AFRO GOES TO CHURCH

Congregation marches to new church Easter

More than 300 members and visitors attended Easter services at 4629 York Rd., the new home of the Wilson Park Christian Community Church.

The service began after about 100 members, mostly young people dressed in their Easter finery, marched 10 blocks from the former church site in the 700 block of Winston Ave. to the newly remodeled 5 and 10 cent store.

The Wilson Park congregation moved to the Winston Ave. building almost two years ago after their church on Wrenwood St., burned in May, 1970.

After entering the doors of the spacious, freshly painted church, the congregation listened as the pastor, the Rev. Charles White, welcomed them and began his Easter sermon based on the sixth verse of the 28th chapter of Matthew: "He is not here, for He has risen."

The pastor explained, "Today there are those who say He is still in the tomb but my Bible tells me He is risen. If Jesus was still dead, this morning, we would be without hope."

Calling the Bible "The roadmap to glory," the Rev. Grant Hammon made the Bible dedication.

The scripture was read by the Rev. Eldon Hayes.

Also taking part in the service were the Revs. Howard Queen, Ivan Hayes and Elder Artis.

The dedication service was held at 4 p.m. The Rev. Billy Williams, pastor of Isaiah Baptist Church in Montford, Md., delivered the message.

Comedian W. C. Fields will have an hour-long program at the Waverly branch, 33d and Barclay Sts. The Barber Shop, "The Fatal Glass of Beer," and "The Golf Specialist" at 2 p.m. and again at 7:30 p.m. the same day. Admission free.

Social Security meeting on Housing, Tuesday

The Social Security Administration's Housing Service Office will hold a Housing Conference in the Multipurpose Room, Administration Building, Woodlawn complex from April 11 through April 13.

Participants will include personnel from the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare; members of the business community, County government, and SSA staff from throughout the country. Registration begins at 8:30 a.m.

The purpose of the conference is a continuation of the policy and program established by Robert M. Ball, Commissioner of Social Security which is designed to achieve equal access to housing for its employees without regard to their race, religion, sex, color, or national origin.

Mr. Ball will be the keynote speaker.

"I know you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. He is not here, for he has risen, as he said he would."
Matthew 28, 5-6.

MUSICAL MOMENTS

Wayne Dorsey in graduating recital

By ADAH K. JENKINS

Wayne Dorsey, Baltimore pianist, appeared in his graduating recital on a recent evening in Rankin Chapel of the Howard University College of Fine Arts.

His was a challenging program from standard repertoire of Baroque, classic, Romantic and modern music.

The program: Theme from "Orpheus" by Gluck; the Prelude and Fugue in E minor from Bach's Well Tempered Clavichord; Beethoven's Sonata Op. 27 No. 1 ("Moonlight"); Suite Op. 14, Bartok and Chopin's Nocturne in C sharp minor and the Scherzo in B flat minor.

The handsome, 24-year-old musician impressed his audience with the confident dignity of his professional bearing as well as the well disciplined and sensitive display of his keyboard skill.

* * *

Attending the concert were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dorsey and Robert Earle Anderson, his former piano instructor, also a Howard alumnus.

A native Baltimorean, Wayne graduated from Lemmel Junior and Forest Park Senior High Schools. His concert was a partial fulfillment of the graduation requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Music, which he receives in June.

In a musical family his early piano study was guided by Mrs. Mildred Bryant. Young Dorsey is interested especially in concert piano and accompanying of vocal music. During his college career he co-arranged and played for comedy performance of "The Wizard of Oz."

He was guest artist for a pre-holiday morning assembly at the Walbrook Junior High School.

* * *

Miss Rebecca Sydnor, Baltimore soprano and winner of the second prize in the recent Marian Anderson Scholarship auditions, appeared in a recent recital at Norfolk State College, where she is a junior vocal music education major.

Programmed were arias from Handel's opera "Julius Caesar" and "Tosca" and four Brahms art songs. Also included was a cantata "Psalm 30," composed by Charles Lloyd, pianist who shared the concert, presenting Brahms and Scriabin Sonatas and four Chopin Etudes.

This spring Miss Sydnor is appearing in the title role of "Tosca," to be given by the Opera Workshop of Norfolk State.

* * *

Making history on the musical horizon hereabouts is the Charles A. Bagley Chorale which appears in concert Sunday, April 9 at 5 p.m. at the Central Summerfield United Methodist Church, Wildwood Parkway and Gelston Drive.

The 28-voice ensemble, which was organized in April, 1971, gave its initial concerts at St. James and St. John's Catholic Churches last year.

Under the direction of Bagley, graduate of Morgan State College, Music Education and assistant director of the Baltimore Park Bands, the Chorale "is directed to the production of standard choral repertoire for the musical development and enjoyment of its members."

Their program will include "Glory to God" (from "Messiah"), "Italian Street Song" (Herbert) and song composed by Alvin Little, of the bass section.

Soloists are: Miss Gloria Bond, Miss Rosetta Desmond, Miss Blanche Forman, Miss Hazel Smith, Miss Romaine Chase, sopranos and Richard Barkley, tenor.

The Sunday event is sponsored by the Sanctuary Choir: Mrs. Ruth Miller, president; the Rev. M. L. McKenny, minister.

Cherry Hill Coordinating Council offers free rides to residents

By WALTER W. E. HILL

If you have need for transportation to see a doctor, dentist, or for any medical reason, free transportation is provided by calling 752-6911, Ext. 302 Monday through Friday 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. You must have a medical card. This program is sponsored by the Cherry Hill Coordinating Council, Inc., serving Mt. Winans, Brooklyn, Fairfield and Westport areas.

* * *

The Mt. Winans Civic Interest Group, Inc. is still on the band wagon fighting for what it calls absolute neglect of the city and government in trying to make settlement in order that progress may continue in the area. Should it be necessary for a demonstration march, one will be followed through. More about this later.

* * *

Do you know you must have a license to care for non-related children in your own home on a regular basis for more than two hours a day? Or if your home is licensed, you are eligible to have children referred to you by the Department of Social Services which may pay you up to $70 a month for each full-time child, if his family cannot afford to do so? You can be licensed to care for up to four children under 14.

The qualifications are you be between 21 and 70 years old, in good health, and your home passes inspection by the health and fire department. Inspection fee is $5.

There's a great need in this area for more licensed day-care homes for children of all ages on a part-time or full-time basis.

Won't you help? For more information call 234-2153, or write: Park Day Care Center, 2401 Alaska Court, Westport.

Dr. Martin Luther King fought for the absolute right to vote. Deadline is April 17.

* * *

The Steering Committee of the Mt. Winans Civic Interest Group, Inc. are taking steps to organize a clean block campaign under the direction of Mrs. Sadie Blocker, vice president of the C.I.G. Your support is needed.

Star of Bethlehem AME. Church will observe its annual Women's Day on Sunday, April 16. Miss Lillian Bowie is chairman. The Rev. Roland Howard is pastor.

Six babies entered in NAACP contest

The Baltimore branch of the NAACP announced Wednesday that six babies have already entered its annual "Human Dolls on Parade" contest.

They are: Tracia Renee Braxton, 1, daughter of Mrs. Evelyn Braxton of Glen Burnie, sponsored by Mrs. Ida Russell; Nekecia Beckett, 2 months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Beckett, 3602 Penhurst Ave., sponsored by Mrs. Roberta Austin, and Annett Lyn Campbell, 14 months, Campbell, 3903 Fernhill Ave., sponsored by Mrs. Susie Murphy of Wayland Baptist Church.

And, Lynette Murphy, 4, daughter of Mrs. Anna G. Murphy, 3306 N. Hilton St., sponsored by the Rev. Kelly L. Jackson; Brian Wechsler, 1, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Wechsler, 3609 The Alameda, sponsored by Mrs. Enolia McMillian, and Roleshia Nixon, 18 months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Nixon, 5116 Gwynn Ave., sponsored by Israel Baptist Church.

This year the top-winning babies will be able to choose their gifts, either a government bond or loving cup.

Also, any sponsor reporting $1,000 or more will receive an expense-paid trip to Detroit, Mich. as an alternate delegate to the national convention. Any youth council which reports $500 or more will be able to send a youth delegate to the convention.

The contest, which aims to raise money for the local branch, is under the direction of Mrs. Elizah Costin and chapter president, Mrs. Enolia P. McMillian.

Last year the annual drive raised $7,058 which was used to send eight delegates to the convention. The balance went into the Freedom Fund reserve and the Positive Action Program.

Parents and organizations wishing to enter children may contact the NAACP, 523-8503 or Mrs. Costin, 327-5457.

Lincoln Cannady, 22, killed in Boston fire

Funeral services for Lincoln Cannady, Jr., 22-year-old U.S. Coast Guard petty officer, were held Wednesday at Refuge Way of the Cross Church of Christ, where his uncle, Bishop Leroy H. Cannady, Sr., is pastor.

The Coast Guardsman, who had been stationed in Boston, Mass., received full military burial rites at Arlington National Cemetery, Arlington, Va.

Mr. Cannady, of 729 E. 23rd St., was killed at 4 a.m. last Friday, March 31, when his Boston apartment was destroyed by fire. Neighbors and others in the apartment reported the sound of an explosion but the cause of the fire has not been determined. Coast Guard authorities are still investigating.

Mr. Cannady's mother, Mrs. Meta Cannady, of 729 E. 23rd St., and his family were notified of his death late Friday morning by his commanding officer.

Mr. Cannady, who would have completed his third year of military service on April 21, was born in Oxford, N.C. and came to Baltimore at the age of seven.

He was a graduate of City College and had attended Clifton Park Elementary School and Schools 74 and 142.

While in Baltimore, Mr. Cannady attended Refuge Way on the Cross Church where he was active in the church organizations. He was baptized there in 1958.

The petty officer served one year of overseas duty in Vietnam and Thailand on a Coast Guard vessel.

Survivors other than his mother, Mrs. Meta Cannady, includes his father, Lincoln Cannady, Sr.; brothers, Ellis Bernard Cannady and G. Earl Cannady; sisters, Miss Charlotte Ann, Marilyn Christine, Cheryl Renee, and Saundra Lynn; sister-in-law, Mrs. Acquilla Ruth Cannady.

He is also survived by his grandparents, B. H. Cannady, of Franklinton, N.C., and Willie Harris and Mrs. Alice C. Harris; uncles, Bishop Leroy Cannady, Sr., Ben Cannady, New York City, Willie Harris, Boston, and David Harris and James A. Cannady of Franklinton; and aunts, Mesdames Margaret Burwell, Durham, N.C., Dorothy Burwell, Franklinton, Mattie Harris, Hempstead, New York, and Annie Scott, Neptune, N.J.

Funeral arrangements were made by Morton and Dyett Funeral Home.

LINCOLN CANNADY, JR.

Law Day program at U. of Balto.

Abortion and euthanasia (mercy-killing) will be the foci of a symposium on "Life, Death, and the Law" Sunday, April 9, at 7:30 p.m. in the Langsdale Library Auditorium of the University of Baltimore, Maryland Ave. and Oliver St.

Sponsored by the University Law School's Day and Evening Student Bar Associations, the panel discussion will bring together two lawyers, two doctors, and two theologians.

The discussion which will not be limited to abortion and euthanasia is also expected to include the topics of capital punishment, suicide, birth control, and cytogenics (the freezing of bodies for later resuscitation). A period of questions from the audience will follow the panel presentation.

The program, which is open to the public, will include an informal reception after the discussion. Admission is free.
