

126. The clerk of the market shall receive such compensation as the commissioners shall deem reasonable, not exceeding forty dollars a year.

127. The market days in said town shall be Tuesdays and Saturdays of every week, unless other days be fixed by said commissioners, and all provisions brought to the said town for sale shall be taken to the market house and sold during market hours, which shall be from any time in the morning until twelve o'clock at noon; but fish and oysters, beef by the quarter or larger quantity, pork by the hog, grain, flour, bread, butter in firkins or other vessels exceeding twenty pounds net weight, cheese, beef and pork in barrels or larger casks, live cattle, sheep, and hogs brought to said town, may be sold anywhere therein.

128. If any inhabitant of said town shall buy any provision of any person bringing or having brought to said town, or within two miles thereof, any kind of provisions for sale, (except as excepted in the preceding section,) either upon the stated market days or on any other days during market hours, at any other place than said market house, he shall forfeit the sum of four dollars.

129. If any person shall sell to any free inhabitant, or the slave of any inhabitant, of said town, any provision which such person may be bringing or sending or may have brought or sent to said town, or within two miles thereof, for sale except as before excepted, either upon the stated market days or on any other days during market hours, at any other place than said market, he shall forfeit the sum of two dollars.

130. If any person shall butcher any cattle, sheep, or hogs in or near the said market house, he shall forfeit the sum of two dollars.

131. If any person shall put any horse, mare or gelding into or under said market house, he shall forfeit the sum of seventy-five cents.

132. No person shall keep any swine within the limits of said town, (except in sties or other enclosures,) and if any swine be found going at large therein, the bailiff shall seize and detain the same until the owner shall pay him two dollars, if an in-