

as though this act and the act of eighteen hundred and thirty-eight, chapter twenty-two, had not passed.

SEC. 28. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the clerk of the commissioners of Anne Arundel county to furnish to the commissioners of Howard district any information which they may require in regard to the valuation and assessment of property within the limits of said Howard district, and any other information which they may deem necessary for the proper discharge of their duties, and that said commissioners of Howard district shall have the authority to re-value and re-assess the real and personal estate of said district so far as the dividing line between said district and the residue of Anne Arundel county may render it necessary, and in making such valuation and assessment the said commissioners shall be governed by the act of eighteen hundred and thirty-two, chapter one hundred and thirty-nine and its supplements, so far as the same may be applicable to the case.

SEC. 29. And be it enacted, That in every case removed to the court of Howard district of Anne Arundel county, the costs of such removed case shall be paid by the county from which said case was removed, and that the laws which relate to the removal of cases to Anne Arundel county court, shall apply to cases removed to the court of Howard district of Anne Arundel county.

SEC. 30. And be it enacted, That the present board of commissioners of Anne Arundel county shall assess and levy upon the assessable property of Anne Arundel county, including Howard district, a sum of money sufficient to defray all the liabilities of the county up to the time of the passage of this act, and such further sum as may be necessary to carry the provisions of this section into effect, and that said money shall be received and disbursed by said commissioners for the purposes aforesaid, and that for the purpose of collecting and levying such money so assessed and levied as aforesaid, the said commissioners shall have authority to appoint collectors who shall qualify and as respects this act for the purpose aforesaid, as though this act and the act of eighteen hundred and thirty-eight, chapter twenty-two, had not been passed.

SEC. 31. And be it enacted, That the trustees of the poor of Howard district, shall remove from the alms-house of Anne Arundel county, all such persons as shall be in said alms-house at the time of the passage of this act, and who were taken from any part of the territory now constituting said district, and that the commissioners of said district shall pay to said trustees the expenses of such removal, and said commissioners are authorized to assess and levy upon the assessable property of said district a sum sufficient for such payment, and to defray their collections.

Amount of property in district.

Cases of removal paid to district court.

Levy to be made.

Poor to be removed.