If You Live In This District Be Sure You Can Vote

KWAME NKRUMAH

Nkrumah

(FROM PAGE 1)

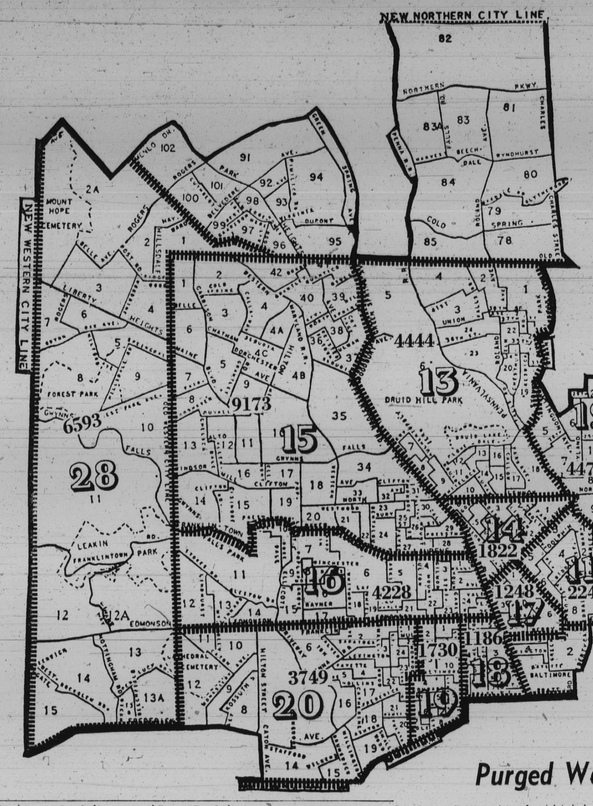
School of Economics, became the first premier of the former Gold Coast when it was granted independence by Britain.

The former teacher and lawyer served as prime minister until 1960 and then as president until his ouster while he was on a state visit to Peking.

In the later years of his rule, Ghana became a one-party state dedicated to "Nkrumahism" and devotion to the 'Osagyefo' (successful in war) as Nkrumah became known.

The military junta that ousted Nkrumah accused him of running a corrupt dictatorship.

Nkrumah took refuge in Guinea, from where he swore he would mount a military action to regain control of Ghana.



7TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

VOTERS REMOVED—The Supervisors of Elections reveals that persons living in 18 wards of the Seventh Congressional District are the ones who may not be able to vote in the May 16 primary. Persons in the above wards should contact the Election Board at 539-6960, if they have questions concerning their right to vote. The election office is located in the People's Court House at Fayette and Gay Sts. If the postcard or letter was returned to the election office, undeliverable by the post office after the second mailing, clerks were ordered to remove the voters name from the Master file, the voter binder used at the polls, and from the IBM tapes. The Board's conclusion is that the voter has moved without changing his address with the board. Maryland election laws specify that if a registered voter moves he must report his new address to the Board by April 17. Failing to comply the voter cannot vote.

Purged Wards listed

Over 60,000 registered voters in the 7th Congressional District will not be allowed to vote in the May 16 primary or the November general election.

They are among over 100,000 voters removed from the voter rolls by the Baltimore Board of Supervisors of Elections because they moved without changing their address with the Election Board.

The mass removal of registered voters culminates a three-month effort by the election board to 'cleanthe books of voters who have violated election laws."

* * *

Here are the wards purged:

5th — North-Mounment St., South-Balto. St., East-Caroline St., West-Jones Falls Expressway.

There were 2,575 registered voters before the purge. 766 voters were removed by the Election Board. Which represents 34.2 per cent of the registered voters.

6th — North-Jefferson St., South-Balto. St., East-Old Eastern City Line, West-Caroline Ave.

Only two precincts of the ward are in the 7thcongressional. Although, the entire ward had 7,208 registered voters with 1824 or 22.6 per cent purged a small number were removed from the 7th.

7th — North-Penn R.R. Line, South-Jefferson St., East-Old Eastern City Line, West-Caroline Ave. 25.6 per cent or 2,875 of 10,136 voters removed.

8th — North-Hartford Rd., South-Penn. R.R. Lines-Eastand Old Eastern City Lines, West-Caroline Ave.

* * *

Approximately one-fifth of this ward is not in the 7th. 3,512 voters were removed from the rolls from the entire ward. 12.1 per cent of 22,022 persons registered are affected.

9th — North-33rd St., South-Preston St., East-Harford Rd., West-Jones Falls Expressway. 4,444 or 23.1 per cent were removed.

11th — North-North Ave., South-Lafayette Ave., East-Park Ave. West-Fremont Ave.

This is the lively area around Penn Ave. and North 19.7 per cent of 1822 of the 8,025 voters were stricken from the voter books.

13th — North-old northern city line. South Franklin Town Rd., East-Reisterstown Rd., West-Old western city line 44,239 were registered. The election board removed 9153 or 19.3 per cent of the 44,239 registered voters.

16th — 24,738 were registered in this congested area of West Balto. 4,228 or 14.2 per cent of the voters cannot vote May 16.

North Vaker St., South-Edmondson Ave., East-Fremont Ave., West-Old Western City Line. 24,733 were registered. 4,288 or 14.2 per cent were removed.

17th — North-Lafayette Ave., South-Saratoga, East-Eutaw St., West-Fremont Ave. 16.4 per cent or 1248 of 4,122 voters were removed.

18th — North-Edmondson Ave., South-Pratt St., East-Fremont Ave., West-Gwynn Oak Ave. 1243 or 14.2 per cent were removed by the election board.

19th — North-old northern city line South-North Ave. East Stony Run Rd., West-Pa. Ave., Reisterstown Rd. —A large part of this area is Druid Hill park land However 18,439 voters were registered here. 4,744 or 23.1 per cent were removed.

20th — North-Gwynn Oak Ave., South-Belleville Ave., East-Wilkens Point in Curtis Bay.

The drowning victims' wife, Mrs. Marian Fletcher; his brother, Sylvester Fletcher and his sister, Miss Marlene Fletcher were rescued from the sinking boat by Coast Guardsmen.

Reports of the mishap state that the boat's hull was punctured when the boat hit a rock. When the coast Guard arrived the boat was sinking.

The victim's wife and sister were saved first. His brother, Sylvester, was pulled in next by a seaman.

Isaac Fletcher drowned during the rescue attempt to save him.

The survivors were taken to South Baltimore General Hospital where they were released in fair condition late Thursday.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed at AFRO presstime.

His refusal brought a contempt of court citation. The decisions were later dissolved when Defense Attorney Ronald M. Sharrow withdrew the questions.

An official of the Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs stated Westcott told the government on Feb. 11 that he knew Witherspoon as "Spoon" and described the tavern owner as a "good size peddler."

Federal Agent Abraham Azzam testified Westcott also described Witherspoon as a "sleeper type, who picks and chooses his customers and dealers."

Westcott was quoted as saying Witherspoon "copped" or secured his drugs from a contact man called "China" in New York.

Mr. Azzam stated Westcott also gave certain statements about "other people" involved in illegal drug traffic.

It was disclosed federal drug agents began surveillance of the Spoon's bar and the defendant's home at 1700 block Millwood Rd., following the Westcott "tip-off."

The court was informed cars licensed to known narcotorney Frank S. Brocato when asked if he knew Miss Marquez prior to his arrest.

Defendant Witherspoon also refused to say whether he wrote a note to Miss Marquez.

Taken from Witherspoon during his arrest was a red-felt tip pen and an air line ticket numbered in sequential order to one found upon Miss Marquez, Judge Blair was told.

The Federal agents state Miss Marquez was found carrying a note written in red-felt tip pen signed "Spoon" in addition to 250 grams of heroin and an airline ticket; court records disclose.
