NEW DEACONS—For the first time in Catholic churches, candidates were officially accepted by the church as deacons. Installation services for the new deacons were held recently at St. Edward Catholic Church. New deacons and their church are (l. to r.) Malcolm Thompson, Our Lady of Lourdes; Bernard Dumais, St. Mark's Parish; Norman Colson, St. Clement (Landsdown); Bernard Joseph, St. Edward; Earl Smith, St. Edward; Harry Carpenter, St. William of York; James Avant, St. Martin; Joseph Neale, Sr., St. Edward.

98 YEARS OF DEDICATION—Brothers Victor and Henry Hall have been licensed stationary engineers for 48 and 50 years respectively. For such dedication the Carver Engineers Association has awarded them operating engineer honorary certificates, expiring Nov. 1, 1999. At the presentation were (l. to r.) Victor Hall, retired stationary engineer at Provident Hospital; Ernest Gambill, engineering division of the Department of Education; Henry Hall, retired chief engineer of Provident Hospital; James Ross, chief engineer at Douglass High School; John H. Thornton, member of Board of Engineer Examiners; and Glover Jennings, maintenance administrator of the Department of Education.

It's always been our pleasure to serve you, thanks to your loyalty and good will. We hope that your holiday season will be spent joyously in the company of those you hold dear. Merry Christmas!

TWO COLONELS AND A QUEEN—Morgan State ROTC Queen for 1972-73, Miss Denise Ogle, is flanked by Colonels Clarence M. Hurtt, Professor of Military Science, Morgan State College and Col. Eleazar Parmly of Johns Hopkins University. Miss Ogle, a sophomore elementary education major, was crowned queen of the Annual ROTC Ball held at Morgan Saturday in the Memorial Rectory. (J. D. Howard Photo).

TO THE RESCUE—Victims of a fire that swept away their home and the life of their sister, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wilson and their five children have been rescued by the Red Cross and the Police Department's Community Relations Section, which has secured new living quarters for the family as well as furniture, cooking utensils, bed linens and clothing. Shown above are (L. to R.) Sgt. Francis Guitteriez, Southeast Community Relations officer; Lt. Carolyn Robinson, Community Relations Section; Mr. Donald Wilson; Mrs. Betty Wilson; and Gamley Beuhler, vice-chairman Southeast Community Relations Council.

EYE BANK TELLERS—Former Baltimore Colts stars Lenny Moore (center) and Ordell Braase were integral forces in the conduct of Eye Bank Week, which closes tomorrow (Saturday). They are shown with Mrs. William Boucher 3rd, chairman of the board of directors of the Medical Eye Bank, and Miss Nina Miller of Maryland National Bank, who signed as the first donor.

A FAMILY TOAST TO GOOD TIMES with champagne and steak means that Miss Ann and Mr. Charlie are back together. With Coppin Players production of "Happy Ending" produced by Sam Wilson portrayed are the fringe benefits secured by two domestics who run Mr. Charlie's and Miss Ann's household. Now that they Miss Ann and her husband, decided not to separate, the families good times and fringe benefits are back again—Truly a "Happy Ending." 16.9
