ILLUSTRIOUS WOMEN:

Dr. Sheffey sees new trend at Morgan

DR. RUTHE T. SHEFFEY

"I'm enjoying my position at Morgan as chairman of the Eglish department," says the petite Dr. Ruthe T. Sheffey.

Dr. Sheffey was elected to the post as chief by her collegues in Sept., 1970. "Except for one year of teaching in the South," she says "my entire career has been at Morgan.

She belongs to the Modern Language Association of America, the National Conference of Teachers of English, the College Language Association, and in past years she was the president of the middle Atlantic group for the College English Association.

"This year," said Dr. Sheffey "I'm excited about some new things at Morgan." Tom Weatherly, poet in resident teaches a class. There is a new career direction for English majors. A technical writing course at Morgan is being taught by a supervisor from Westinghouse.

"The major achievement," she says, "is a training institute for the humanities teachers. They will meet for 18 sessions year exploring the humanities so that they will be truly masters of the world humanities."

Dr. Sheffey finds time to work in church. She is on the Board of Christian Education at Enoch Baptist Church and she is on the Search Committee for a new pastor.

She has done extensive lecturing and just recently she presented two scholarly papers for the College Language Association: "Attitudes toward Blacks in the 18th Century," and "Wit and Irony in Contemporary Black Poetry."

Married to Vernon Sheffey, director of the Lafayette Square Settlement House, they have two daughters, Ilona Cecil, a sutdent at Millford Mill Senior High; and Renata Gabrielle a student at Woodmoore Elementary.

An authority on Shakespearian literature, Dr. Sheffey explained that each summer her family travels to the Shakespearian Festival held in either Stratford, Conn., Stratford, Canada or in Stratford, England.

As busy as she is, Dr. Sheffey says that she finds time to take Yoga lessons. This week she is part of an Evaluation State Program for Bowie State College.

Lawyers Wives plan dance

Lawyers' Wives held their monthly meeting Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Charles Dorsey.

The group made plans for the year's program. The Political Action Committee of the club will be joining forces with the Citizen's Committee fir Voter Registration to help register and educate the voting public.

Foremost on the agenda are plans fo help black law students at the University of Maryland by providing scholarships.

Drama society at Morgan

The Nu Phi Cast of Alpha Psi Omega Dramatic Society and the Ira Aldridge Players of Morgan State College will present the "Best in Black Theatre" this season.

First this fall will be a production of "Showcase '71: New Wine in a New Bowl." Beginning on October 21 "Showcase" will continue through October 31 (Homecoming Weekend).

A series if song and dance celebrating the BLACK EPERIENCE, THE NEW "Showcase" will feature gospel songs, Harlem Renaissance and contemporary poetry, dances from the 1920's and 30's, and drama.

"Showcase," the first production to be held in the newly finished Little Theatre, will be dedicated to the late Dr. Waters Turpin, former professor of English and chairman if Humanities at Morgan and Arthur C. Lamb, associate professor of English and present director of the Players.

Curtains for all production will be at 7:30 p.m. with Sunday matinees at 3:30 p.m.

Plays are open to the general public, however, due to the limited seating capacity of the Little Theatre, patrons are asked to acquitre tickets immediately. Interester persons may call 3232270, Ext. 382.

Recreation For Everyone—Miss Gail, Mr. Valentine

"Recreation is a vital part of everyday living and the direction of the city's efforts must be shifted to providing recreational acfities which are routinely available to each age group in ech community.

"I will push whatever legislative changes whether in the Charter or by Ordinance to make the appropriate officals accountable when they are not responsive to the recreational needs of the entire community.

"There must be safe, supervised play areas in each neighborhood for the toddler, and the teenager. Our senior citizens must not be forgotten either. T he community center concept embracing education, community affairs as well as recreation must be pusred.

"As a start, our recreation department should take the initiative to go into the communities ti organize Little League type activities, not just for baseball, but for other sports as well.

"The sense of enoyment from the arts is woefully neglected The dollars Baltimore is paying to support concerts by professionals could be spent in organized endeavors in the community.

"There are many who find more satisfaction in themselves practicing the arts rather tran being spectators. This, even more than Little League, is pregnant with the possibility for familia and community involvement.

"All of this requires the definition of goals to be achieved and organizing the city's resources to accomplish the obectives. A Councilman, this approach must be pusred and I will do it."

couple, gathered for the wedding that it is also their duty to do all in their power to see that the marriage is a lasting one. The congregation also participated in the Passing of the Peace and the singing of "O, Perfect Love." No secular music was used for the ceremoiy. Miss Margaret Lindsay sang the "Ava Marie" prior to the entrance of the bridal party. Maurice Murphy was the organist.

Miss Gail, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory peau de soie, the bodice and long sleeves embroidered with seed pearls and lace appliques, as was the hem of the train. Her veil of illusion fell in a cascade from a tiara of seed pearls and lace. She carried an elongated bouquet of Fugi mums, interspersed with a bit of green and showered with velvet ribbons. Tiny butterflies perched on the blossoms.

Miss Carol Ann Lee, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a full length frock of forest green silk, which featured a mandarin neckline and long sleeves. The bodice was enhanced with ivory lace. She carried a single gold Chrysanthemum formed in net and showered with green velvet ribbons.

Other attendants were in similarly fashioned dresses, in gold silk. Each carried oriental bouquets of variegated pom-poms in fan-shaped net and showered with velvet ribbons to match their dresses. Their headpieces were of ribbon and net that also matched their dresses.

The attendants included Mesdames Wanda Swan and Linda Ross; and Misses Erica Fry, Ann Bryant and Anne Pickett.

James Gilliam, Jr. of New York was best man for Mr. Valentine. Ushers were Courtney Grant Valentine, cousin of the bridegroom; Edward Williams, a nephew, Leroy Comegys, Carl Horton of Philadelphia, and Anthony Hawkins.

The reception was held in the Guild Hall of the Church. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Tonya B. Daniels, Lia Lindsey, Celestine Thompson, and Misses Michele Horsey and Josette Powell.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bundara wore a pink brocade ensemble with matching accessories. Mrs. Valentine selected a pink knit Empress dress with pink and metalic vest.

At the reception Mr. Valentine, joined by his Kappa brothers, sang the Song to his bride.

Following this reception, the mothers of the bride and bridegroom entertained guests in honor of the newlyweds at their respective homes.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd E. Webb and Miss Karen Bagland of Washington, Dr. and Mrs. Edward Carroll of Silver Springs, Md., Mr. and Mrs. James Gilliam, Sr. of New Jersey; Mr. and Mrs. James Gilliam, Jr. and John J. Oliver, Jr. of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Eason of Palmyra, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Cockey of Lutherville, Md., Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Ragland and daughter, Nina and Mesdames Isabel Alvarz and Gladys Lockett, all of Philadelphia.

Mr. Valentine is a graduate of Morgan State College, is matriculating at the Morgan State Graduate School, and is a member of the Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity. He is employed with the Maryland State Department of Personnel.

The new Mrs. Valentine received her bachelor of arts degree from Morgan State College and is attending the Coppin State College Graduate School. She made her debut at a Me-De-So Cotillion in 1966 and a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority. She is a home economics teacher at Herring Run Junior High School.

Red Cross honors Mrs. Moore

Mrs. Clara Moore, 1511 E. 28th St., was named the "outstanding volunteer of the year" for Red Cross Community Programs recently at the annual Red Cross dutch-treat Volunteer Recognition dinner held in Overlea Hall.

An active member of the YWCA and other social organizations, Mrs. Moore was awarded the honor following her participation and leadership in various community oriented activities.

Mrs. Moore was congratulated for being a "real humanitarian whose only interest is helping to make her neighborhood a better place to live in."

Special awards for service went to eight people with Mrs. Edward Schepter receiving the Clara D. Tucker Award as the outstanding volunteer for 1971.

Support plea for march against disease

The Maryland Chapter, Muscular Dystrophy Associations if America, Inc., has issued an urgent call for volunteers to help with the 1971 "March Against Dystrophy" to be held Sunday Nov. 7. Please call 435-5821.

Muscular Dystrophy is a disease which progressively invades and destroys the voluntary muscles, crippling its victims, the great majority if whom are children.

Nothing now known to medical science can arrest its downhill course and only a handful of its victims survive to maturity.

Funds raised in the "March" will be used for treatment of MD patients and in vital research.

The Muscular Dystrophy Associations support sime 100 research projects in the United States and abroad, and maintain a network of free clinics throughout the country, including Mary

Doctors' Tests Show How You Can Actually Help Shrink Swelling of Hemorrhoidal Tissues
...Due to Inflammation and Infection. Also Get Prompt, Temporary Relief in Many Cases from Rectal Itching and Pain in Such Tissues.
When inflammation, infection and swelling exist in hemorrhoidal tissues it can be very painful for the sufferer. But there's an exclusive formulation which in many cases gives hours of relief from the burning itch and pain in hemorrhoidal tissues. It also helps shrink the swelling of such tissues. Sufferers are delighted at the way it acts so gently and is so soothing to sensitive tissues.
Tests by doctors on hundreds of patients reported similar successful results in many cases. And it was all done without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or stinging, smarting astringents of any kind.
You can obtain this same medication used in these tests at any drug counter. Its name is Preparation H®. Preparation H also lubricates to protect the inflamed, irritated surface area to help make bowel movements more comfortable. Be sure and try Preparation H in ointment or suppository form.
