated

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI) — There is no relationship between use of contraceptives and the incidence of cancer in women according to results of the "largest such study ever conducted."

Dr. Emmerich von Haam, an Ohio State university scientist, said that for the past five years slides of tissue from nearly 500,000 women personnel at U.S. military installations throughout the world have been examined.

"The study has shown that neither oral contraceptives nor intrauterine devices are a cause of cancer," he said.

TIME OFF TO VOTE — Polls are open Tuesday from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. The law requires that if for some reason your work will keep you away from the polls during that period your employer must allow you up to two hours off to vote.

Should this occur, you must ask for and will be given a certificate at your polling place verifying that you have been there and voted. This goes to your employer for his records.

TIME IN VOTING BOOTH — Voters are usually allowed up to three minutes to cast their ballot. There should be no question of time in this primary, for the ballot is extremely short and can be voted in one minute, or less.

150,000 plus blacks in this number.

There were 115,773 in 1968, and concentrated registration campaigns since have added thousands to the books.

But, further general agreement is that if either of the two black mayoral candidates is to emerge a winner Tuesday, there must be voter concentration on one of them.

Some idea of the volume of a 40 per cent or better turnout can be gleaned from the fact that during the last mayoral campaign that swept Mayor Thomas J. D'Alesandro 3rd to an overwhelming victory, the turnout was slightly more than 30 per cent.

Frank "Bud" McQuade, Supervisors of Elections chief clerk, foresees maybe a 35 per cent plus turnout, but not over 40 per cent.

Leaders in the black community, however, are pressing for a better than 40 per cent turnout Tuesday.

Meanwhile, both George L. Russell Jr. and Clarence M. Mitchell 3rd are expressing confidence of winning the mayoral nomination.

Mr. Russell and James J. Lacy Jr., his running mate for president of the City Council, held a press conference at the Hilton Hotel shortly before noon Thursday, to reaffirm their unity in the campaign.

"I am the only major candidate," Mr. Russell said, "to make a decision on the president of City Council. Nobody will separate Russell and Lacy.

"It would be a tragedy for the city of Baltimore for Jim Lacy not to be elected president of the City Council."

Mr. Lacy, after reading a prepared statement on the necessity of modernizing the Council, said he wanted to make it "absolutely clear" he and Mr. Russell have always been and still are solidly unified in this campaign.

"I am more convinced now than I was three months ago," he said, "that I made the right decision to run with Mr. Russell).

"It was the proper decision not only for myself, but for the city of Baltimore."

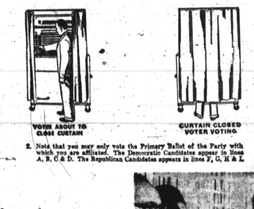
Mr. Russell said the press conference was called "to put down the rumors" (of a split between myself and Mr. Lacy), which he said had been stirred by some elements of the news media.

Over 50 well wishers and supporters were in attendance at that meeting.

Career carries weight

At 16, I weighed only 105 pounds, so I decided to start exercising," says Harold Sakata. He exercised so well that he went on to become an internationally famous professional wrestler, won the "heavy" role of Odd Job in the James Bond film "Goldfinger," and will be featured as Kenji Takichi, the Buddhist cook in NBC,TV's new series, "Sarge." Sakata now weighs a powerful 225 pounds.

HOW TO VOTE ON A VOTING MACHINE



A Few Words of Explanation

No votes are registered until you move the Curtain Lever back to the Left to open the Curtain. You can therefore make as many changes in your ballot as you wish while the Curtain Lever is at the right (Curtain closed). Each candidate's voting Pointer is directly ABOVE his or her name.

The machine is so arranged that you CANNOT TURN DOWN MORE THAN THE PROPER NUMBER of Pointers for each office.

There is no danger of anyone knowing how you vote, as the movement of the Curtain Lever returns the voted Pointers to their unvoted position BEFORE the Curtain begins to open. SO LEAVE THE POINTERS DOWN.

Before Going into the Machine on Election Day

1. Examine the Specimen Ballot and decide which candidates you wish to vote for, and note where their names are located.
2. Practice a few times on one of the little Instruction Models, until you are sure that you know how to cast your ballot.

After Entering the Machine

1. Turn down the Pointer OVER each Candidate's name for whom you wish to vote.
2. LEAVE the Pointers DOWN.

UNITY CONFERENCE — This was a portion of the scene in the Hilton Hotel Thursday shortly before noon, as George L. Russell Jr., Democratic candidate for mayor, and his running mate, James J. Lacy, Jr., candidate for president of the City Council, held a press conference to reaffirm their unity as a team. Mr. Russell said the unity declaration was necessary because of some distortion in some of the news media stating otherwise. Seated, left to right, are Mrs. Lacy, Mr. Lacy, Mr. Russell, Mrs. Russell. Standing, left to right are, Dr. Isaac Goodman, Dr. Henry Badders, 6th District Council candidate LeRoy St. Thomas, the Orioles' Paul Blair, next man unidentified, behind him is 6th District Council candidate Arthur W. Murphy, President Hospital's Charles G. Tildon, Mrs. Lenora Chazeners, campaign worker, the next man and woman are unidentified, 1st District Council candidate William Sprinkle, Andy Palmisano, 4th District Council candidate Norman Brailey, Councilwoman Victorine Q. Adams, D.C. Washington, Senato Verda F. Welcome, and 4th District Council candidate Mrs. Mary B. Adams.

Freshmen get to know at Morgan

A college freshman is often timid, sometimes scared and many times lonesome.

Not so at Morgan State College this week.

There, some 1400 freshmen and transfer students are participating in a get-to-know-you program.

Officially called Orientation Week, the program opened Thursday morning with a convocation address by Dr. King V. Cheek, the new president.

Addressing his first freshman class, he said it was the responsibility of the student body, faculty, and administrators alike to bring Morgan together educationally, socially, and spiritually.

Gary Coleman, associate dean of admissions told the AFRO that freshmen orientation helps new students in that it introduces them to the college atmosphere.

The AFRO asked students why they selected Morgan and received a variety of answers.

Miss Lydia McCargo, a transfer student from the Community College of Baltimore, said, Morgan was the best college which my major, Urban Studies was carried."

A junior and transfer student, Winston Green entering Morgan this fall stated "Morgan was my first choice because the college was close and I have spoken to professors and students who are attending—or have attended Morgan and they have shown me all the academic goals which I can achieve."

Miss Yvonne Woods, a young lady planning to major in physical education, enrolled "because of the sport activities reasonable low tuition and the location" in deciding.

Lamar Toland, a native of Washington, took courses this summer on the Morgan Campus, lived here, met people whom he liked and decided to make it here at Morgan State as a full-time student.

Presently a senior at Morgan State and a transfer student in his sophomore year from Arizona State, Mr. LaSalle Reynolds picked Morgan because he "couldn't cope with the white population and social life was a drag. The only "enjoyment" for blacks was going to class and returning back to the dorm to study."

Milton Boyd, made his choice to continue his course of study and because the college is "convenient, economical, and has one of the strongest history departments on the East Coast."

Other activities during this week for entering freshmen and transfer students will give them a chance to meet alumni, faculty, upper classmen and parents.

There are two stage shows scheduled, the traditional Morgan-Grambling football game in New York on Sept. 11, a parents conference, a boat ride, a bikini contest and splash party. Activities will continue through Sept. 11 with guided touns and registration.

Among those welcoming new students at the Thursday convocation was Northern Long, president of Student Government. Classes begin Sept. 20.
