

CHAPTER 230.

AN ACT to appropriate the sum of money therein mentioned to pay John Stevens Sellman, of Anne Arundel County, for his services as an Elector of the Senate of eighteen hundred and thirty-six.

WHEREAS, At a State election held in the month of September in the year eighteen hundred and thirty-six, John Stevens Sellman was duly elected and returned one of the Electors of Senate for Anne Arundel County, and the Electors chosen for the several counties of the State met in the city of Annapolis on the nineteenth day of said month of September in the said year eighteen hundred and thirty-six, and continued in session without a quorum until the seventh day of October following, when the said John Stevens Sellman appeared and duly qualified, and took his seat as an Elector as aforesaid, and continued to hold his seat as an Elector until the nineteenth day of November following, when a constitutional quorum of the Electors elected at the State election as aforesaid having appeared and qualified, the body proceeded to elect, and did elect a Senate as required by the Constitution of the State; and whereas, by Resolution number two of December Session, eighteen hundred and thirty-six, the General Assembly directed the Treasurer to pay to the several Electors of Senate who qualified, their Clerk and officers, the mileage and per diem fixed by law, for which they should procure certificates from the Committee of Claims of the House of Delegates of said December Session, eighteen hundred and thirty-six; and whereas it appears that all the Electors who qualified did receive their certificates and were duly paid the several amounts to which they were entitled, except the said John Stevens Sellman, who omitted to apply to the said Committee of Claims for his mileage and per diem to which he was entitled as an Elector as aforesaid, under the said Resolution number two of eighteen hundred and thirty-six, nor has he since applied for or received any allowance or compensation for his services as an Preamble.

Mileage and per diem.
