Hon. Herbert R. O'Conor, Governor Annapolis
L. Harold Sothoron Brentwood
George F. Hazelwood Cumberland

Chapter 320 of the Acts of 1939 created a commission consisting of three (3) members to act jointly with commissions appointed for like purposes by the State of West Virginia, the Commonwealths of Pennsylvania and Virginia, and the District of Columbia, and an additional three (3) members to be appointed by the President of the United States and which, together with the other commissions appointed as above mentioned, shall constitute and be known as the Interstate Commission on the Potomac River Basin. The said commission for the State of Maryland shall consist of the Governor of the State and two members to be named by the Governor who shall be actual residents in the Potomac River Drainage Basin. The terms of the members appointed by the Governor shall be two years, the first of such appointments of two members to be made June 1, 1939, and they shall serve without compensation, but shall be paid their actual expenses incurred in and incident to the performance of their duties.
