THE PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE shall discharge the duties of Governor in case of any vacancy during recess of the Legislature. In case of his refusal or inability to serve, the duties of the said office shall devolve upon the Speaker of the House. Art. II, Sec. 7, Const.

THE IMPEACHMENT of the Governor may be provided for by the Legislature which may designate, and on his conviction, or in any other case of vacancy of the office, may declare who shall perform the duties of Governor, and if any vacancy should occur, for which provision has not been made by the Legislature, the Secretary of State shall convene the General Assembly for the purpose of filling said vacancy. Art. II, Sec. 7, Const.

THE GOVERNOR shall be the commander-in-chief of the land and naval forces, and may call out the militia to repel invasions, suppress insurrection, or enforce the execution of the laws, but shall not command in person, without the consent of the Legislature. Art. II, Sec. 8, Const.

THE GOVERNOR shall nominate by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoint all civil and military officers, whose election or appointment is not otherwise provided for under the Constitution and the law creating said office, and he shall take care that the laws are faithfully executed. Art. II, Sec. 9, and 10, Const.

IN CASE OF ANY VACANCY during the recess of the Senate, in any office which the Governor has power to fill, he shall appoint some suitable person to said office, whose commission shall continue in force until the end of the next session of the Legislature, or until some other person appointed to the same office, whichever shall first occur, and the nomination of the person thus appointed, during the recess, or, of some other person in his place, shall be reported to the Senate within thirty days after the next session of the Legislature. Art. II, Sec. 11,

BY THE SENATE shall not be again appointed to the same office at the same session, nor be appointed to the recess of the Legislature. Art.
