

they may erect a pump thereon if they think necessary.

142. They may pass ordinances to prevent horses, cattle, swine and geese from running at large within the limits of said town. Ordinances.

143. No person shall permit his hogs or geese to run at large in said town, and if any hog or goose shall be found running at large therein, the bailiff shall immediately seize and impound the same, and the bailiff shall immediately give notice thereof by public advertisement, and if the owner shall not within three days thereafter pay said bailiff ten cents for every day of impounding any goose, and fifty cents for every day of impounding any hog, the bailiff may sell the same at public sale, and after deducting thirty cents for every goose, and one dollar for every hog, shall pay the purchase money to the Commissioners of said town. Not to run at large.

144. The said Commissioners may cause an assessment and valuation to be made of all the real and personal property within said town, between the tenth of July and the tenth of August next, and may levy on the property assessed such sums of money as they may deem necessary for the improvement of said town, not to exceed thirty cents, on any one hundred dollars worth of property for any one year. Assess.

145. The said Commissioners shall appoint two persons to make such assessment, who shall make oath before the said commissioners that they will faithfully and impartially make the same to the best of their judgment, and they shall be paid for their services by said Commissioners out of the taxes levied as aforesaid. Assessors.

146. Any person who may deem himself or herself aggrieved by said assessment, may appeal for relief to the said Commissioners within thirty days after the return made by the assessors, and the Commissioners may alter or change the same in their discretion; and the said Commissioners shall have the power annually to make abatements and transfers, and cause a new assessment to be made. Aggrieved.

147. The said Commissioners shall annually appoint a Treasurer of the Corporation, who shall