Money, Please, Says Bell

MIAMI BEACH — The American Telephone and Telegraph Co. has told the Democratic party to forget about phones for the 1972 presidential nominating convention next July unless the party takes care of its old bill.

The Democrats still owe $1.5 million to AT and T for telephonelines and equipment in the 1968 national conventon in Chicago.

Now AT and T has told democratic chairman Lawrence O'Brien to either pay the old bill, put up a $2 million guarantee payment bond or it's "sorry, wrong number."

Lombard Council has a fine rally

By GEORGIANNA MOODY

The Perkins and Flag House Queen's Rally sponsored by the Lombard Community School Council was held recently. The ceremony was a beautiful affair and well planned.

Awards for the contest winners were presented by Mrs. Elaine Howard, housing manager at Perkins Home.

Winning queens were Donna Wilson and Yvette Scott. Special thanks awards were presented to Evelyn Harris and Marva Fields, home economic department.

Participants on the program were the Rev. Adam Rollins, C.E. Brooks, school principal; M's Beatrice Brooks, council president; Williams Cummins, musical director; Oliver Clark, social service counselor.

Dedication Ceremony for the addition to Carrollton Elementary school No. 139, took place on Monday. Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro III delieveld greetings.

Thomas J. Wheaden, principal introduced the guest speaker. Greetings were brought by M's Barbara Murchison, Ronda Miles, Russell Yarborough, and school superintendent Roland Patterson.

Participating in the program were Keith Nicholson, Kevin Reed, Herbert Chase and Wayne Lee.

Birthday greeting to Francis Reeves, (Dec. 5) Birthday greetings also to Anna Moseley.

Council A has a model city van Monday-Friday from 10 to 12 p.m. It is free to any resident living in Council A.

Council A still holds it's council meetings on the first and third Monday of the month at 7:00 p.m. The council also provides free transportation.

tucked in at his Bateman Ave. home, this week. Reason...a too fast change from arctic to tropical climate.

Dr. Frisby, who had been in alaska to speak at the testimonial honoring Anchorage's most outstanding citizen, Millionaress Zola Swanson, real estate broker, came in from that jaunt on Tuesday, and sailed off on a cruise to the Carribean on Thursday. He's recuperating, however.

Dr. and Mrs. Bernard (Jeanette) Christmas celebrated their 50th year of marriage, recently . . . quietly without fanfare.

Dr. Robert Bennett of Detroit, Mich., who came for the Guardsmen's weekend, was the nucleate around which members of the Douglass High School Class of 1926 gathered to plan a memorial to the late Rita White Lightfoot, Sunday. The class had been formally organized by Mrs. White, and through her news letters, etc. had been kept together for years.

Members met in the home of Mildred Lynch Patterson, Hilton Road and planned a Good Citizenship project, the award to be accompanied by a plaque.

Hiram Butler, Carolyn Robinson, Catherine Greene, Mildred Patterson, Osborne Dixon and Alonzo Kelly, compose the committee.

Attending the session were:

Enolia Dyer, Hester Thomas, Mabel Bates, Catherine Greene, Naomi Armstrong, Catherine Dixon, Louise T. Jones, Marian Phillips, Carolyn Robinson, Lillian B. Reid, Mildred Bryant, Evelyn Addison, Mildred Lynch, Emma Kelly (guest), Hiram Butler, Alonzo Kelly, Osborne Dixon, George Briscoe, Charles Mitchner Sr., and Dr. Robert Bennett.

The Columbia chapter of Delta Sigma Thetas had a fine evening and gathered shekels for the year's operating expenses on Friday evening when they gathered friends as well as sisters at the Garland Dinner Theatre to dine and to see the play "Catch Me If You Can," a light comedy by Jack Weinstock and Willie Gilbert. Celonia Walden, president of the chapter, and Margo Barton, who had gathered items from friendly Columbia merchants, auctioned them off as prizes during intermission.

"The Bishops' Guild of The Episcopal Diocese of Maryland will hold its regular monthly meeting and Christmas luncheon at 1:00 p.m. on Friday, December 10th, at The Cathedral Church of the Incarnation, University Parkway and St. Paul Street.

Those attending are requested to bring gifts for Lafayette Square Community Center, marking each to indicate for boy or girl, and age for which suitable; or donatons of money or Curity diapers for The Church Mission of Help.

Following the meeting, at which both Bishops will be present, and blessing of the gifts, a program which includes short talks by two seminarians, and music by the Hannah Moore Choir and Bell Ringers under the direction of Miss Ambruster will be presented."
