CHAPTER 422.

AN ACT to enable the Directors of the Maryland Institution for the Instruction of the Blind to complete and render fit for occupation the building now in course of erection, in Baltimore county. Passed Mar. 6, 1867.

WHEREAS, since the commencement of the building now in course of erection in Baltimore county, the prices of labor and material of every description have advanced so largely that it is found impossible to complete the same without a very considerable addition to the original estimates, and whereas, the requirements of the Maryland Institution for the instruction of the Blind render the speedy completion of said building absolutely necessary, therefore, Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That for the purpose of enabling the Maryland Institution for the Instruction of the Blind to complete and render tenantable the building now in course of erection in Baltimore county for said Institution, the Treasurer of the State, upon the warrant of the Comptroller, shall pay to the Treasurer of said Institution for the year eighteen hundred and sixty-seven the sum of thirty thousand dollars, and the said sum of thirty thousand dollars is hereby appropriated for that purpose out of any unappropriated money in the Treasury. Appropriation.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage. In force.
