

come and expenditures of such non compos mentis, for the care and trouble of such trustee, or person so charged as aforesaid.

86. In all cases where a trustee has been appointed by the court for the management of the person and estate of a person non compos mentis, the court may decree that the property of such non compos mentis, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be sold for the support of such non compos mentis, or for the payment of all reasonable and just expenses which said trustee may have incurred.

87. The court may, on the application of any trustee of a person non compos mentis, and receiving proof that it is necessary and proper to confine such person, direct such trustee to send the person under his charge to any hospital in the vicinity of the city of Baltimore, provided he can be there received, to remain until the further order of the court; and any person non compos mentis who has heretofore been sent to any hospital or receptacle in Philadelphia under an order of a court of equity of this State, may be removed, by order of the court of the county or city having equity jurisdiction from which such person was sent, to any of said hospitals near the city of Baltimore, and the court may enforce its orders as in other cases.

NON-RESIDENTS.

88. If in any suit in chancery, by bill or petition, respecting in any manner the sale, partition, conveyance or transfer of any real or personal property lying or being in this State, or to foreclose any mortgage thereon, or to enforce any contract or lien relating to the same, or concerning any use, trust, or other interest therein, any or all of the defendants are non-residents, the court in which such suit is pending may order notice to be given to such non-residents of the substance and object of such bill or petition, and warning them to appear by a day therein stated, and if such non-residents shall not appear at the time stated in such notice, the bill or petition may be taken pro confesso, or a commission to take testimony may be issued ex parte, and such decree passed as may be just and equitable.

89. The preceding section to apply to all non-resident defendants, as well in bills of interpleader as in other suits, whether non compos mentis, infants, or of full age, except in cases where application is made by the guardian or prochein ami of any non-
