No teeth

The dental profession has asked congress to include in any health insurance program to help millions of "dental cripples" in the United States.

Dr. Leroy N. Larson, Fort Dodge, Iowa, representing the American Dental Association, told the House Ways and Means Committee it opposes the administration health plan because it does not include dental care coverage.

UNITED NATIONS — Communist China may send its delegation to the United Nations within the next few days.

There were numerous reports both in the United Nations and in world capitals of what the Chinese planned to do. However, there was no official confirmation either by the U.N. leadership or from Peking itself.

Harlem graft

NEW YORK — A suspended patrolman was a public commission investigating corruption this week that every member of a special black and Puerto Rican police unit patrolling the streets of Harlem took money and some paid off informers in narcotics.

Geriatric glow

DANVILLE, Va. — John Wesley Todd, 89 and "pretty spry," moved into the newly created "honeymoon suite" of the city nursing home this week with his sixth wife.

The newlyweds already were residents of the home. Todd, a widower, had occupied room 16 and Miss Christine E. Johnson,
