Last rites for slain Edmondson High student

Over 150 mourners including students from Edmondson High School crowded into the Keaon Funeral Home chapel Tuesday at 1 p.m. for the funeral service held for Grailen West, 16, an Edmondson High Student.

The youth was shot five times around 12:01 Saturday night when two males with 38 caliber pistols asked him if he had beat up their brother. When Grailen West replied "no" and turned to walk away the youths opened fire.

Wounded he stumbled into the hom of Robert Brown 17, with him at the time of the shooting, and collapsed on the living room floor. The incident occurred in the 200 block of N. Amity St.

The youth died on the way to University Hospital. Reports show that he had been shot five times, two times in the back, one in the side, one in the buttocks and one in the wrist.

Apparently the boy had been mistaken for another youth with a big bush like Grailen West's who had been involved in a fight earlier in the day.

Robert Brown and Charles Flood,13, also in the company of Grailen West at the time of the shooting, said that Grailen had not been involved in the fight.

The homicide division of the central police department report that theyhave not as yet arrested anyone for the murder of Grailen West.

The children in the neighborhood like the youth so much who came to play in their block from his home at 221 N. Fremont Ave. that they collected $25 for flowers for him.

His sister Miss Althea West, 18, had told AFRO that he was a very good artist and had painted his room, carved two horses and a nearby recreation center had wanted him to decorate their facility.

The principal of Edmondson High School where Grailen West was a 10th grader, Lewis Richardson stated, "I talked to several of his teachers and one of them told me that he was a very nice student and quiet.

I attended the wake and expressed my sympathies as well as the school's toothe mother."

The Rev. Samuel Ray of the Morningstar Baptist Church where Grailen West was a member delivered the eulogy and The Rev. Holmes a close friend of the family from N.Y. was also present at the last rites.

There were 15 floral wreaths and 20 cars in the funeral procession to Mount Olive Cemetery.

Grailen West is survived by his mothir, Mrs. Gladys West; his brother, Glenford 19, a fourth grader at Franklin Square Elementary; his two sisters, Miss Althea West 18, a ninth grader at Carver High and Stacey West 7, a first grader at Lexington Terrace Elmentary.

He is also survived by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brown; two aunts, Mrs. Dorothy Ross and Mrs. Dorothy Washington; three uncles, Robert Brown, samuel Ross, Edward Washingtin, and a yreat-uncle, Harold Monroe.

Population and ecology films now available

New films on population and ecology are now available at Plannes Parenthood of Maryland, 517 North Charles St.

Included among the films, is "From the Face of The Earth," a 16 minute color sound film, which depicts the ecology of a possible future: hygienic cubicle dwellings fat beneath the earth's crust.

According to the organization, which considers the population problem in connection with ecology, the films treat the future by suggesion andth present by implication.MCDANIEL

SAVED AT THE LAST MINUTE from cremation in the ovens at the City Morgue was the body of Mrs. Betty Townsend, the elderly, lone woman who died from injuries when an automobile struck her Aug. 16. Sympathetic AFRO readers contributed a small sum and undertaker William Spicer (right) and wife (seated center) and the Rev. Carl L. Washington, Trinity AME Church (standng left) and friends, one of them a soloist, held last rites, gave flowers, casket and grave, "as a Christian, humane thing to do."

500 phone calls on Brailey's 'Decent Burials'

NEW STORY 500 phone calls mli "I have never seen anything like this."

These are the words of Delegate Troy Brailey, who said he received over 500 phone calls and letters after the AFRO ran a headline story October 9, entitled "Brailey Calls for Decent Burials."

Brailey said he prefled the bill after he read about the tragic death of Mrs. Betty Townsend in the AFRO.

Mrs. Townsend was killed in an automobile accident on August 16. She was pennyless and had no friends or relatives to provile her a decent burial.

It was only through the goodness of AFRO readers contributions and William Spicer, mortician that Mrs. Towsend was not burned up in tre city's ovens at the morgue.

Many of the callers said that they wanted to come to Annapolis to testify for the bill when it comes up in the legislative.

The bill says the state of Maryland must provide burial funds.

Mr. Brailey also wants a decent burial ground provided.

RETIREMENT CEREMONIES were held last week for Mrs. Daisy R. Brown Perryman Md. a civilian employee of the Aberdeen-Edgewood Exchange Service. Mrs. Brown who was a shift food supervisor for the Kirk Army Hospital Snack Bar for over 27 years received numerous gifts from fellow employees at her surprise party held in the main office there.

Scholarships to be given

Oberlin College in Ohio, according to Congressman Parren J. Mitchell, will give at least four full scholarships to nominees from each of the 13 districts represented by the members of the Congressional Black Caucus.

Each Congressman each year is to nominate students from their respective districts.

Rep. Mitchell said he would be sending all necessary information to the high schools in his district within the next ten days for immediate implementation.

The Congressman praised Oberlin's president, Dr. Robert W. Fuller, for moving beyond flowery pronouncements of affirmative action programs by demonstrating what can be done when there is a genuine commitment.

In commenting on the University of Maryland's proposed changes in admission standards, Rep. Mitchell said, "President Elkins and the board of Trustees of Maryland state colleges would do well to listen to Dr. Fuller at Oberlin."
