Turco hearing ends, decision to come

The Federal Court hearing on state efforts to retry New York Lawyer, Arthur F. Turco, in the torture-murder of a Black Panther, was concluded here yesterday.

Federal Court Judge Murray advised U.S. District Attorney General Frances Birch and Defense Attorney William Kunstler, he will reach a decision in the case within a week.

A Nov. 29 trial date has been set for Mr. Turco, 23, who is accused of ordering the murder of a Black Panther alleged to be a police informant.

Only two of the four city officials named in a $1 million damage suit filed by Mr. Kunstler on Aug. 12 appeared in court Thursday for the hearing.

They were State's Attorney Milton B. Allen and Assistant State's Attorney Hilary D. Caplan, the chief prosecuting attorney during the July Turco trial which ended after six weeks in a hung jury.

Also named by Mr. Kunstler in the complaint filed request for injunctive relief to discontinue all trial proceedings against Mr. Turco were Police Commissioner Donald D. Pomerleau and Lt. Col. Maurice Dubois, head of the Police Department's Criminal Investigation Committee.

Both, reportedly, were on vacation.

According to Mr. Kunstler, the federal court should intervene to prevent further trying of his client because of the state's "bad faith prosecution."

Mr. Kunstler specifically charged police officials "duced perjury." He stated, "duced perjury." He stated, "The Baltimore Police Department became the willing tool and the tie of the FBI (Federal Bureau of Investigation) in its effort to break up the Black Panther party."

Rejecting the contention that city officials acting in "bad faith" were protected by "prosecutorial immunity," Kunstler charged, "Captain acted under the color of state laws, he conspired to create and used evidence which he knew was perjured."

According to the defense attorney, Mr. Caplan during the Turco trial reportedly asked a witness who was known to be unable to read or write, to "re-read" a letter to "refresh his memory."

Attorney General Burch, however, contended the Kunstler statements amounted to "Utter ridiculousness and continued excessiveness."

He stated, "this points up the utter desperation which Kunstler and his clients face in trying to build up their case."

The District Attorney also warned if the federal court failed to dismiss the Kunstler suit, "We're going to have this federal court flooded with cases coming from the state criminal court every time there is a hung jury or any discrepancy found in the testimony of a witness."

He further contended "Turco is no different from any other defendant whose trial ends in a hung jury."

Mr. Kunstler, however, discounted the district attorney general's theory and accused him of using "stampede scare tactics" which suggested that the federal court will be flooded.

Also in reference to injunctive relief on behalf of his client and other lawyers "similarly situated" Mr. Kunstler explained he was referring to lawyers who represent unpopular defendants such as the Black Panthers.

According to Mr. Kunstler, the lawyers for these organizations are persecuted because of the organization's unpopularity.

dents, lost the debate.

Dr. Edward J. Anderson, superintendent of schools, presented a recommendation to the board that each high school in the county be allowed to develop and "submit to him procedures and administrative regulations for smoking areas that would meet previous guidelines.

Although he does not smoke, Dr. Anderson stated he made the recommendation because for over two years principals of the county's senior high schools, C.A.C. and student groups have requested a change in the smoking ban.

Dr. Raymond P. Srsic, a physician, Phil Guenser, representative of Belvedere Elementary School PTA and concerned citizens spoke against rescinding the ban.

Speaking as an individual representing other physicians and as the vice president of the Maryland Division of the American Cancer Society, Dr. Srsic asked the board that it weigh the smoking issue heavily.

Since the U.S. surgeon general's report clearly proves that there is positive association between smoking and cancer, Dr. Srsic asserted that any step taken to permit smoking is a backward step.

Guenzer said he was speaking for a group of parents who held a straw vote of 399 to one opposing the removal of the smoking ban.

Parent re-echoing students' statement for rescinding the ban expressed concern over the amount of time spent by administrators in enforcing the ban. Robert Norris, teacher of Glen Burnie High School, stated that smoking areas do not affect a student's decision to smoke.

A sample of student argument read as follows: smoking areas would create better situation in school lavatories; although I am non-smoking, the other students will not have faith in student representation if it not permitted; smoking is hazardous to your health, but so is being suspended from school; suspending a student from school is hampering his education; we are old enough to make decisions on our own; the board should realize that we are trying to change the rules through the established order.

Dr. Richard Clopper, assistant superintendent of secondary school education, stated students of this age ought to be given prerogative of making decisions and being responsible for the consequences.

Mrs. S. Edmon Simmerman, board president, thanked the students for presenting their views to the Board and said she was proud of how student councils counted themselves.

Howard County NAACP president, Douglass Sands, that the 10 ft. high 9 ft. wide wood carving depicting the black man's history from slavery to freedom "is undesirable and unbecoming."

Mrs. Enolia McMillan, president of the Baltimore branch NAACP said local opinions will be reserved until the entire carving is viewed by her representatives.

Llewellyn Woolford, chairman of the Citizens Committee, told the AFRO the collection by the famed artist has received nationwide praise.

He did state, however, that as in the case of all works of art, what the picture says "is in the eyes of the beholder."

The exhibit with the controversial wood carving will be on display from Sunday through November at Kahler Hall, Harper's Choice Village, Columbia. No admission is charged and literature is available free.

several days in fair condition at Lutheran Hospital is now in satisfactory condition.

Also on Friday at 3 p.m. at Douglass High School during their Homecoming activities Anthony Drumgoole, 16, was shot in the upper left leg when he became trapped in a crossfire in the school parking lot.

At the time Anthony Drumgoole was shot, a crowd of about 40 students were in the parking lot when the two persons began shooting.

An attempt by a police officer to capture the suspects was hampered because of students running in all directions trying to escape being shot.

The youth was taken to Provident Hospital, treated and released.

AFRO talked to Anthony Drumgoole who stated that the doctors could not take the bullet out of his leg because removal might paralyze him. "They are waiting for the bullet to move, then they'll operate," added the youth.

His mother, Mrs. Susie Drumgoole, stated, "I'm undecided whether I want to send Anthony back to Douglass, but this type of thing is happening at every school.

"No one has gotten in touch with me or seems to be interested in doing something."

The Rev. Melvin C. Swann has been pastor of Waters for six years.

He stated that "I count it a privilege to be numbered with the ministers who have served and made a remarkable contribution at Waters. These six years and one month have been filled with mixed emotions. When reviewing our glorious past I gained strength and inspiration that helped to pave the way for the future, which has brought us where we are today."

COOK — In loving memory of our dear son, CPL. DAVID B. COOK, who passed away November 7, 1969:
"OUR SOLDIER SON"
When first I held you in my arms,
You were so sweet and small—
We felt that babyhood must be the sweetest time of all.
And when you took your first big step,
Guided by us all the way,
We knew we carried in our hearts,
A love so safe, so sure to stay.
The years rolled on, and tall you grew
To match your daddy's height,
And then we knew you had a job—
To leave us and to fight!
Your uniform, your cheeks of tan,
You standing straight and tall,
'Twas then we realized, dear son,
There is no sweetest time of all.
Each day from babyhood to man,
We treasure as a dream.
And, when God called you from Your fight, it wasn't fair, it seemed.
But God is master of as all,
He needed our dear one;
Your will be done, Almighty

In Memoriam

COOK — In loving memory of my dear brother, CPL. DAVID B. COOK, who passed away November 7, 1969:
If we had seen you at the last
And held your dying hand.
And heard the last sigh from your heart,

We did not know the pain you had,
We did not see you die,
We only know you went far away
And never said goodbye.

Dear Dad on this anniversary,

To the place where you are laid,
And think if God had only left you,
Longer on earth with me to stay.
A Devoted Mother,
