

19. The county commissioners for said county shall direct the supervisors of roads to erect and keep up, at the expense of the county, at all public cross-roads, and where public roads fork, indexes or finger boards, pointing to the nearest town, mill or other public place to which said road leads, with the names of the places and the distances thereto, legibly inscribed thereon; and the supervisors shall render an account of the expenses thereof to the county commissioners, to be levied as other county charges.

20. They may rent annually to dealers in stone, coal and lumber, and all such commodities as are conveyed down the Potomac River in boats, all such streets and alleys lying on the west of Wills' Creek, and between the north branch of the Potomac and the national road, as may be adjacent to the north branch of the Potomac, so as not to incommode any person who may have improved or legally enclosed property, and may provide, by contracts, for the depositing of such commodities on the said streets, lots and alleys; and all money arising from the rents of the same shall be applied to the use of the county; and if any person shall fail or refuse to pay such rent, they may sue for and recover the same as other debts; but nothing contained in this section shall authorize the said commissioners to impede the access to the property of any person forbidding the same.

CRIER.

21. The county commissioners of said county shall levy annually for the use of the crier of the Circuit Court for said county a sum sufficient to pay him two dollars a day for each day he shall be employed as crier of the said court, and the collectors shall pay the same to the crier at the close of each session of the court.

CITY OF CUMBERLAND.

22. The inhabitants of Cumberland, in Allegany county, are a body corporate, by the name of "The Mayor and Councilmen of the City of Cumberland," and by that name may sue and be sued, and may have and use a common seal, or may use the name of the "City of Cumberland;" and by this last name may sue and be sued and make contracts, and may use this last name instead of the other at the election of the corporation.

23. The survey made under the authority of the Mayor and Councilmen of the town of Cumberland, and entered upon the
