
TUNA PASTRIES A'LA MODE, topped with bright red "crowns" of pimiento, make an elegant dish for a special dinner. With canned tuna, a delectable, easy - to - make sauce and packaged cream puff mix to simplify matters, this elegant dish that's a treat to the eyes, the palate and the budget can be easily achieved.

Tuna pastries A' La Mode elegant, but economical

Tuna Pastries a la Mode — a superb recipe for a dinner party or a special family dinner, prove the point that an elegant meal need not be expensive.

* * *

A luxurious Swiss cheese and mushroom sauce enfolds delicate morsels of tuna and is spooned into tender cream puff shells — a treat to the eyes as well as to the taste. Tuna Pastries are satisfying enough for the men who like their refinements with substance and lavish enough for the ladies.

Use a packaged cream puff mix to simplify matters. The sauce, made with a simple procedure, guarantees a smooth, rich base for the tuna, mushrooms and cheese. Jewel-bright crowns, cut from pimientos, top the filled puffs with red accent. Tuna's mild flavor blends exquisitely with the other ingredients. And a mixed green salad, studded with radish circles, provides a crisp accompaniment.

All this excellence can be achieved with no strain on the budget. Convenient canned tuna is one of the best buys on the market today. Its versatility makes it ideal for a gamut of recipes — from saffdwiches to souffles. And it's high in nutrients, too . . . one serving of tuna actually provides more complete protein than a comparable serving of red meat.

* * *

Tuna Pastries A La Mode requires one package cream puff mix or standard recipe, two tablespoons cornstarch, one can (3 or 4 ounces) sliced mushrooms milk, one egg (4 ounces) grated Swiss cheese, two egg yolks, two cans (6½ or 7 ounces each) tuna in vegetable oil, and two tablespoons chopped pimiento.

Prepare and bake six large cream puffs according to directions on package, *or use standard recipe. Measure cornstarch into 2-cup measure; add liquid from mushrooms and blend until smooth; add milk to make 2 cups. Cook, stirring constantly, over medium heat until mixture thickens and comes to a boil.

* * *

Add cheese; stir until melted. Beat egg yolks slightly; quickly stir in part of hot sauce mixture. Stir egg yolk mixture into remaining sauce in pan; stir constantly over low heat until mixture thickens. Add mushrooms, tuna, pimiento; heat, stirring constantly.

Remove from heat. Cut top off cream puffs; fill with most of tuna mixture and replace tops. Spoon remaining tuna mixture over tops. Top with pimiento cut in decorative shapes.

Yield: 6 servings.

If cream puffs are prepared ahead of time, heat in 375 degrees F. oven 10 minutes while preparing filling.

ON THE EASTSIDE

Earnest Purdy, 'a good neighbor'

GEORGIANNA MOODY

Life is real, its earnest and its fulfilling. The earnestness of life is the only passport to the satisfaction of life. Its how you view life and what you do with it that makes life fulfilling.

So feels Earnest Purdy.

Mr. Purdy, is a modest, elderly gentleman who lives in 900 block of Kenwood Ave. He finds joy by making life pleasant for others.

Mr. Purdy is a former worldwide boxer who fought his way to feather and welterweight. He was a very close friend of Jack Dempsey.

He came to Baltimore from New York many years ago and has devoted his life to the needs of the elderly, poor and to the young.

Boy Scout leader, he teaches music to children free of charge. Mr. Purdy owns all kinds of musical instruments which he loans out to children who can't afford one of their own in the community.

He is a active member with the Elks, Rangleers and with Pythians. He is also a Drum Core member.

Beginning January 22nd, 2 p.m. Mr. Purdy and Mrs. Clarisia Rather will be "working out" from the East Baltimore Club, Milton Ave. and Eager St., with young boys and girls 9-17 years. They will form a music club to keep children out of the streets. He will be teaching skills and building characters at the same time.

At Christmastime our "good neighbor" buys and distributes Christmas baskets to many needy people in the community.

On Mothers Day he sponsors a Mothers Day dinner for elderly people. He hires a bus to transport white and black to the United Baptist Church on Broadway where they eat at the expense of our Mr. Purdy.

Mrs. John Hatcher said, Mr. Purdy should never be forgotten in the East Baltimore Community."

It has long been known that some type of drug abuse program is needed in Lafayette Courts. On January 11, a number of representatives from all of the social organizations and agencies in the East Baltimore community met at Lafayette to start organizing a program for drug addicts in the area. All agreed on the need.

Committees were formed to get the program off the ground. One group will draw up a proposal to get funds, one will organize a program and another will be keeping the community aware of progress being made.

Representatives at the meeting included; John K. Dausch, public school No. 7; Mrs. Vivian Shrieves, Lafayette Homes; Anton Eperita, school No. 8; Goodwin DeLaliye, Police Department Community Relations; Mrs. Grace Waits, Dept. of Social Service; Willette Withers, Lafayette Courts; Mrs. Bettye Cashier, Somerset Homes; Mrs. Gayle Saxton, Flag House; Mrs. Gloria Gilliam, East Baltimore Medical Plan; Warren Culbertson, Johns Hopkins Hospital and Mrs. Eleanor Bowden, Dept. of Housing and Community Development.

Also; Mrs. Catherine Walker, Dept. of Social Service; Saul Sutton, Mayor's Office; Mrs. Ella Greeks, St. James School, Nathan Irby, Johns Hopkins Hospital; Raymond Jones, School No. 453; Mrs. [illegible] Medical Plan; Mrs. Elaine Howard, Perkins; Mrs. Olive Caulk, Perkins House and Mrs. Anita Woodlon, school [illegible] 116 and Carl Jones, K.A.P.S.; [illegible] Tuck, St. Augustine Church; Mrs. Connie White, Dept. of Housing and Community Development; Mrs. Doris Johnson, Model Cities; Mrs. Gwendolyn Cooke, Morgan State College; Mrs. Daisy Snipes; St. Augustine Church; Mauil Tallepon, St. Marks Church Lawrence Griffin, The Alameda, and Francis Reives, Lafayette Courts.

And Mrs. Iris Griffin, Lafayette Courts; Mrs. Georgianna Moody, Lafayette Courts; Frank Zong East Baltimore Medical Plan; Mrs. Delores Forrest, Dept. of Housing and Community Development; Mrs. Evelena Bristow, Model Cities and Mrs. Margaret Brown, Lafayette Courts.
