Planned Parenthood schedules workshop

The Planned Parenthood Association of Maryland, which is headed by Warren W. Weaver, will hold a workshop for volunteers on Tuesday, January 18.

One of a series arranged by the Association's department of volunteer services in cooperation with its Professional Training Institute, the workshop will be held at the Institute in the YMCA building, 24 W. Franklin Street. It will serve as a training session for volunteers placed in Planned Parenthood centers and local health departments in all sections of Maryland.

Dr. Frances Trimble, medical director of the Planned Parenthood Association, will discuss new methods in family planning with workshop participants.

Miss Anita Narciso, community mental health liaison nurse for the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, will speak about effective personal communication.

Dr. Clinton Bruess, chairman of the health sciences department at Towson State College, and Mrs. Annette F. Lieberman, director of information and education for Planned Parenthood, will speak on human sexuality.

Mrs. Judy Richter, associate director of information and education for Planned Parenthood, will give an overview of the agency's state-wide services.

Mrs. Salliann Broessel, director of volunteer services, is coordinating the workshop. Carl E. Speckman is executive director of the Planned Parenthood Association.

(Esther) Morris are back from a holiday visit with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Morris in Ladi, N. J. Mr. Morris is an executive manager with Sears, and his wife, Diane, a nurse at St. Peters Hospital.

Hawkins, Mrs. Anna Baer, Miss Clareta Golander, Dr. John Armstead, Mrs. Isaac Bristal, Mrs. J. Carr; and a trio of youngsters, Jean and Joy Finney and Kim Pinkney.

The Greeks are swinging into line with new year programs.

Iota Phi Lambda Sorors, Kappa Chapter, met on Saturday, at the Madison Avenue branch YWCA. New president is Soror Mary Ames.

Plans for the Negro History Week observance, next month, were discussed. Soror Fannie B. Poulson is chairman for this project.

At the session were McConnell, Blanche Petti- Sorors Ames, Isabel ford, Vivian Young, Geraldine Hooper, Mary Tucker, Bertha Green, Marion Ransom, Ethel Douglass, Fannie Poulson, Sylvia Martin, Delores Davenport, Olivia Jefferies, Esther Jewett, Claudine Harden, Margaret Wicks, Mary Ervin and Elizabeth Carter.

* * *

Members of Iota Chapter, Lambda Kappa Mu Sorority met during the holidays to make final plans for their annual Founder's Day luncheon.

The affair will be held Saturday, January 22, at the Sheraton-Baltimore Inn. Guest speaker will be Dr. King V. Cheek, president of Morgan State College. His theme will be "THE SEVENTIES: A TIME FOR ACTION — The Challenge of total Involvement."

Citations will be presented to three prominent women in the community for outstanding service.

Members of the planning committee are Sorors Camilla Williams, chairman, Louise Turks, co-chairman, Margaret Yates, Olivia Bates, Dorothy Stone, Alma Redden, Ida Wroten, Hattie Tilghman, Bertha Sembly, Jacqueline Fleming, Dorothy Smith, Mary Mitchell, Fannie Ewell, Myrtle Jones, Imogene Douglas, Joan Smith, and Pattie Holloway.

Soror Thelma Addison is basileus.

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority and Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity will celebrate Founders' Day jointly, on Saturday (the 15th) at the Baltimore Sheraton Inn. Dr. Deborah P. Wolfe, professor of Education at Queens College, Flushing, — N.Y., will be speaker.

Peregrinators: Alice Sykes, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Sykes, is visiting her brother, Frank, Jr. (he's with CARE) in India.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles

Also back on the home front are Florence Bailey and daughter, Jan, who spent the holidays in "the land of make-believe," Walt Disney World, Florida.

Dr. and Mrs. Martin Rodwent downs for the celebration of his mother's 100th birthday. Are back now, of course.

The Nutrition department at Johns Hopkins Hospital held "Soul Day" on Wednesday in the hospital's cafeteria.

Included on the menu were pigs feet, cat fish, cornbread, blackeye peas, sweet potato pie and collard greens. Over 2,300 employees, patients and passersby participated.

The Fundamatuan Club meeting on Saturday at Sheraton Inn was hosted by Mrs. Rober K. Williams.

Guest speaker was Dr. Roland N. Patterson, the city's new superintendent of schools.

Dr. Patterson discussed his plans for city schools and explained how one of the problems faced in all school areas is lack of respect.

He noted that teachers demand respect but fail to give it. He suggested all concerned must be aware of the dignity of others before they can solve the problem.

Mrs. A. Paul Moss, president of the club presided. Since the meeting was the first of the New Year, the hostess provided pen and paper and members shared their new year resolutions.

Guest of the club was Mrs. Clarence Puryear. Newest member of the club is Mrs. Roland N. Patterson (Marian), now on the faculty of Coppin State College.

Mrs. Frederick Demond [illegible] chairman, announced plans for the annual luncheon dinner meeting set for the first Saturday in May.
