What's Happening!

By IDA PETERS

BLACK GIRL

Go see for yourself. "Black Girl" which opened this past Tuesday at the Morris Mechanic.

When the play opened Off-Broadway, in June, 1971, Jerry Tallmer wrote:

"What really makes it poetic is that it's set in raw gut humor which last night had a black and white audience in frequent collapse."

Variety, on Wed., July 7, 1971 calls it "a brief play retrieved by its ability to convey social aspects of lower middle-class Negro life with hard edged accuracy and good humor."

R. H. Gardner in the "Morning Sun" says "The consistent reaction of the black members of the audience, who laughed at every line, leads me to believe that playwright J. E. Franklin is dealing with something readily recognizable to members of her race. But as to what that something is, I'm still not sure."

Go see for yourself. When Purlie opened in N.Y. the New York Times advised the white brothers to take a black brother so he could find out what the joke was.

When I'm over the flu, I'll tell you.

this Sunday at the Civic Center.

Gladys Knight and The Pips are still climbing that tall ladder of success, but they are broadening in scope also. Primarily billed as rock and roll singers, the group has delighted their audiences with smooth, close harmony renditions of such standards as "Sayonara," "The Look Of Love," "Girl Talk," and "All The Things You Are."

Although they have succeeded in showcasing their talents to audiences throughout the United States and in Bermuda and United Kingdom, they haven't forgotten where it all began — in a small Baptist church in Atlanta.

As a child singing with The Pips, Gladys began the tradition of the prayer chain. Before every performance, the group joins hands and prays. Says Gladys, "It doesn't matter who's around. The prayer always comes from the heart. Without Him, nothing is possible." See them this Sun. at the Civic Center.

ORIGINATORS, LTD.

"A Super Funky Extravaganza" featuring THE FUNKADELICS and THE SOUND EXPERIENCE will be held at the Civic Center, Sat., Jan. 15th.

Also on the program will be THE 15th CHAPTER. Members of the group are: Arthur Woodard, president; Brian Waller, business manager; Al Robinson, Anthony Davis and Dave Murphy.

THAROAH SAUNDERS

Hay Pino will present Pharoah Saunders Septet and Mongo Santamaria Octet for the benefit of John and Alice Coltrane.

Pharoah is a protege of Sickle Cell Anemia at the Famous Ballroom, this Sun. Coming, Jan. 16th, the Donald Byrd Septet.

ICE FOLLIES HOLDS AUDITIONS

Auditions for skating talent will be held Thursday, Jan. 13 at 1:00 p.m. at the Baltimore Civic Center, it was announced today by Richard Dwyer, star of Ice Follies and now assistant vice president in charge of skating personnel. Ice Follies 36th edition will open Jan. 11, at the Civic Center with special guest star Peggy Fleming for a six-day engagement.

The venerable ice show now has three traveling ice shows and "we are looking for good skating talent," Richard said. Equally important as basic skating skills are appearance and presence before an audience. "Our skaters must be trim and well groomed," Dwyer said. "We like to meet their families and talk to them to see if they will fit into our company. Ice Follies is like one big family and it's important that a person feel at home."

Prospective skaters should contact the Ice Follies Road Office at the Civic Center to make an appointment.

ATOY WILSON, (one of us) 19 year old teenager of Los Angeles is with the Holiday on Ice National company. He auditioned the same way.

In Memoriam

ALLEN — A Tribute of love to the memory of my son and our brother, MARTIN ALLEN, who passed away January 6th, 1971:
We have only your memory, dear one.
To remember our whole life through;
But the sweetness will linger forever
As we treasure the image of you.
Gone and forgotten by some you may be,
But dear is our memory you will always be.
Mother — ALMA,
Sister — MRS. RITA MILES
Brother — NATHANIEL

ANDERSON — In loving memory of my dear mother, ROWENA, who passed away January 6th, 1968:
Two dear, bright eyes, a tender smile,
A loving heart that knew no guile.
Deep trust in God that all was right,
Her joy to make some other bright.
If sick or suffering one she knew,
Some gentle act of love she'd do.
No thought of self, but of the other;
I know He said: "Well done, dear mother."
Daughter — MILDRED LEE
Son-in-Law — NELSON LEE
and FAMILY

GORDON — In loving memory of my dear husband, DANIEL LESLIE GORDON, who passed away January 7, 1971:
When one you care for has departed,
And you sit alone and broken hearted,
There's something in a kindred mind
That always leaves a sense behind
Of love companionship, I know
The pain it was to see you go,
Yet memory softens everything
The grave its victory — death its sting.
I, who loved you sadly miss you;
I, who held you very dear,
And in lonely hours of thinking
Often feel your presence near.
Though God has taken you away
You are with me every day.
Loving Wife
MARY MENDES GORDON

JONES — In loving memory of my husband, THEODORE R., who passed away January 8, 1966:
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed, his loving eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine."
His weary hours, his days of pain,
His weary nights are past;
He is at a perfect, worn-out frame
Has found rest at last.
DOROTHY B. JONES
and FAMILY

MURPHY — In loving memory of our beloved daughter and sister, VIRGINIA F. MURPHY, who passed away January, 1938:
We have only your memory dear daughter.
To remember our whole life through.
But the sweetness will linger forever.
As we treasure the image of you.
THE FAMILY

PEED — In loving memory of our loved one, REBECCA PEED, who passed away January 10, 1967:

Life has never been the same.
In our hearts your memory lingers,
Sweetly, tender, fond and true.
There is not a day, dear mother,
That we do not think of you.
THE FAMILY

PARSONS — A tribute of Love to the memory of our father and grandfather, CURL PARSONS, who passed away January 9th, 1961:

LOVING CHILDREN and GRANDCHILDREN.

In Memoriam

SMITH — In loving memory of our loved ones, YVETTE MARIE, SHAWN WILLIAM, PATRICIA ALTHEA and ANDRE EUGENE SMITH, who passed away January 1, 1968:
You were the sunlight of our home,
Our light, our life, our all;
To know you was to love you,
But you answered Jesus' call.
Though gone you're not forgotten,
For our loss is Heaven's gain,
And there some day, we ever pray,
To join you once again.
Aunt, ALTEA,
Uncle, BILL and cousins

SAMPLE — In loving memory of my husband, EZRA F. SAMPLE, who passed away January 8, 1939:
I seem to see in the soft, dim light
A face I love the best.
And think of him when the sun's last ray
Goes down in the far-off west.
I miss you no less as the time passes on
Than I did on the day of your going
For absence can never close the door of my heart
And the lamp of love is still glowing;
Your heart was the truest in all the wide world
You love the best to recall
For no one on earth can take your place,
You are still the dearest of all.
Loving Wife, MAE

SMITH — In loving memory of my dear grandchildren: YVETTE MARIE, SHAWN WILLIAM, PATRICIA ALTHEA, and ANDRE EUGENE SMITH, who departed this life January 1st, 1968:
If I had the world to give
I'd give it yes and more
To hear your voices
And see your smiles
And greet me at the door
But all I can do dear babies
Is go and tend your graves
And leave behind tokens of my love.
To The Best Grandchildren God ever Made.
Devoted Grandmother — RENA CASEY

WHELCHEL — To the memory of our loved one EVA M. WHELCHEL, who departed this life December 31st, 1969:
A wonderful mother, woman and aide
One who was better God never made;
A wonderful worker, so loyal and true,
One in a million — that, mother, was you.
Just in your judgement, always right;
Honest and liberal, ever upright;
Loved by your friends and all you knew.
Wonderful mother — that, mother, was you.

For thru the mist I see
Our glad reunion in the sky —
For all eternity!
Loving Wife, ANNIE B. WARD

WILSON — In loving memory of our loved one, BARBARA ANN WILSON, who passed away January 6, 1971:
REST IN PEACE:
You're not forgotten loved one,
Nor ever shall you be,
As long as life and memory last,

As time goes by, we miss you more.
