Miss Marrow William Gloster

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM GLOSTER, Jr. were married in Baltimore, Saturday. Mrs. Gloster is the former Miss Mary D. Marrow.

Yellow and white spring flowers enhanced the setting when Miss Janice Louise Marrow, daughter of Mrs. Mary D. Marrow and the late Harry W. Marrow, was married to William Gloster Jr. in her home, Satirday.

Mr. Gloster is the son of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Gloster Sr. of Cpa Locka, Fla.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William T. Peters Jr., pastor of Grace United Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Charlotte P. Swan was pianist and the soloist was Miss Dorothy Ashley.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, J. Edward Marrow, added a nostalgic note when she wore for her wedding the gown in which she had made her debut at the Me-De-So Cotillion in 1963. The beautiful creation was of white silk organza appliqued in lace and re-embroidered with seed pearls. To this she added a bouffant full-length veil and long white gloves.

She carried a bouquet of yellow centered white daisies and white roses.

Miss Marrow's only attendant was her cousin, Mrs. Joyce P. Clabon of Hartford, Conn., whose ensemble was in green and whose flowers were white daisies.

Peter Taylor of Drurytine, Va. was best man for Mr. Gloster.

The new Mrs. Gloster attended Eastern High School and is a graduate of the Maryland Institute College of Art. She is an art resource teacher in Baltimore City Schools. Mr. Gloster graduated from Florida A and M University and is an auditor for the Federal Government. The couple will be at home in Baltimore.
