

MEMORIALS—

From Jacob Gladden and others in favor of the Boom bill, 115.

From Robert McGaw and others in favor of the Boom bill, 116.

From Martin Shultz, a soldier of the war 1812, 116.

From 212 citizens of the town of Havre-de-Grace against the erection of any boom or booms below the railroad bridge at said town, 116.

From the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore city praying the General Assembly not to alter the charter of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Company, 123.

From Samuel R. George and others, merchants and bankers of Baltimore, and stockholders of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, praying not to alter the charter of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Company, 124.

From Captain L. H. Early and other citizens of Prince George's county against any amendment to the charter of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Company, 124.

From J. S. Williams and Bros. and other business firms of Baltimore city against any amendment to the charter of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Company, 124.

From Stephen Beard and other citizens of Anne Arundel county against any amendment to the charter of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Company, 124.

From Hon. John S. Sellman and other citizens of Anne Arundel county against any amendment to the charter of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Company, 124.

From D. J. Foley & Co. and others, large business firms of Baltimore, against any amendment to the charter of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Company, 124.

From Coleman & Rogers and twenty-five mercantile firms and bankers of Baltimore against any amendment to the charter of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Company, 125.