Clerk of the Court of Appeals: JAMES A. YOUNG (Democrat), Cumberland, Maryland.

James A. Young was born at Keyser, West Virginia, May 4, 1879. Two years later his parents moved into Allegany County, where he has since resided. He attended the public schools in Barton, Moscow Mills and Cumberland. He learned the job printing trade in the plant of the Evening Times in Cumberland, and for a while was foreman, and then engaged in the job printing business in Cumberland.

At the time of the organization of the Maryland Shoe Company (wholesale) in Cumberland, he was made a director and with his father, as president, participated in the management of the sales department. Voluntarily leaving this company, Mr. Young and his father assumed control of the R. D. Johnson Milling Company, which firm he represented as traveling salesman for several years.

On June 26, 1901, Mr. Young married Miss Daisy Wilson White, a native of Cumberland. He is a member of Calvary
