Mrs. Rodney dead at 100

Mrs. Blanche Rodney, Baltimore dentist, died in her home in Panama City, Panama, Wednesday.

Mrs. Rodney, who had often expressed the intention of living to become 100 years old, had that wish fulfilled last Christmas. Dr. and Mrs. Rodney went to Panama City to celebrate the anniversary with her.

Dr. Rodney is in that city this week for the funeral, which is being held today, Friday. In addition to Dr. Rodney, Mrs. Rodney and her husband, the late Hurtis Rodney, were parents of two daughters. Miss Lucy Rodney, a long time government employee in Panama; and Miss Lucy Rodney, also of Panama City.

The ELECTRIC STORM early Thursday morning left Union Memorial United Methodist Church, Harlem and Warwick, with serious damage. Lightning hit the steeple (left panel) and flung rocks down into the slate roof (circled) and pitched other huge stones across the street through the skylight of one house and the roof of another. The spring torrent which was accompanied by thunder poured into the church (right panel) and nursery school children were evacuated. — Photo by I. Henry Phillips

Union Mem. fetes members

It couldn't happen to a nicer lady — Mrs. Mary E. Hawkins, that is. She is one of several members of Union Memorial Methodist Church who will be honored on Sunday at the 11 a.m. services.

Mrs. Hawkins has been a member of her church for 40 years. She stated that "My church and home has meant everything to me. I joined the church which was then Whatcoat Methodist Church located at Pine and Franklin St."

A few of the organizations that she participates in at her church are the Sunday School; a lay leader; organized the Women's Society of Christian Service; charter member of the Pink Rose Circle; member of Gospel Choir; a communion steward; and has served on the Commission on Mission for 20 years.

Mrs. Hawkins is one of those energetic people every community just can not do without. She is a onetime registered nurse and beautician. She works quietly and effectively behind the scenes day in and day out in her community. Mrs. Hawkins is president of her neighborhood club, vice president of the NAACP, does work with the Red Cross, member of community council of Western District Police Department.

Her family includes three guerie Wilks, Elaine Dorsey, and Antoinette Philips; daughters; Stedsaines Martin.

JAMES E. JONES

James E. Jones, known as 'Big Jim', rites

Funeral services for James Edward Jones were held Monday at Central Baptist Church, 2035 W. Baltimore St.

Mr. Jones died on April 6 at Provident Hospital where he had been a patient for three weeks. He had been ill since January 1 and had recently suffered a stroke. He was 62.

A native of New Bern, N.C., he was a son of the late George Allen Jones and Mrs. Mary Alice Jones. Educated in his native city, Mr. Jones moved to Baltimore while still a young man.

Known to many as 'Big Jim," he worked for 25 years with the Cities Service Station on Mosher St. (Citgo) Oil Co. for 10 years he was with the James Dorsey Service In 1957, "Big Jim" opened the doors of his own station at Pulaski and Lexington Sts. and worked there until he was taken ill.

Mr. Jones was an active member of Central Baptist and served as an usher. He was also a member of the John A. Holmes Lodge No. 89. Prince-Hall Affiliation, Small Businessmen, and Progressive Young Men's Democratic Club.

In addition to his mother, Mrs. Mary Alice Jones, Mr. Jones is survived by his wife of 34 years, Mrs. Edith Jones; sister, Miss Mildred Jones; brother, Ulysses and Walter Jones; aunts, Mrs. Hattie Powell and Mrs. Pattie Lynch, all of Baltimore.

Dr. M. B. Brackett Pastor officiated at the services. He is buried at Arbutus Memorial Park.

AMEs due at Metropolitan

WASHINGTON

While focusing primarily on the outreach of the church in the Washington area, the Washington annual conference of the AME Church next week is also expected to wrestle with national issues of school busing, civil rights and welfare.

Ministerial appointments will be read at Sunday's worship service at which Bishop Murph will preach.

The conference will begin with a worship service on Wednesday. Rev. S. Everette Miller, minister of Turner Memorial AME Church preaching. The afternoon has been set aside for visitors to bring expressions of greetings and goodwill.

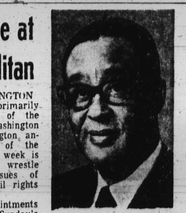
Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m. the Rev. S. A. Thompson pastor of Ebenezer AME Church, Baltimore, will deliver the inspirational message.

The Missionary Women With Bishop Henry W. Murph presiding, the sessions will be held April 19-23 at Metropolitan AME Church, 1518 M St., NW. will be addressed by the president of the Connectional Women's Missionary Society, Miss Mary E. Frizzell, Thursday at 7:30 p.m. Friday at noon, the Ecumenical message of the church will be delivered by Dr. Kelsey Jones, pastor of Israel CME Church.

Friday evening program, sponsored by the young of the community, will be a portrayal of black history in dramatics. Saturday will feature the Lay and Conference Workers program.

Bishop Murph, mindful of the impact of the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, will celebrate this rite at 12 noon on Thursday. The concluding service of worship will begin at 10 a.m. on Sunday, April 23 with Bishop Murph preaching.

During the five-day sessions, some discussion will concern action to be taken at the General Conference which meets every four years to be held in Dallas this June.



BISHOP HENRY W. MURPH

22 delegates for United Methodists

WASHINGTON

Eleven lay delegates and 11 clergy delegates will represent the Baltimore Conference of their church at The United Methodist General Conference which opens in Atlanta, Ga., April 16 and continues through April 27. The General Conference meets every four years.
