A KNOT IS ENOUGH — Mrs. Pamela Fant works on some of the Macrame which is one of her hobbies. Macrame is a coarse lace or fringe which is made by knotting threads or cords in geometrical patterns. The board laid out in grids assists her in this task. Mrs. Fant has made belts, pocketbooks and napkins.

Fund-raiser held for Archie Williams

"Let's put Archie on the Supreme Bench and let's do it now," Congressman Parren J. Mitchell (7th, Dem.) told hundreds of persons attending Sunday's fund-raising reception for Archie Williams, candidate for the Supreme Bench.

Rep. Mitchell, showing his support for the attorney, added, "He's going to be a judge because we're going to put him on the bench."

The four-hour reception at Cade Armory included a buffet-style dinner, entertainment and speeches.

Mr. Williams urged voters to get out and vote in the May 16 primary election and also urged support for Rep. Mitchell, incumbent for the 7th district democratic congressional seat.

"Black people are no longer taken for granted and we intend to use every force we have," Mr. Williams told the applauding crowd.

The reception was sponsored by the Women for Archie Williams Committee.

Members include: Mesdames Alice Matthews, chairman; Agnes Reaves, general secretary; Gwen Mickel, program chairman; Betty Shelton, financial chairman; Aileen Cook, Ethel Wise, Mary Williams, Anna Weems, Ruth Sheffey and Bertha Seay.

Other members are Mesdames Selma Bailey, Ruth Boddie, Bessie Brown, Lois Barnes, Audrey Ford, Mary Hopkins, Sarah Jones, Marjorie Lindsay, Odelle Payne, Beatrice Parker, and Ruth Rosedon.

Entertainment was provided by the Haithcock Ensemble and Mrs. Agnes Gibson, soloist.

Included in the many guests showing their support for Archie Williams by attending the reception were: Dr. Lillian Jackson, Mrs. Juanita Jackson Mitchell, States Attorney and Mrs. Milton B. Allen, the Rev. Arthur J. Payne, Leroy O. Dyett, Dr. Robert C. Blackmen; 5th District Delegate Kenneth Webster, Larry Gibson, Homer Favor, John Reddick, Benjamin Moore and Mrs. Louise Cannady.

Dial the doctor 1-800-492-9502

'Dial The Doctor," a medical information line sponsored by The National Foundation-March of Dimes, carries a new message which deals with the overwhelming problem of Birth Defects. Dr. John Freeman, Director of the March of Dimes Treatment Center, Johns Hopkins Hospital, is the guest speaker for the month of May.

Anyone in Maryland can "Dial The Doctor," toll free. This educational program was initiated in October and has been receiving approximately 500 calls per month.

In addition to hearing a new message monthly, it is possible for the caller to leave a question, related to the topic, which will be answered by mail. The number to call is 1-800-492-9502.

Diggs 9th graders hold spring fashion show

The 9th grade students of the Diggs-Johnson Junior High Division started their Spring Holiday with a fashion show.

The 9th grade girls made children's garments in their Textile and Clothing classes.

The garments were modeled very stylishly and uniquely by students of the elementary division.

There were various outfits including the sportiest knickers and playthings and the daintiest capes and dresses.

At the conclusion of the fashion show, each student indicated the garment which she made by standing behind the model on stage.
