mendations to be complied with, if the facility was to continue as a juvenile detention center.

Sixty days later, after a subsequent unannounced visit, Judge Hammerman revealed he had found adequate improvments in all recommended areas, except the replacement of window panes, which officials promised him would be forthcoming.

However, according to Judge Hammerman, "The Baltimore City Jail and the Department of Juvenile Services have had sufficient opportunity to make the Jail facility meet the minimum standards necessary for the proper housing of juveniles.

"Efforts have been made to achieve this, but it is quite apparent they have fallen short.

If the Department of Juvenile Services is going to characterize its own facility as 'intolerable,' then I think the next step is apparent."

Judge Hammerman also stated he would allow resumed use of the Jail facility only in the event that conditions are subsequently corrected in "a completely satisfactory manner."

However, he asserted, renewed use of the Jail would not be allowed to extend beyond the August 2, 1972 deadline which was set in his August 3 opinion this summer.

According to Mr. Bagley, he will recommend that the youths be housed in the Waxter Children's Center and the Maryland Childrens Center.

"However," he stated, "the final decision will remain with the court."

Red Cross dinner Nov. 16

A recognition dinner honoring area blood assurance groups whose annual blood donations have exceeded quotas will be held at 6:15 p.m. Nov. 16th at Martins West, Dogwood Road.

Over 700 persons have paid reservations for the event which marks the 13th anniversary of the Baltimore Regional Red Cross Blood Program.

Dr. George G. Finney, prominent Baltimore surgeon, will be the guest speaker.

Episcopal Church, commented there are a number of church people besides himself who feel: "one of the most important personal rights is to plan for our family."

The official PRO statement read: "PRO will act to insure that no group of individuals can be allowed to force its morals or dogma on the rights of individuals and that no legislation be enacted which would limit or curb the personal rights of any individual."

Mrs. Campbell commented that PRO will not be a tax exempt organization.

Also on the Steering Committee are John P. Bankson, Jr., vice-chairman of the Montgomery County Republican State Centeral Committee; and Howard Murphy, the AFRO's business manager.

Honorary chairman of PRO is Dr. Helen B. Taussig, emeritus professor of pediatrics at Johns Hopkin.

Mrs. Elise M. Darling, member of the Maryland Commission on the status of Women, is the executive secretary.

The temporary headquarters of PRO are at 212 Lambeth Rd.

Byrd stated.

The Commission had its statistics back in May, Dr. Byrd told the AFRO, but "had forgotten the complaintants and tried to help the defendants by delaying the report."

The Commissioners declared in their report: "While it is tragic to uncover even slight traces of discrimination, it is worse than tragic to find signs of discrimination in agencies that comprise a health and social service system."

The Commission found signs of discrimination in "the composition of the various Boards of the agencies, the employment patterns and practices of the individual agencies, and the services that they render to the community."

Wednesday's meeting of the Council and the Fund was not perscribed by the Commission, but was suggested by both parties several weeks ago.

The Commission recommended: 1) immediate negotiation between the Commission and United Fund mission and United Fund and C.I.C.H.A. officials; 2) a review by the Fund of its allocations program; 3) the hiring of a specialist "to effect the elimination of any discrimination." The written policy statement towards equal opportunity Board membership and employment.

"The report," commented Dr. Byrd, "is not as critical as it should have been, based on the hard statistical information they have."

"Quirinformation reveals," the Commission noted, "that there are 2,101 persons on United Fund Boards, of whom 307 or 14 per cent are Black. Of the 307 Blacks, 112 or 30 per cent are the Boards of those 6 agencies serving the Black community...Black representation on the remaining 187 Boards is only 9 per cent."

The United Fund Advisory Board of 170 has only 7 Black members.

"The 'little' man is not numerically represented on this advisory Board, not to speak of the actual Board of Directors," the Commission stated.

"We do feel that the absence of a representative number of Blacks on the policy-making Boards of the agtncies is indicative of a very serious problem," the Commissioners decided.

823 of the 1,339 black citizens employed with the United Fund Agencies work at medical care facilities.

"552 or 67 per cent of those Blacks employed at these 8 facilities.

"552 or 67 per cent of those Blacks employed at these 5 facilities are classified as service workers, i.e., the janitors, maids, etc., and in other menial capacities historically reserved for Black employment," the Commission remarked.

sociation to get members of the ILA to a round table conference to resolve the strike had failed.

Mr. Slaughter contended that there was conclusive evidence to show that in all their actions, the local ILA men have proved to have their actions directed from New York.

The ILA however, denied these charges and explained that their strike was motivated by a "primary dispute with the Steamship Association."

Defense counsel, Costimo C. Abato, told the court, "That happened because there was no contract after the expiration of their contract on Sept. 30."

"And this is not the first time. It is traditional," he told the court in his vigorous strike of presenting arguments.

Due notices, he testified, were given to the STA with intint to negotiate as required by law for new wages, hours and other terms and conditions of employment.

"Steamship Trade Association and its employer members and the New York Shipping Association are allies" and that for over twenty years master contract covering wages and other terms of collective bargaining agreement on behalf of STA have been executed by NYSA whose members own and control STA.

In his evidence to the court, James Fortune, president of the STA agreed that over the years ILA members refused to go to work at the expiration of their contract.

He told the court he never succeeded in resolving the strike with the ILA because they were not prepared to negotiate.

mother trying to offer young people a place to have fun.

"I wanted to give a dance for the children because they didn't have a place to go and to keep them off the streets, they don't plan to give any more," Mrs. Rosa Lindsey told the AFRO.

Mrs. Lindsey, mother of teenage children, gave a dance at her home Friday night for some youngsters. Before the party was over one youth, Charles Skipwith, 17, had been killed.

Mrs. Lindsey told AFRO that the dance started at 8 p.m. and was to end at 11:30 p.m. A few minutes before the party was to end her son begged her for a few more minutes.

She allowed the teenagers to stay another half hour. She also stated that she was in the kitchen when heard three gunshots right after her son had gone back downstairs.

A few minutes later a youth brought your Skipwith upstairs and laid him on the living room floor while about two dozen youths started running out the door.

Mrs. Lindsey stated, "I held him in my arms. He was trying to say something, but he couldn't. I saw only one bullet hole and that was in his chest.

"One of the kids told me that there were two boys involved. They said one of them saw Charles Skipwith and told the other one to fire on him and he did. There was no argument.

"Maybe if the party had ended when it was supposed to this wouldn't have happened," she added.

Police reports show that they received a call to the 1400 block of Myrtle Ave. and arriving at the scene saw several persons running from the house.

After entering the house, police saw the victim lying on the living room floor with a puncture wound in the left side of his chest caused by a gunshot.

The youth was transported to Maryland General Hospital where he was pronounced dead on arrival.

A 15 year-old witness was taken to the Homicide Unit and shown a group of photographs and identified a youth wanted for the shooting.

One juvenile was arrested and the police are looking for another suspect.

Before the tragedy young Skipwith had been very patriotic and belonged to the Naval Militia participating in many of its activities.

Surviving are his parents, Mrs. Bernice Skipwith Parker; his stepfather, Author Parker; one brother Anthony Parker, 16, his father, two grandmothers, four aunts and five great aunts.

Rep. Mitchell at Bowie Tuesday

Representative Parren J. Mitchell (D-MD) will lecture on "The Impact of the Black Vote" at 10 a.m., Tuesday, November 16, in McKeldin Gymnasium, Bowie State College.

The lecture, free and open to the public, is the fourth in a series given in the course "Black Politics in the U. S." sponsored by the college.

Throughout the semester, speakers are scheduled to broaden the students' viewpoint of Black politics.

The next guest speaker will be Rev. Channing Phillips.

Mr. Mitchell, the first Black Congressman from Maryland, has fought to include Blacks in the system since 1950 when he led a NAACP sponsored court fight to be admitted as the first Black student at University of Maryland, College Park.

Since that time he has been active in many successful programs affecting change for Blacks in the Baltimore area.

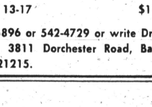
Birthday Tribute

BOARDLEY — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of our devoted mother, grandmother, and mother-in-law, MARY E., on her birthday November 10 who departed this life May 6, 1969:



Today is your Birthday, Mother,
November 10th.
No cards, cake or ice cream;
Only tears.
Although your smiling face is
No more with us, on your birthday,
Your memory is always near.
Your chair is at the table
where you always sat.
No cake or ice cream for the Big Day.
We all can say, "We shall meet some bright morning in the Upper Garden Fair."
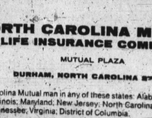
Devoted Daughter,
NAOMI CLAR K
Grandson, CHERRY
Son-In-Law, ELMER
Stepson, GORDON

BROWN — A Birthday tribute to the memory of my dear husband, SAMUEL R. BROWN, on his birthday, November 13, who passed away July 7, 1970:
Today my heart is heavy,
My thoughts are all of thee.
Oh, how I miss you, Samuel dear,
Note but God in Heaven can see.
Some say time heals an aching heart,
But, no, it isn't true
For two birthdays ago you passed dear,
And my heart still aches for you.
Loving Wife, CLEO

BROWN — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of our dear father, SAMUEL R BROWN, on his birthday, November 13, who passed away July 17, 1970:
Gone, dear father, gone forever.
How we miss your smiling face.
But you left us to remember
None on earth can take your place.
A happy home we once enjoyed.
How sweet the memory still.
But death has left a loneliness
The world can never fill.
Children, SAMMY
RICKY, MICHELLE
And CASSAUNDRA

MITCHELL-HILL — A Birthday tribute to the memory of my husband, LEMUEL MITCHELL, on his birthday, November 4th and grandson, BERNARD ELL, on his birthday, September 11th:
If I could have my fondest wish,
The most wonderful in the world today,
I would wrap it up in loving words
And send it on its way.
And when your birthday morn will dawn
I'll whisper soft and low:
"Please, God, let me have my loved one
Back, because I miss them so."
Loving Wife
and Grandmother,
LILLIAN MITCHELL

SMITH — A Birthday tribute to the memory of our loved one, CARL, on his birthday November 14, who passed January 13, 1967.



If we could have our fondest wish,
The most wonderful in the world today;
We would wrap it up in loving words,
And send it on its way.
And when your birthday morn will down
We'll whisper soft and low;
"Please, God, let us have our Loved One Back, because we miss him so."

CARTER — In loving memory of my dear sister, MARGARET B. CARTER, who passed away November 10, 1968:
When the evening shades are falling,
And I am sitting all alone,
In my heart there comes a longing
If you only could come home.
Oft and oft my thoughts do wander
To you, grave so far away,
Where I laid you
dearest sister
Two years ago today.
Loving Sister
ALICE R. MAKEL.

COUNTS-MAYERS — In loving memory of my dear son, LEO COUNTS, who passed November 10, 1968 and my dear brother, RAYFORD PUNELL MAYERS, who passed November 6, 1968:
There's a face that is haunting as ever,
There's a voice that we're longing to hear.
There's a smile we'll remember forever,
Though we try to forget every tear.
There's a sad but sweet remembrance,
There's a memory fond and true,
There's a token of affection, dear
And a heartache still for you.
Mother and Sister,
EVELYN COUNTS

CHEW — In memory of our dear sister, VIRGINIA E. CHEW, who passed away seven years ago, November 13th, 1964:
There's a face that is haunting as ever;
There's a voice that we're longing to hear.
There's a smile we'll remember forever,
Though we try to forget every tear.
There's a sad but sweet remembrance,
There's a memory fond and true,
There's a token of affection, dear,
And a heartache still for you.

EVANS — In loving memory of my wife, MARTHA, who departed this life November 10th, 1970:
I'll remember you, dear, while there's life in my heart,
And the God in His wisdom has torn us apart;
In your home up in Heaven you must know that I'm true
To the love and esteem that was only for you.
And I pray that when life for me comes to an end,
I will meet you in Heaven, my own dearest friend;
My friend and my sweetheart, my one dearest love,
God keep you and guard you in Heaven above.
Husband, WILLIE

FOGLE — In loving memory of my dear husband, SAMUEL FOGLE, who passed away November 13th, 1956:
I seem to see in the soft, dim light
A face I love the best.
And think of him when the sun's last ray
Goes down in the far-off West.
I miss you no less as the time passes on
Than I did on the day of your going.
For absence can never close the door of my heart
And the lamp of my love is still glowing
Your heart was the truest in all the wide world,
Your love the best to recall,
For no one on earth can take your place,
You are still the dearest of all.

FARMER — A tribute of love to the memory of our husband and father, RICHARD FARMER, who departed this life November 14th, 1970:
Sad and sudden was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all;
A bitter grief, and shock severe,
It was to part with one so dear.
We often sit and think of you,
And speak of how you died,
To think you could not say good-bye
Before you closed your eyes.
For all of us you did your best
Oh, God, grant you eternal rest.

Flowers will bloom in the summer,
In the autumn it will rain,
But the face of my dear brother
I would love to see again,
Brother, when the buds open
And the flowers in beauty wave
I will gather up some bunches
And lay them gently on your grave.
Oh, so often do I wander,
To the place where you are laid
And think if God had only left you
Longer on earth with me to stay.
