U of Md. presses security in dormitories

Following is a recent statement by Chancellor Charles E. Bishop, University of Maryland, College Park, on measures to eliminate recent robbery of students in campus dormitories.

"We are greatly concerned by criminal acts of any kind commited on this campus and we shall do all in our power to bring a halt to such incidents.

"The recent malicious acts committed in two of our residence halls cannot an' will not be tolerated. Those who commit crimes, those who engage in activities that promote crime, and those who shelter those who commit criminal acts are not welcomt on this campus.

"The safety of all members of this community must be assured.

"To this end, I am announcing that the following security measures be placed into effect in our residence halls this evening:

"That admission to each residence hall will be by the main entrance only;

"That each resident must show his or her university identification card when entering their respective hall;

"That student guests must show their university identification card, and that their name be recorded as they arrve and as they leave;

"In addition to these measures, I have instructed university security officers totake specific steps to increase and improve security in and around the residence halls.

"These measures are effective at 6 p.m. today, Tuesday, Nov. 30, 1971, and will be in effect 24 hours each day for an ndefinite

Lend-A-Hand Club holds Yule Party

Lend-A-Helping Hand, an organization devoted to charitable works in the community, welcomed the Christmas holidays with a party.

The party, hosted by Mrs. Julia A. Brooks at her Washington St. home, last Saturday, proved to be a "Most enjoyable evening," say members in the club.

After dinner, club members exchanged gifts, and holdiday cards with one another, then an evening of chat and relaxation were in order.

The club has been organized for 30 years, its first president was Mrs. C. Edward Brown. The Maryland Baptist Aged Home, on Raynor Ave. and the Annie Mae Hunter Home for the Blind on Eutaw Place, are the club's two main targets for charitable work.

Visiting the patients in the home, Lend-A-Helping Hand members are responsible for bringing joy and a spirit of friendship to people who otherwise have no contact withthe outside wor.d.

Club members include Mesdames Estairor Hodges, president, Marie E. Taylor, vice president, Mazie Wilson, secretary, Julia A. Brooks, treasurer.

Julia Jeffries, Joanna Pinnick, Bertha Smith, Bertha Winston, Ethel Simmons, Helen Hemming, M.C. Allen, Mary E. Brown Euther Taylor and Gertrude Barron

Guests included Rev. and Mrs. Spencer Dobson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Meade; Mesdames Mary M. Waters and Kathleen Green; Cornwallise Jeffries.

G.I. home loan activities during the June and September quarters chalked up the best record of any similar period since the late 1950s, according to the Veterans Administration.

* * *

Veteran Administration co-sponsorship of G.I. Bill on-the-job training with private, state, federal and municipal employers recently resulted in 8,000 new programs and 12,000 new "job slots."

Pensioners 72 years old and older on Veterans Administration rolls during two consecutive years no longer have to file annual income questionnaires, but still must report changes in income.
