Illustrious Women

By PAULA BROOKS

Mrs. Anne S. Richardson, of Baltimore and Silver Springs, Md., is seldom finding herself in one spot for any length of time, these days.

Her new position she went into in July, and [illegible] says she is thoroughly enjoying, takes her in many sections of the East. And it also adds another dimension to her professional field of education.

Mrs. Richardson is the daughter of Mrs. Gladys [illegible] and the late Cicero Hill Sims. She is also the granddaughter of the late William Fitzgerald, a distinguished lawyer and prominent citizen of Baltimore a generation ago.

Mrs. Richardson was graduated from Western High School, and Towson State College with a degree in education. In 1968 she received a master's degree of education in reading from Boston University. Since that time she had been teaching in this city and in Rhode Island.

Recently, Mrs. Richardson joined the staff of Harcourt, Brace and Jovanovich, publishers of educational material for pupils from kindergarten through the 12th grade; and texts and testing materials for colleges. Her work deals chiefly with working out with teachers and instructors better ways of building good rapport with students.

Her personal opinion is that time she has been asked for opinions on matters concerning his school life. . not only asked, but his ideas must be listened to and acted upon. This builds understanding between teacher and student, she feels.

MRS. ANNA S. RICHARDSON

United Fund needs phone volunteers

The United Fund Residential Phone-O-Thon is in need of additional volunteers to man the phones from October 3-15, Mrs. Walter Leander, Phone-O-Thon chairman said today.

The telephone campaign now in its selond year, will contact nearly 10,000 residents of Baltimore City and County as part of the United Fund Residential Division's responsibility in the annual United Fund Drive.

Interested persons can reach Mrs. Leander through the Residential Division of the United Fund of Central Maryland, 1055 Taylor Ave., Baltimore 21204, or telephone 825-5000.

Rent freeze information available

Persons with questions about the wage-price-rent freeze can get answers by calling the Baltimore District Internal Revenue Service Office at 301-962-2590 or the Washington Branch Office at 202-337-0450, IRS District Director Irving Machid said today.

Mr. Machiz said that the Baltimore and Wasrington offices are open Monday to Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and now prepared with guidelines and answers from the Cost of Living Council in Washington.

The offices daily receive rulings and decisions on previously unanswered questions.

In continuing, he said that the Baltimore and Washington offices are two of 360 IRS offiles across the country that have been designated to provide information and assistance on the wage-price rent freeze.

Additionally, Mr. Machiz said 2,800 Office of the Agricultural, Stabilization and Conversation Service are available to provide information on the freeze in outlying areas.

The IRS offices, he added, also can receive and process written complaints and reports of violations.

Moving on with UNCF

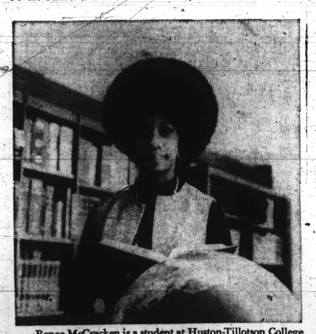
Like thousands of students, Renee McCracken is moving on to a productive, meaningful life because of her studies in a UNCF college.

The United Negro College Fund (UNCF) gives financial support to help its thirty-six member colleges maintain top-grade educational facilities. UNCF has also given encouragement to promising high school graduates. The kind of encouragement that has helped five generations of black students to a college education.

Support UNCF and its member colleges. America's young people need the kind of encouragement UNCF has to offer. The United Negro College Fund, 55 E. 52nd Street, New York, New York 10022.



Renee McCracken is a student at Huston-Tillotson College in Austin, Texas. Contributions solicited by her schoolmates totaling more than $20,000 won for her the title of "Miss UNCF" in campus fund-raising competition with the 35 other UNCF colleges.

Ebenezer women to honor Mrs. Johnson

Mrs. Naomi L. Johnson will be honoree at a testimonial luncheon to be given by the Auxiliaries of Ebenezer Baptist Church at the Statler Hilton Hotel on October 9.

The luncheon is scheduled for 1:30 p.m.

Mrs. Johnson will be cited for her services to the church the community and the Baltimore Public School System.

* * *

Mrs. Johnson retired from the school system after 34 years of teaching. Her last post was at School No. 47, where she taught social studies.

She is chairman of Ebenezer Baptist Church's finance committee. This committee raised $50,000 for a new addition to the church and certain renovations.

Mrs. Johnson is also president of the North Baltimore Civic Association, which was responsible for the establishment of the Greenmount Recreation Center.

Mrs. Johnson is first national anti-basileus of Lambda Kappa Mu Sorority, and served the local chapter as basileus for four years. The sorority awarded her the distinguished key for outstanding services in 1969.

She has traveled extensively in this country, Europe, Africa, Asia, the Caribbean and in 1957 went around the world with the National Education Association.

Mrs. Mary Bone, 2405 Guilford Ave., is chairman of the luncheon committee.

What's Happenin' On Eastside

By MRS. GEORGIANNA MOODY

Mrs. Johnsy Jennings feels that real love comes when we place our happiness in the happiness of others. Mrs. Jennings is one of the many Baltimoreans who have found happiness in helping the less fortunate. For years, she has been working with the alcoholics, mentally ills and inmates who have been released from prison in her care.

Mrs. Jennings lives on N. Caroline St., She is the widow of the Rev. Peter Jennings.

Mrs. Jennings owns property adjoining her home. It is here she runs a rooming house where she cares for the less fortunate.

At present, 32 men reside in what she calls her 'hallway house.'

Those she befriends call her a devoted counselor, mother, nurse and social workers, whose kindnesses range from taking her residents to church, to the hospital, to the doctor.

Mrs. Jennings is also a missionary at Shiloh Baptist Church in Edgemere, Md. The Rev. Richard Tabron is pastor. She is a member of the Elks and of the State and National Baptist Convention.

She also does volunteer work with many social groups and has worked earnestly, with the AFRO Clean Block in her community.

She speaks highly of her two sisters, Mrs. Jeromie O'Neil of Eden St. and Mrs. Wilsie Beal in N.C.

Her nieces are Misses Aretha Jennings, Thelma and Buelah Jennings all of Baltimore.

Mrs. Minnie Hatchett is home from John Hopkins Hospital. Hellos to her at 1220 N. Caroline.

The Adult Advisor will be treating the Garden Club members and the Cl[illegible] Blocks to a Sp[illegible] dinner in Meadow Hills, Pa. on Nove[illegible]

The bus will leave the Lafayette Community Building at noon for Christmas Village. Price $8.00 and dinner will be paid for by the Adult Advisors. For tickets see Mrs. Francis Reives of 1101-4A Orleans St. or Mrs. Dorothy White of 140 N. Central Ave.

Mrs. Griffin and Mrs. Moody in Management Office also have tickets.

Anyone living in Latrobe Homes, Lafayette Courts, Somerset or Douglass Homes who does not understand the East Baltimore Medical Plan please stop in the Management Office and talk with your Social Service Counselor. It's time to sign up now.

* * *

The Somerset Garden Club will have its first fall Festival Saturday, October 2, from 11:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m., 500 Central.

* * *

Registration for the Pre-School (2½-4 yrs.) child, formally called PACT, will be held at 9:30, September 27, at Somerset. The new teachers will be Mrs. Brenda Patteza.
