AETNA LIFE & CASUALTY

is mindful of the obligation of built-in business citizenship to demonstrate social responsibility. That's why they've formed a co-ports department to guide Aetna's actions and policies in that direction.

If you have the interest and qualification, you may be able to make meaningful contribution in one of these positions at Aetna's Hartford, Conn. headquarters:

DIRECTOR, URBAN AFFAIRS

Are you familiar with housing problems, government funding and experienced in other urban matters? Can you be credible and effective in dealings with both the black community and white establishment? Our Urban Affairs Director maintains close liaison with the urban Hartford community, counsels senior management on their involvement and encourages Aetna employees to participate in urban affairs.

DIRECTOR, SOCIAL PLANNING AND RESEARCH

Are you bright, creative, tough-minded and objective with a background in the financial and political secret of social or urban planning? That is what's needed; an "idea man" in contact with current thinking in social responsibility who can anticipate trends and help Aetna to react.

These positions offer a salary in the $25,0-$35,0 to $0. Your resume to A. P. Fredrickson, Personnel Department, Aetna Life & Casualty Hartford Conn. 06115 start the ball rolling.
