

son interested, and copies of all ordinances shall be put up in the most public places in said town.

70. The burgess and commissioners shall cause the footways of the town to be graded so that citizens of the town, who may wish to pave the same, can see where such paving shall be made.

71. They may make such by-laws and ordinances as they may from time to time deem expedient for the comfort, health, convenience and prosperity of the town and its inhabitants; for the prevention and removal of nuisances, the preservation of health, and the suppression of vice and immorality within the town.

72. They may lay an ad valorem tax upon the property within the town, not exceeding twenty-five cents on every hundred dollars' worth of taxable property in any one year, and may appoint a collector to collect the same, and fix his term of office, responsibility and compensation.

73. The said collector shall collect the taxes levied by the corporation, and shall have the same power to distrain for the same as the collectors of county taxes, and he shall pay the said taxes when collected to the burgess and commissioners.

74. The burgess shall be treasurer of the corporation, and shall give bond to the corporation, with security, to be approved by the commissioners, or a majority of them, in such penalty as they shall prescribe, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties as treasurer, and he shall receive and pay away agreeably to the ordinances of said corporation.

75. He shall see that all ordinances of the corporation are faithfully executed, and shall, in virtue of his office, have and exercise within the said town all the jurisdiction and powers of a justice of the peace, except as to the recovery of small debts, and shall report annually to the commissioners, during the first two days of their session, the general condition of the town; with an accurate account of the money received and expended, to be published for the information of the citizens.

76. No fine or forfeiture imposed under any ordinance of said town shall exceed the sum of twenty dollars for any one offence, and all such fines and forfeitures shall be recoverable before a
