

	Page.
When the poll shall be closed, the boxes to be opened by the judges and the ballots publicly read by them—1805, ch. 97, sec. 13,	518
The clerks to enter, and keep an account of the same, so that the number may be cast up—1805, ch. 97, sec. 13,	518
Ballots on which more names are written than there ought to be, or which are deceitfully folded together, or if the purpose is not plainly designated, to be rejected—1805, ch. 97, sec. 13,	518
When the numbers are ascertained, the judges to make out two statements, attested by the clerks, or one of them, of the votes, &c. the numbers to be expressed in words, and not in figures—1805, ch. 97, sec. 14;	519
To be in the form prescribed therein, or to the like effect, attested by the clerks—1805, ch. 97, sec. 14,	519
The presiding judges, (or in case of inability, either of the others,) to meet on the second day after the election, with the books, &c. at the place of holding the county courts—1805, ch. 97, sec. 15,	519
To meet on the day next after the election in the city of Baltimore—1805, ch. 97, sec. 15,	519
When assembled, to cast up the whole of the votes of all the districts, and make out two statements and certificates of the numbers of votes for each candidate—1805, ch. 97, sec. 15,	519
The certificates for delegates to the general assembly to be directed to the chancellor, in the form therein prescribed, or to the like effect—1805, ch. 97, sec. 15,	519
Same as to sheriffs—to be directed to the governor and council—1805, ch. 97, sec. 15,	519
Same as to representatives in congress—1805, ch. 97, sec. 15,	519
Same as to electors of president and vice-president of the United States—1805, ch. 97, sec. 15,	519
13- Directions for returns of the elections for representatives in congress or electors of president and vice-president, where counties are divided for forming a district—1805, ch. 97, sec. 16,	521
If any of the judges should be prevented from attending, the others may adjourn from day to day, until all are assembled—1805, ch. 97, sec. 17,	522
The judges to lodge with the county clerks, within one day from their meeting, the books of the polls of all the districts in the counties respectively, with a certificate of the votes given—1805, ch. 97, sec. 18,	522
To cause one other certificate to be enclosed to the governor and council, endorsed 'on public service,' and placed in the nearest post-office—1805, ch. 97, sec. 18,	522
In case of elections for delegates to the general assembly, * * * * * * the judges to cause the returns, directed and transmitted as aforesaid to the governor and council as aforesaid, to be addressed to the chancellor, to be delivered by them—1805, ch. 97, sec. 19,	522
Copies, under seal, of the certificates lodged by the judges with the clerk, to be enclosed by them within five days, to the governor and council, in like manner—1805, ch. 97, sec. 20,	522