

twenty dollars for each offence, to be recovered and applied as directed in the last preceding section.

89. The said commissioners shall annually, on the first day of May, impose upon every dog owned or remaining longer than five days in said village an annual tax of two dollars, and upon every bitch an annual tax of five dollars, and upon payment of such tax shall issue a license or permit to the owner of such dog or bitch, therein describing such dog or bitch, to keep the same in said village for twelve months.

90. No dog or bitch kept closely confined upon the premises of its owner shall be subject to such tax.

91. The bailiff of said village shall kill any dog or bitch going at large in said village without such license to its owner, and shall receive such compensation for so doing as the commissioners shall think proper, and upon failure of any bailiff to perform the duty required of him in this section, he shall forfeit the sum of ten dollars, to be recovered in the name of the said commissioners before any justice of the peace for said county.

92. All taxes, fines, forfeitures and penalties imposed by the said commissioners, by virtue of any law or ordinance, shall be applied in such manner, for the use of said village, as may from time to time by ordinance be directed.

ROADS.

93. The several road supervisors in Charles county shall at all times, when the roads in their respective districts require repair, notify the taxable inhabitants in said districts to furnish the necessary labor, carts, ploughs, teams and materials.

94. Whenever by the report, under oath, of any supervisor that he has used his utmost endeavors to procure labor sufficient to repair the roads in his district and that he cannot procure the same, and the county commissioners of said county are satisfied of the truth of such report and that the supervisor cannot procure such labor at the prices fixed and allowed, the county commissioners may, in their discretion, increase the prices allowed for labor, and may require the taxable inhabitants of such district to furnish such number or proportion of laborers employed
