

179. When any person may want lumber or coal inspected and measured, he shall notify said inspector and measurer, and they shall immediately thereafter inspect or measure the same, but nothing herein shall be construed to compel any person to have his lumber or coal inspected or measured, but all persons wishing it shall have it done by the measurer or inspector appointed, and if any person receive pay therefor, without being appointed by the Governor as aforesaid, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of twenty dollars for every offence, to be recovered in the name of "the burgesses and commissioners of the town of Williamsport," for the use of the town.

180. The measurer and inspector of lumber may measure all lumber with a tape line, having thereon legibly marked its length in feet and inches, and shall receive the sum of twelve and a half cents per thousand feet for measuring the same; and shall in all other respects be guided by the directions for the inspection of lumber in the city of Baltimore.

181. The measurer of coal shall be entitled to one-fourth of a cent for measuring each bushel of coal, to be paid by the purchaser of the same.

182. The inspection district of flour, lumber and coal for the town of Williamsport, shall be designated by the following limits, metes and bounds: Beginning at lock number forty-four on the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, and running thence in a straight direction to the south end of an alley on the extreme east side of the said town of Williamsport, thence running with said alley to another alley on the extreme north side of said town, thence running with said alley to the north end of Conococheague street, thence with the road leading from Williamsport to Clearspring to a brickyard on said road, thence with a straight line to a culvert on the canal next above Eli Beatty's warehouse, thence with the said Chesapeake and Ohio Canal to the place of beginning, at lock number forty-four.

JERUSALEM.

183. The citizens of the town of Jerusalem, in Washington county, are a body corporate by the name of the "Burgess and Commissioners of Jerusalem," and by that name may sue and be sued, and may have and use a common seal.
