Lifers make appeal for prison reform

"Crime is related to correction," stated Omar Abdulla Ali in his speech at the first general meetisg of the Concerned Citizens For Family Solidarity and Prison Reform (CCFS).

The meeting took place Tuesday, 7:30 p.m., at St. Peter Claver School Hall, Carey and Pressiman Sts. About 200 persons attended the meeting.

Concerned Citizens For Family Solidarity and Prison Reform started two years ago and is an outside prison organization directed by the Joseph House Ex-Offender Center, 1823 Eutaw Place.

Kenneth Taylor who served 10 years for armed robbery, and is now a counselor at the Joseph House, emphasized the importance of the meeting because of the Attica incident, and introduced the three speakers.

The first speaker, Roland Roles is a lifer and has already spent 14 years behind bars. Mr. Roles was disappointed at the small number of people who attended the meeting because 600 persons were contacted.

He said: "If you think Attica was a spup of the moment riot you are wrong. prisoners in Maryland are on the rise, because prison conditions do not rehabilitate, but dehumanize.

"People do not realize that 80 per cent of the prisoners return to society. We need penal changes in order for these men to come out acting like humans. We must have voting power to get chanfes."

Mr. Roles also pointed out that family cohesion disincegrates when a man goes to prison. His family suffers and usually ends up on the welfare rolls, resulting in the state supporting him and his family.

George Rice, the second speaker, served a 15-year sentence and said he was subjected to every kind of inhuman act and continued assaults on his difnity.

He furrer stated: "The name of the game in prison is to pacify the prisoners with recreation facilities but nothing is done to give him a productive skill to use on the outside.

"Black Warden Gordon Willams is doing the best he can, but without proper backing he can do nothing. Prisoners need skills so they will not prey on society when they leave Jail."

"They have work programs in the system, but jobs pay only 50 cents a day. This is not enough money. We save been trying to get more money for prison workers.

"Most of the inmates are behind bars because of economic reasons. When he leaves he gets $20. This is not enough.

"Prisoners should make enough money to support their families on the outside, relieving the Welfare Department. He should be able to save enough so that he can have at least $500 to get himself situated when he leaves.

"The work programs are supposed to be non-profit, but if the citizens of this country will investigate they will find this is not so."

Mr. Rice ended his speech stating that among the many prisonr difficulties homosexuality was a definite problem because it was the source of most of the violence.

* * *

Omar Abdullah Ali, the last speaker, received heavy applause at the meeting as he approached the microphone to make fis speech.

Ali is very well spoken and well dressed. He is a lifer, has spent 11 years behind bars, and 26 months on death row for murder.

Ali stated: "Crime and correction are related. There is no love, understanding or compassion in prison rehabilitation. without this man cannot exist as a real human being.

"If you treat a man like an animal he will act like an animal. Our prison system today destroys the 200,000 inmates in America's penal systems."

"We are prisoners have some of the solutions, but we need the help of the people on the outside. Without your help 80 per cent of the prison population will return to society bitter and full of hate.

"Black people need a political education. I'm talking about blacks because we constitute 95 per cent of the prison population. This is a political thing, a conspiracy.

"Money and political influence is what America is built upon. We must plan our fight is a constructive and intelligent manner and use those forces."

Ali ended his speech by stating that they were going to have an organization of this kind in every state is America.

After the meeting guests joined small discussion groups while refreshments were being served. The organization plans more meetings and discussion groups.

Mr. Taylor is one of the counselors for Joseph House said: "CCFS is an attempt to gather the families, friends, offenders, ex-offenders and citizens into a strong voting group working for penal reform, community support, and involvement.

Birthday Tribute

CLIFFORD — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of my dear wife and our mother and grandmother, REGINA BRYANT, on her birthday October 1, who passed away April 20, 1971:

We cannot say, we will not say
That she is dead. She is just away!
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand
She has wandered into an unknown land
And left us dreaming how very fair
Its needs must be, since she lingers there.
And you—oh, you, who the widest yearn
For the old-time step and glad return,
Think of her faring on, as dear,
In the love of There, as the love of Here.
Think of her still as the same, we say —
She is not dead—she is just away.

Husband, NELSON
DAUGHTERS and GRANDCHILDREN.

GORDON — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of my dear husband, DANIEL LESLIE GORDON, on his birthday, October 2, who passed away eight months ago, on January 7, 1971:

I have lost my soul's companion
A life linked with my own!
And day by day I miss him more
As I walk through life alone.
But I'll see you in the morning,
When the sun rises in the sky
I'll see you in the noon time
When the birds are flying high.
I'll see you in the evening
When the sun begins to set.
I'll see you everyday,
And yet I won't forget.
I'll see you in the summer
When the season is so hot,
I'll see you in the fall
And I'll forget you not.
I'll see you in the winter.
Going on your hunting trips
I'll see you in the spring time
When the flowers open their lips
I'll see you every season
Winter, Summer, Spring and Fall
And I'll see you everyday
And I will hear you call.
Each day, each season.
That passes through
I'll always be seeing you

Your Devoted Wife
MARY MENDES GORDON.

GORDON — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of our dear brother, DANIEL LESLIE GORDON, on his birthday, October 2nd, who passed away eight months ago, on January 7, 1971:

Do not ask us if we miss him;
There's such a vacant place.
Oft we think we hear his footsteps
And see his smiling face.
Days of sadness still come o'er us
Tears in silence often flow
Memory keeps him ever near us
Though he left us eight months ago.

Has found sweet rest at last.
