

By 1829, ch. 208, sec. 3, the appointment of a provisional trustee, upon his executing his bond, vests per se, all the effects of the insolvent in him.

Not to prevent appointment of permanent trustee

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act contained shall be construed to prevent the appointment of any permanent trustee for the benefit of the creditors of any insolvent debtor in like manner as permanent trustees are now appointed.

See preceding note.

Transfer of trust.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That upon the appointment of any permanent trustee it shall be the duty of the said provisional trustee to execute a good and sufficient deed for the real and personal estate of the said insolvent debtor, except as is herein before provided, to the said permanent trustee, and to deliver over to the said permanent trustee all the real and personal estate of the said insolvent debtor, except as aforesaid, for the benefit of his creditors.

Acts inconsistent herewith repealed.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That any thing in any other act of assembly contained, which is inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 206.

AN ACT for Regulating and Inspecting Weights and Measures, used in this State.

See 2d volume, { as to Allegany county, 1832, ch. 101.
as to Anne Arundel county, 1834, ch. 178.
as to Harford county, 1831, ch. 154.

Executive to procure standard.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be the duty of the governor and council of this state, on or before the first day of August next, to procure and deliver to the levy courts of each of the several counties in this state, a standard of each of the several kinds of weights and measures used at the custom house in the city of Baltimore.

Annual appointment of person to keep them, Sec. his bond.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That so soon as the levy courts of each of the counties in this state are furnished with the said standards of weights and measures, it shall be their duty to appoint, on or before the first day of May in each and every year, some person as keeper of the standards of weights and measures, whose duty it shall be, safely to keep and preserve the same, and when required to deliver them to the said levy court, or such person as the said court may appoint to receive the same, and to perform the several duties prescribed by this act; and before they shall enter upon the duties of their appointment, they shall each give bond to the levy court of the county for which they, or any of them, may be appointed, in the penal sum of five hundred dollars, conditioned for the faithful discharge of all the duties appertaining to their office.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That all weights and measures used within the several counties of this state, in the vending of