Links sponsor eight in Salute to Women

CHARLOTTE, N. C.—The local chapter of Links sponsored eight distinguished women as nominees in The Central Charlotte Association's Seventh Annual "Salute to Women Who Work."

The nominees participated in a series of week long events spearheaded by downtown business while they were in competition for the coveted Gold Rose Awards in these areas: Education, Community Service, Banking and Finance, Communicating, Arts, Business and Industry, Medicine and Related Fields, Real Estate and Insurance.

The nominees were:

Link Marjorie R. Belton, guidance counselor, West Charlotte Senior High School; Miss Phyllis D. Lynch, Yough Program coordinator, Charlotte Area Fund; Miss Ethel D. Guest, art instructor, South Mecklenburg High School; Mrs. Kathleen R. Crosby, principal, Billingsville School; Mrs. Florence Doby, owner, Tena's House of Charm; Mrs. Bernice W. McKee, head nurse, Mercy Hospital; Mrs. Laura M. Booton, adminstrative assistance-secretary, mechanics and Farmers Bank; and Mrs. Virginia W. Stepteau, cashier, North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company, Charlotte District.

The Links presented the nominees as a part of their fulfillment of the local and national program, "The Search For Black Womanpower."

NOV. 13-14

Approxmately 200 students from high schools throughout Maryland and neighboring states are expected to attend a "Let It Happen"-weekend at Hood College in Frederick Nov. 13-14.

Sponsored by—the Hood Alumnae Association, the special weekend is designed to give prospective students the opportunity to become better acquainted with Hood and its students.

Light Housekeeping

By LULA MACKAY

The person who proudly claims "I never catch a cold has a poor memory, according to one physician-author. Everyone has had at least a few, this doctor says. All but 10 per cent of our population have at least one cold every year and over half have several.

From now until April is the "cold season." For many individuals, there is no "season." Every winter day 20 to 35 million Americans have a cold. The common cold is America's most expensive illness. Absences from work add up to 47 million lost workdays and 65 million lost school days every year. The total time Americans are confined to bed because of colds has been estimated at 116 million days a year.

Avoiding infection by a cold virus is possible — but only up to a point. Recommendations include building resistance by getting sufficient exercise, eating well-balanced meals and getting as much sleep as possible. During cold-weather months, an extra hour a night is wise.

Tension helps to bring on colds.

Avoid chilling, overheating and dampness — not because they cause colds, but because they do lower body resistance and the ability to fight off infection.

Fresh air is an important cold deterrent.

Avoid crowds and people who have colds. Anyone with a cold, especially a child who has not learned to cover sneezes, is a potential cold spreader. Early stages of the disease are the most contagious. Every sneeze fills the air with thousands of virus-laden droplets.

Incidentally, if you have an upper respiratory infection or a nasal allergy, you are advised to travel by train or bus, not by air. Even in pressurized cabins of modern jetliners, air presures vary considerably and can close the nasal passages.

Patients with the following diseases should always see a physician when they have a cold: tuberculosis, rheumatic fever or rheumatic heart disease; chronic bronchitis, bronchial asthma, sinusitis, kidney disease, liver disease, diabetes, and heart disease that is severe enough to cause shortness of breath.

How do I know these things? I read them.

What's new? A car cooling system heats the engine while you sleep, the manufacturer says. This is for sure: starts on the coldest mornings.

The engine pre-heater installs permanently in lower radiator hose. One heater fits all cars. The units will be sold at most auto parts stores and auto departments.

Recipe of the Week: It's time, too, to begin thinking food-and-holidays. Why not pick a pickle?

Pickles can spice up holiday meals for family and company. Pickles can also help add a festive touch when used. One suggestion from Pickle Packers International, Inc. is the new recipe for Pickle Snowballs. Call it a salad, or call it an open-face sandwich — either way it's good eating for company lunch or late supper. Or serve it for a children's party. A ham salad is made with chopped sweet mixed pickles, shaped in a round and frosted with cream cheese to resemble a snowball. Serve on bread, toast or lettuce, it's garnished with a "holly leaf" cut from a slice of sweet gherkin.

Two Toned Deviled Eggs make an attractive garnish for your platters as well as a tasty before dinner treat.

Another delicious little hors d'oeuvre is made by shaping a cheese mixture around chunks of dill pickles. Roll the chunks in crumbled cooked bacon and serve on wooden picks. These Cheese Pickle-Picks go well with any beverage you choose to serve your guests.

Pickle Snowballs are made with 1 pound cooked ham, ground (about 3½ cups), ½ cup chopped sweet mixed pickles, 1/3 cup mayonnaise, 1 tablespoon prepared mustard, Bread, toast or lettuce, 8 ounces cream cheese, softened, 1 tablespoon sweet pickle liquid, and Sweet gherkin slices.

Mix together ham, chopped pickles, mayonnaise and mustard. Using ice cream scoop, shape into balls (pressing mixture into scoop). Chill. Place ham balls on bread, toast or lettuce, buttering bread or toast, if desired. Blend cheese and pickle liquid; frost balls with cheese mixture. Garnish with gherkin slices cut into holly shape.

For two-toned devled eggs use 6 hard-cooked eggs, ¼ cup cream cheese, softened, 3 tablespoons mayonnaise, ¼ cup sweet pickle relish, drained, 6 tablespoons pimiento cheese spread, and ¼ cup mashed braunschweiger or liverwurst.

Cut eggs in half lengthwise and remove yolks; sieve egg yolks. Combine half of yolks with cream cheese, 1½ tablespoons mayonnaise and pickle relish. Combine remaining yolks with pimiento cheese spread and remaining 1½ tablespoons mayonnaise. Fill egg whites with both mixtures and garnish top with braunschweiger or liverwurst.
