friend."

FRIEND CALLED

Later, police said a fellow Garwyn doctor, William Hall, called his receptionist, Miss Cassandra King, to come in and plead with Dr. Carrington because she was a former girlfriend of his.

Miss King's efforts to avert tragedy as well as Dr. Hall's, Dr. Richard Harding's (Dr. Carrington's partner) and Officer Louis Wittes's (who eventually shot Dr. Carrington) all failed

WAS ENGAGED

Afterwards, Dr. Harding added to the intrigue by telling homicide detectives that Dr. Carrington had been engaged to Miss Warren.

Detectives reported Harding said: "Over the past few months, Dr. Carrington and Miss Warren were having problems and as a result, about the last week in December, Miss Warren broke their engagement, although she continued to work for the doctors.

"Dr. Carrington had made several attempts to reconcile Miss Warren, to no avail.

"Dr. Carrington had told Dr. Harding that he was not satisfied with the reason that Johnnie had given him for breaking the engagement.

PARTY REUEALED

"On Jan. 15, Dr. Carrington had a party at his home and told Dr. Harding, that on Monday, Jan. 17, Dr. Harding was to look in the top right drawer of Dr. Carrington's desk and he would find a letter that would explain his reasons for doing what he was going to do.

"This letter was never found by Dr. Harding or by police at the scene."

The engagement story is perhaps confirmed when Detective David Bruce reported he found "one ladies diamond ring" in Dr. Carrington's office.

When the AFRO read to him the police account of his statement, Dr. Harding said, "that is what I told the police. I have nothing to add."

He did, however, state that he "did not look for" the letter referred to in his police statement.

Dr. Harding, who is a 1970 graduate of Meharry Medical College and hails from Sheffield, Ala., said he became associated with Dr. Carrington's office just this past June.

Dr. Dr. Carrington, he said, "I did not know he was married. He told me he had three children."

WIFE CALLED

In another police statement by homicide officers, another light was shed on Dr. Carrington's marital life.

Upon return to their offices Monday night, detectives reported: "There was a message for Detective Harold Rose to call Mrs. Barbara Carrington, 8100 block Arrowhead Rd., Pikesville.

"Upon calling Mrs. Carrington, she stated that she was the wife of Dr. Carrington and she wanted to know why she had not been notified of the incident.

"Det. Rose told her that we were not aware that Dr. Carrington was married and his address was not the same as hers.

"She stated that they were legally married and were not legally separated"

(Police had called Dr. Carrington's father, Russell H. Carrington Sr. to claim his son's body at Lutheran Hospital, not knowing of the existence of a Mrs. Carrington).

Later, at home in Baltimore County, the physician's widow, the former Barbara Talbot of Catonsville, reiterated her statement to police.

WIFE TALKS

In a telephone conversation with the AFRO she refused to discuss her marital status except to state she is the widow. When asked about police reports that Dr. Carrington was engaged to another, she declined comiment.

Mrs. Carrington identified their children as a girl, 11, and boys 8 and 6.

She said an emphatic "I am," when advised the police statement quoted her as saying they were legally married.

To her statement that she wanted to know where the dentist's legal belongings were, she was just as emphatic, "I know where they are" and then ended the conversation abruptly:

"I have nothing further to say — I don't want a whole lot of foolishness. Goodbye."

"CARE LESS"

Mrs. Marilyn McIver, a Garwyn receptionist, is responsible, police said, for bringing the disturbance in Dr. Carrington's office to police attention.

In the police account of the tragedy, Mrs. McIver was the first to say that Miss Jonnie Warren was Dr. Carrington's girlfriend.

Miss McIver told the AFRO she had worked as a general assistant to Dr. Carrington for just 8 months. Her voice visibly shaken, she said she was "very much" upset by the incident.

As to the physician's personal life she commented: "I could care less. He was a good dentist."

Miss McIver added she was in one of the lab rooms when the shooting was going on. She is a graduate of Forest Park High and Strayer Business College.

FATHER TALKS

The dead dentist's own father revealed his son's playboy activities.

In an interview with AFRO reporters at his Riggs Ave home on Wednesday evening, he commented: "He was just like his father. He had plenty of women. He always had plenty of friends. He'd have people come from D.C. just to stay for 10 minutes."

"I Dr. Carrington had made several attempts to reconcile Miss Warren, to no avail.

"Dr. Carrington had told Dr. Harding that he was not satisfied with the reason that Johnnie had given him for breaking the engagement.

held Sunday at the Denton Funeral Home, 124 Mobley St. The funeral director is Cleven Brown.

Burial will be at the Hebron Cemetery in Chester.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Warren of Chester, S.C., Miss Warren was born on April 23 in Chester. She graduated from Finley High School in Chester. She attended Barber-Scotia College in Concord, S.C., but dropped out after completing her sophomore year there.

In Aug., 1969, she moved from Chester, to live in Baltimore with her sister, Miss Majorie Warren, 25.

According to the deceased's sister, "She knew Dr. Carrington ever since she started working at Garwyn, but he was never her steady boyfriend. They only dated."

Other survivors are her daughter, Dia Danielle, 3; a sister, Wendia, 14; two brothers, Kenneth, 16 and Craig, 12

Other Baltimore relatives include an aunt, Mrs. Pauline Saunders of Harford Rd., and Mrs. Ruth Johnson of E. Lanvale St.

DETECTIVE

James Wilkes was the luckiest participant in the Garwyn shoot-out Monday. By accident, Wilkes, 71, owner of the Wilkes Detective Agency, 2700 block W. North Ave., got into Dr. Carrington's line of fire.

Police reported he was shot in the mouth and then rushed to Lutheran Hospital.

His brother, Roscoe Wilkes told the AFRO: "My brother is doing right fair. He's not in a lot of pain but he can't have a whole lot of visitors.

"They took him out of intensive care and now he's on a ward. A piece of his tongue was shot off and the doctor sewed it back on

"He can speak a few words . . . not too many."

A member of the Garwyn Center told the AFRO that the Wilkes Agency is under contract to Garwyn.

NO SIGN

Garwyn Medical Center, the scene of violence between Dr. Russell H. Carrington Jr. and the police on Monday night, was the picture of business-as-usual on Thursday afternoon.

There was no sign of an earlier struggle, patients filled the offices, prescriptions were being filled and all seemed to be running smoothly.

There was no sign of an earlier struggle. Except for Dr. Carrington's suite, all seemed to be running smoothly.

A telephone caller to Dr. Carrington's office will be told by an answering service: "I am sorry but this number has been temporarily disconnected at the customer's request."

Verbatim police account tells how Two died after Garwyn shootout

Excerpts of detail reports as no what they found on arrival at the Garwyn Medical Center on Monday evening are given here by police investigating the shootout at Garwyn Medical Center where a prominent dentist and his receptionist were killed:

"At 1741 hrs, this date, Officer Donald Loats, assuming 612 unit received a call to Garwyn Medical Center, 2300 Garrison Blvd. to see the nurse at the building, at room 211.

"Upon arriving, Officer Loats met Marilyn McIver F/N/20, 3900 block Edgewood Rd., receptionist for Dr. Russell Carrington.

"When Off. Loats asked what the trouble was she said "he is in there with a gun, and his wife's there and another nurse, they have been in there for 25 minutes arguing"" she had overheard his girlfriend (Johnnie Warren) saying 'please don't kill me.'

WAIT A MINUTE

"Off. Loats then called for assistance. Several minutes later Officer Louis Witte Mansing, 611 unit, and Thomas Leddon, 616 unit, arrived and Off. Loats then knocked on the door to his (Dr. Carrington) private office. (where all aforementioned people were) in an attempt to talk to the doctor.

"The doctor opened the door partially and said "wait a minute."

"After waiting several minutes, Officer Loats went to the receptionist's office and called the doctor on the inter-com phone.

"Officer Loats asked the doctor to let one of the women go. He then said "I'll let the nurse out (Elsie Johnson C/F35, 1700, block N. Port St.) He then hung up.

"After waiting several minutes, Officer Loats called the office again and a woman. (who identified her self as Johnson) answered and Off. Loats asked her if everything was O.K. inside. She stated "they are arguing, I'll be out in a few minutes."

I'LL KILL HER

"At this point the doctor grabbed the phone from Miss Johnson and stated "She'll be out, but if you try to break in I'll kill her." He then hung up.

The officer then knocked on the door again to get him out, and he kept saying "wait a minute."

"After several minutes Off. Witte rapped at the door and asked the doctor if he could come in and talk to him.

"The doctor said "alright, if you take your gunbelt off and leave it in the hall."

"Officer Witte (who had removed his coat and gunbelt) held his hands out to show that he was unarmed.

"The doctor then admitted Off. Witte to his office and closed the door behind him.

HAD GUN

Upon entering the office, Off. Witte observed the two women in the center of the room, and the doctor standing by the closed door with a snub-nosed revolver in his right hand.

"Officer Witte then attempted to talk the doctor into releasing the women and surrendering.

"After sometime had elapsed, Doctors Richard Harding M/N/27 5100 block Goodnow Rd., and William M. Hall, 2000 block Liberty Hgts. Ave., who introduced themselves as colleagues of Dr. Carrington, arrived on the scene and spoke to Sgt. Clemens (OIC) and myself.

"They stated they would like to talk to Dr. Carrington to reason with him. When they rapped on the door Dr. Carrington admitted them. (It was later learned that Dr. Carrington had phoned Dr. Hall and asked him to come there).

"Both doctors (Hall and Harding) tried to reason with Dr. Carrington but had no success.

"Dr. Harding then came out into the hallway, where at this time Capt. Theodore I. Weintraub and Capt. Bishop Robinson, (Duty Commander), and Capt. Francis X. Hayes had arrived on the scene, and stated that the doctor (Carrington) was not himself and that he had the gun cocked.

VERY EMOTIONAL'

"A short time later Dr. Hall came out of the office and stated that it was impossible to talk to him as he was very emotional.

"After conferring with the duty officer, Dr. Hall re-entered the office with Dr. Carrington. (All this while, Off. Witte was still in the office unarmed attempting to talk the doctor into surrendering).

"When Dr. Hall re-entered the office, and asked Dr. Carrington if he would talk to Chrissandra (Chrissandra King C/F/28, 3600 block Bowers Ave., a former girlfriend). Dr. Carrington said O.K., then Dr. Hall called her at home from the office.

"When Miss King arrived on the scene, she was admitted to the office by Dr. Carrington.

"After Miss King talked with Dr. Carrington several minutes without success, Dr. Carrington then ordered, Dr. Hall, Miss Johnson and Officer Witte from the room.

'TO CHRISSANDRA'..

"Officer Witte stated he wouldn't leave without the gun. Dr. Carrington then said to Off. Witte "O.K. you wait in the hall and I'll give the gun to Chrissandra, and she will bring the gun out."

Miss Johnson and Dr. Hall then left the room, and several minutes later, Officer Witte came out (leaving Miss King and Johnnie Warren still in the room).

"Officer Witte waited in the hall for several minutes waiting for the gun to be passed out (During this time the door remained open).

"At this time Dr. Hall entered the office for a third time. When Hall entered, Carrington, who had been sitting at his desk jumped up and said "I'm going to kill everybody." and the door slammed shut.

"After several minutes Dr. Hall came out again and said "that man is crazy, you are going to have to kill him."

PURSUIT TOLD

'At approximately 2010 hours the office door suddenly burst open and Miss King ran out of the office straight across the hall into a lab room.

"Miss Warren ran out of the office, down the hall. Followed by Dr. Carrington, who had a revolver in his hand.

"When Miss Warren had run approximately 12-15 feet Dr. Carrington fired one shot at her. At this time, myself, Officer Loats, Officer Witte and Officer Donald Reedy were in various rooms along the hall.

"After Dr. Carrington fired the first shot, Miss Warren ran several more feet and the doctor fired two more shots.

'Miss Warren then staggered into a waiting room of the hallway, with Dr. Carrington still in pursuit.

'When Dr. Carrington reached the doorway, Officer Witte fired one shot at Dr. Carrington from his service revolver, striking him in the back.

"Dr. Carrington then lurched into the room and the door closed behind him.

"After the door closed, several more shots were fired in the room, and then there was silence.

'HE SHOT ME'

"Several minutes later, Mr. James Wilkes of N. 2700 block W. North Ave. came out of the room bleeding from the mouth and neck, and said 'he shot me, and he's down.

"Mr. Wilkes then staggered down the hall and collapsed.

'After not hearing anything more from the office, Officer Reedy entered the room through a window in the receptionist's office, and found Dr. Carrington lying face down in the center of the room with a .38 cal. S and W snub nose revolver lying beside him.

'Miss Warren was found lying in a lobby on the other side of the room which she had reached by running through a second door leading to the lobby.

'Dr. Carrington was transported to Lutheran Hospital by M. A. No. 8, where he was pronounced dead at 2030 hrs. by Dr. Buyko at the staff. Crime lab responded (tech. Oswald) and processed the scene and took custody of the weapon, a .38 cal S and W snub nose revolver.

SHOT IN BACK

'Dr. Carrington was shot once in the lower right back, just above the hip. Dr. Carrington's father was notified, responded and he will claim the body."

Other officers added this account:

"Miss Johnnie Warren been being held at gun point by Dr. Carrington in his main office, 2300 Garrison Blvd. since 1711 hrs. 17 Jan., 1972. At about 2010 hrs. 17 Jan. 1972, Miss Warren ran out of the office, down the hall.

"Miss Warren was found lying in a lobby on the other side of the room which she had reached running through a second door leading above date and time indicated, CP No. 11 1200 block Myrtle Ave.

Police report that two men fired a barrage of shots on the two officers while they were involved in a police car writing a domestic complaint.

The prosecution also alleged the two were arrested moments after the shooting under a porch in the 1700 block W. Hayette Ave., not far from the scene of the murder.

Police testified they recovered a .38 caliber pistol registered in the name Powell's.

Two pairs of black and brown gloves, 19 live bullets and .32 caliber pistol were recovered near the scene the following day.

The prosecution presented 32 exhibits and called eight witnesses. The defense called two.

On the fourth day, Powell declined to testify in his own defense.

The defense witnesses were Mr. Maynard Pro, scientific laboratory expert, who examined the gloves of accused persons and Officer Frank Blizzard, one of the police officers who participated in the arrest of the suspects.

Two ballistic experts further testified the bullets that killed Officer Sager were fired from the gun owned by Powell.

In his final argument to the jury, state's attorney James Dudley, stated the prosecution have proved beyond reasonable doubt that the two willfully and deliberately participated in the murder and near-fatal wounding of the two officers.

Judge Dudley urged the jurors to consider what the two people were doing at that material time just at the scene of murder with pistols and 19 live bullets.

But Mr. Carroll for the defense cautioned the jury to be weary in reaching a murder verdict based on circumstantial evidence.

The case, he said is "totally based on circumstantial facts. If you want to prove facts you must do away with hypothetical arguments."

The argued there had been conflicting evidence of ballistic experts and police officers. There were too many contradictory statements, e noted.

"I am not trying to disprove what they testified but what they might have done with the truth." he said.

Mr. Carroll urged the court to give credence to the evidence of the only independent expert outsid the police force, Mr. Maynard Pro.

Mr. Pro, a scientific crime laboratory expert, testified Tuesday residue of gunshots was found on brown right hand glove among the two pairs of gloves found at the place of arrest. Evidence proved the brown gloves did not belong to Mr. Powell.

Officer Frank Blizzard, one of the officers who participated in the arrest of the accused and Jack Ivory Johnson was in trouble for his bad memory.

In his final official report read by Mr Carroll Mr. Blizzard said the two accused persons were arrested under a porch but he stated under cross examination that they were sitting on steps.

He also could not remember whether or not the .38 caliber pistol was found between them.

Mr. Carroll: Are you saying they were arrested under the porch or on the steps?

Mr. Blizzard: I can't remember.

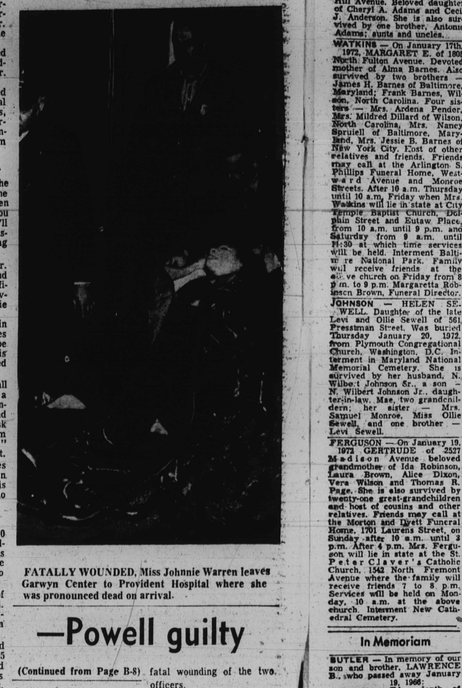
Mr. Carroll: Was the pistol found between them?

'Mr. Blizzard: I think I saw it.

Mr. Carroll: Did you make a report on the arrest?

Mr. Blizzard: Yes,

Segt. Jerry Coomradt of the State Police testified that he took finger prints of Mr. Powell after the shooting incident.



FATALLY WOUNDED, Miss Johnnie Warren leaves Garwyn Center to Provident Hospital where she was pronounced dead on arrival.

Welcome says Mandel 'missed point' on Wed.

By VAL HYMES

Sen. Verda F. Welcome praised Governor Marvin Mandel's intentions expressed in his State of the State message, but said he is missing the point.

Skeptical of the Governor's proposals outlined in his State of the State message Wednesday, she is largely alone among the black legislators.

Most of them hesitated to comment immediately after the speech, including Black Caucus chairman Arthur King of Prince Georges County.

"I want to think about it before I say how I feel," King said. His county would also benefit from the new funds, which will be shared between the Baltimore and Washington area mass transit systems.

Minority Whip Aris T. Allen, a black Anne Arundel physician and delegate, however, was strongly critical of the governor's failure to increase the drug-abuse program funds by any more than $600,000.

However, the 4th District Senator Welcome said she is pleased that Gov. Mandel will attack the mass transit problem in Baltimore.

"This is a very good program," Senator Welcome said. "Something we are going to have to consider.

"We will definitely have to go into this program as expensive as it is. Mass transit is the big thing for the city since our streets are so clogged. This program is for the metropolitan area and includes the district and the surrounding counties," she said.

Mrs. Welcome added that the two-cent gasoline tax increase will hurt the poor, in an area of necessity — their transportation, if they are fortunate enough to have a car.

The senator also feels that Mandel "will have trouble making his programs work under his gun-control and scholarship proposals."

"These are two very sensitive areas," she said, "and he will have more trouble than he expects. I believe, in trying to get the guns off the street without harrassing the ghetto residents and in trying to reach the black student who needs a scholarship to college."

The senator continues to insist that gun registration is the only answer to the crime problem.

City delegation faces new redistricting plan

ANNAPOLIS — Senator Clarence Blount, D.-Balto. 5th, called a meeting of Baltimore City legislators today to "discuss and make a decision" on a redistricting plan for city senators.

Blount, who became the first member of his race to be elected chairman of the city delegation to Annapolis, introduced himself with a hot tomato on his hand after Gov. Marvin Mandel scrapped a reapportionment plan approved by the city senators in favor of a second one that has created considerable debate.

The Friday meeting, was scheduled in the Judiciary Committee hearing room in the Court of Appeals building, immediately after the General Assembly's midday session.

Because of declining population, Baltimore must give up 2 of its 12 senators.

The senators approved a plan in November that left the delegation composed of four black and six white senators. That arrangement had a moderate flavor, in keeping with the city population which is now 50-50.

Without contacting some of the city senators Gov. Mandel gave his approval to a second plan which would force Senator Verda F. Welcome and Senator Clarence Mitchell to run against each other. Both now are in the Fourth District.

Under his second plan liberal Senator Julian Lapides, now in the Second District, would have a tough time retaining his seat.

Most of the senators appeared to favor the first plan. Should they vote to substitute it for the second plan included in Mandel's bill, the state legislature would be expected to go along out of courtesy to the local delegation.

Baltimore City is a separate unit in the Mandel Bill so reverting to the original plan would not create a major problem.

In Memoriam

BUTLER — In memory of our son and brother, LAWRENCE B., who passed away January 19, 1966

The depth of sorrow we can not tell.
But the loss of one we loved so well.
A smile we miss, a voice we hear,
His memory we shall always keep.

Loving Mother, LELIA BUTLER
Sisters: ALMA and MARY BUTLER

SMITH — In loving memory of our mother, MATTIE A. SMITH, who passed away January 22, 1966

Sleep on, dear good mother, it has been three long years
Since you left our hearts filled with sadness and tears.
Yours was a heart that we hitherto and gay,
Scattering sunshine all along the way.
You know how we loved you, and yes, love you yet.
Though God took you from us, we cannot forget.

Son, JUNIOR E. SMITH and DAUGHTER-IN-LAW

DOUGLAS — In loving memory of our daughter and loved one, LORRAINE DOUGLAS, who passed away January 20, 1970

We often sit and think of her when we are all alone,
For memory is the only friend that grief can call its own;
Like ivy on the withered oak, when all other things decay,
Our love for her will still keep green, and never fade away.

JONES — In living memory of our dear mother RACHEL JONES, who departed this life January 20th, 1971.

One year has passed since that sad day
When our dear mother was called away
God took her home, It was his will Within our hearts she liveth still.

THE CHILDREN

HINES — In loving memory of our dear wife, mother and grandmother, CARRIE LOUISE HINES, who passed away January 22, 1970:

You are not forgotten loved one we will you ever be.
As long as life and memory last.
We will remember thee.
CARRIE, you were mild and lovely
Gentle as the summer breeze;
Pleasant as the dews of evening
When it floats among the trees.
Peaceful be your silent slumber,
Peaceful in the grave so low.
You no more shall join our number,
But we mourn our songs shall know
Yet again we hope to met you,
When the day of life is fled;
Then in heaven with joy to greet you
There no farewell tears are shed.

HUSBAND and CHILDREN

HACKETT — In loving memory of ERNEST W. HACKETT, who passed away six years ago, January 22, 1966:

Our loved one passed, away from day to day
But memories are here to stay
Of what he was, and what he did.
To brighten every day.

HARRIS — In loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother, CECILE, who passed away January 22, 1970:

A light is from our household gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
Some may think you are forgotten,
Though on earth you are no more.
But in memory you are with us,
As you always were before.

FLOYD, WILHELMINA and REGGIE

SIMPSON — In loving memory of my husband, JAMES E. SIMPSON, who passed away January 23, 1966:

FORD — In loving memory of our dear son and brother, LOUIS CALVIN FORD, who passed away January 17, 1970:

He has solved it, life's wonderful problem
The deepest, the strangest, the last.
And into the school of angels
Was the answer forever has passed.
How strange he should sleep so profoundly,
So young, so unworn by the strife.
While beside him brimful of hope's nectar
Untouched stood the goblet of life.
God knew all about — how noble,
How gentle he was and how brave.
How bright his possible future;
Yet put him to sleep in his grave.
God knew all about those who love him,
How bitter the trial must be
And right through it all God is loving
And knows so much better than we.

MOTHER, FATHER, SISTER and BROTHERS

COVINGTON — In loving memory of my dear mother mae COVINGTON, who passed away January 24, 1967:

We do not forget you, nor do we intend,
We think of you often, and will to the end.
Gone and forgotten by some you may be,
But near to our memory you ever will be.

Son, LENARD, WIFE and GRANDCHILDREN

ROSS — A tribute of love to our dear wife, VIRGINIA GREENE, who departed this life, January 18, 1970:

I'm making believe that you are in my arms
Though I know you are so far away.
Making believe I'm talking to you,
Wish you could hear what I say.
And here in the gloom of my lonely room,
We're dreaming like we used to do.
Making believe is just another way
So till my dreams come true,
I'll wait and pray each night, turn Out the light and kiss my pillow, making believe it's you.

Husband, DR. BENJAMIN C. ROSS

ROSS — In loving memory of VIRGINIA GREENE ROSS, who passed away January 19, 1970:

Remembrance is a golden chain,
Death tries to break, but all in vain.
To love, to love and then to part,
Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
The years may wipe out many things
But this they wipe out never,
The memory of those happy days,
When we were all together.
We often sit and think of her
When we are all alone,
For memory is the only friend,
That grief can call its own.
Like ivy on the withered oak,
When all other things decay,
Our love for her will still keep green, and never fade away.

Loving Mother, ESTELLE GREENE
Devoted Husband,
DR. BENJAMIN C. ROSS SR.

ARCHEY — In memory of our loved one REGINALD RAILEY who passed away January 20th, 1971:

Sunshine passes, shadows fall,
Love remembrance outlast all
And thoughout the year
Be many or few
They are filled with memories,
Dear as you.

Wife — WILNET, CHILDREN, BROTHERS, SISTERS, and ERNESTINE LILLIAN CORNISH

In Memoriam

MEADS — In loving memory of my husband and our father, JAMES O. MEADS, who passed away January 23, 1968:

A light is from our household gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
Some may think you are forgotten
Though on earth you are no more;
But in memory you are with us.
As you always were before.

Wife — LILLIAN and FAMILY
