

representation from: The State Roads Commission; The Automobile Club of Maryland; The Women's Civic Club of Maryland; The Federated Garden Clubs of Maryland; The petroleum industry; Out of Doors advertising business; State Planning Commission; Commission on Post-War Reconstruction and Development; Association of County Commissioners of the Eastern Shore; Association of County Commissioners of the Western Shore.

BALTIMORE WHOLESALE FRUIT AND VEGETABLE MARKETS COMMISSION

Chapter 972—Acts of 1943.

The Baltimore Wholesale Fruit and Vegetable Markets Commission as established in order to improve facilities for marketing and distribution in the wholesale markets of Baltimore City. It was provided that the 13 members of the Commission be appointed by the Governor to serve until June 1, 1945.

The Act provides that the Governor shall make the appointments from nominations as follows:

- 1 member from two or more nominations by the State Board of Agriculture;
- 3 members from six or more nominations by the Mayor of Baltimore City;
- 1 member from two or more nominations by the Independent Retail Grocers' Association of Baltimore;
- 3 members from six or more nominations to be jointly made by the Executive Committee of the Maryland State Grange and the Board of Directors of the Maryland Farm Bureau, Inc., at a joint meeting of the two bodies;
- 2 members shall be engineers appointed from four or more nominations to be made jointly by railroads operating in the Baltimore area;
- 3 members from six or more nominations jointly made by the Baltimore Fruit and Produce Association and the Baltimore branch of the National League of Wholesale Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Distributors at a joint meeting of the two bodies.

All members shall serve without compensation.

The members are:

Dr. F. B. Bomberger, Director of Markets Extension Service,	University of Maryland
J. Raymond Buffington, Jr.	1000 Hillen Street
Harry W. Walker, Secretary-Manager of the Independent Retail Grocers and Meat Dealers' Asso., 403 Association of Commerce Bldg.
F. Ridgely Todd	Sparrows Point, Md.
A. Lee Burker	211 S. Charles Street
John A. Schwab, Superintendent of Maryland Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.
Robert N. Stevens	226 S. Charles Street
George Schmidt	Pasadena, Maryland
William H. Kirkwood	Hanover and Dover Sts.
G. M. Fava	13 E. Camden St.
L. P. Kimball, Engineer of Buildings, Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company
D. G. Harry	Pylesville, Maryland
Joseph Smelkinson	109 W. Camden Street