Beauty contest set for June

The pageant in June will be the fifth. The Miss Black America 1971 is Miss Joyce Warner of Florida, who is a senior at Florida A and M University, and is currently touring Vietnam.

Applications to participate in the pageant should be addressed to: Miss Black America of Maryland, 714 Richwood Ave., Baltimore, Md., 21212.

Warning: Watchout for these Springtime frauds

Attorney General Francis B. Burch has again issued his warning to Md. consumers to be especially cautions of traditiona spring frauds.

He recommended that consumers be wary of the salesmen who peddle their merchandise in residential neighborhoods while homeowners do their outdoor spring repairs.

One of the most frequent "bargains" offered to the consumer is topsoil sold by the bushel basket.

"As the season progresses, the homeowner finds that the has actually purchased manure products or topsoil infested with weed seed and must spend the rest of the summer trying to correct the damage done," Mr. Burch said.

• • •

The attorney also warned against the purchase of lawn ornaments which resemble concrete but are frequently made of plaster of paris. At the first rain, the ornaments turn into useless globs of plaster which can badly damage the lawn area.

Waterproofing of roofs and driveway surfaces is another source of frequent complaints. Many times repairmen spray with waste oil with some black coloring, and the repair washes away with the first rain.

Mr. Burch also listed leftover merchandise such as shingles and siding as potential trouble. The offer of these goods at a cut-rate is often a mere scheme to unload inferior merchandise, and the homeowner who fails for it may be overpaying for undesired products and services.

The best course to follow is to deal only with reputable merchants whom the consumer knows or has had previous satisfactory business with Mr. Burch said.

Established tradesmen prove more reliable in the long run and by dealing with them, the consumer takes less risk of being cheated.

• • •

"Buying from a push-cart peddler is an invitation to get the best promises and the least satisfaction." Burch asked.

Consumers who have problems with the practices mentioned here are urged to contact the Consumer Protection Division of the Attorney General's Office at One South Calvert St., Baltimore 21202 or by Telephone at 383-3700.

THE ENGAGEMENT of Miss Patricia Lucille Jennings to Warren Walter Gordon, son of Mrs. Esther Winkler, has been announced by her mother, Mrs. Helen Jennings. A May wedding is planned.

THE ENGAGEMENT of Miss Nora Anita Taylor, daughter of Mrs. Anita Taylor and the late William C. Taylor, to Irving Alexander Dixon has been announced by her mother. Mr. Dixon is the son of Mrs. Emma Dixon and the late Charles L. Dixon. The bride-elect is a graduate of Arkansas AM and M College, and plans working towards a master's degree at Coppin State College. Mr. Dixon, a graduate of Edmondson High School, is a laboratory technician at the Baltimore Biequest Laboratory.

Empty coffee cans with plastic lids make excellent canisters for storing raisins, nuts, rice, tea, matches and other household items. Paint them to match the kitchen color scheme if you wish.

Millions of post-Korean conflict veterans separated from service between Jan. 31, 1955, and June 1, 1966 have only until May 31, 1974, to complete their GI Bill schooling, VA announced recently.

A safety-minded home decorator does not place a mirror at the foot of a staircase. The mirror might be decorative, but it's also a potential hazard because it can detract from the business of walking down stairs. Many persons are tempted to watch their reflection instead of where they should be putting their feet.
