

said section, shall, on conviction before any justice of the peace in the county wherein such offence shall or may be committed, shall pay a fine of not more than ten dollars, nor less than one dollar, such fines to be paid over to the collector, for the use of the levy court of the county in which such offence shall or may be committed.

One justice to act.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That so much of the fifth section of the act to which this is a supplement, as requires two justices of the peace to act, be, and the same is hereby repealed; and that from and after the passage of this act, one justice of the peace shall be competent to act in all such cases as required two justices of the peace under the original act.

Negroes punishable.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That if any negro or mulatto shall at any time be found lurking about in the neighbourhood within one mile of any camp meeting, selling, bartering, or otherwise disposing of spirituous liquors, wine, porter, beer, cider, or other fermented, mixed or strong drink, he or she shall, on conviction before a justice of the peace, be sentenced by the said justice forthwith, to receive on his or her bare back, such number of stripes as he shall order, not less than ten, nor more than thirty-nine.

Whipping
prohibited near camp.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That no stripes shall be inflicted on any person, within one mile of any camp meeting.

CHAPTER 37.

A further additional SUPPLEMENT to the ACT concerning Crimes and Punishments.

SEC. 1, 2, 3, 6. Relate to additional improvements, directed to be made about the penitentiary buildings.

SEC. 4, 5. Are repealed by 1837, ch. 320.

CHAPTER 44.

AN ACT to authorize the several Courts in this State, to appoint Surveyors in certain cases.

Court may appoint surveyor.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in any case or cases pending in any of the courts of this state, where it is necessary to lay out and locate any land or lands, and where upon the application of either party to such suit or suits, the courts shall be of opinion, that the county surveyor is in any manner interested or prejudiced against either of the parties, or if either of the parties shall make oath that he believes the county surveyor is interested or prejudiced, it shall and may be lawful for the court in which such suit or suits are pending, to appoint some competent person to lay out, locate or survey said land or lands, for which service the person so appointed shall receive such fees as are allowed by law to the county surveyor for like services.