FLOZELLA CLARK is the new president of the Northwest Club.

Other officers named at the last session included Anethia Williams, vice president; Cleo Diggs, corresponding secretary; Alice Payne, recording secretary; Alma Collins, treasurer; Vera Flint, parliamentarian; Mary Thompson, hospitality chairman; and Jimmy Laforest, historian and public relations.

Mrs. Diggs (very chi-chi in rust colored knit) and Ruperta Waters (who wore a smart gray knit), were hostesses to the club, Saturday, at a beautifully arranged luncheon meeting at the Baltimore Museum of Art. Yellow, white and red flower arrangement centered the table, and there were souvenirs of block print note paper for each member.

The Northwesterners did some fancy giving on their own. They gave out a flock of gift certificates to the "children" of the club who are reaching educational milestones this year.

Recipients included Patrice Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Myers, who will graduate from Douglass High School; to Louis Myers, her brother, who will graduate from Morgan State College in June and go on to the Dental School of the University of Maryland; to Candice Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Scott, who will receive a master's degree from Tuff; and to Kenneth Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Phillips, who will have a master's degree from the University of Wisconsin.

There were other gifts to Charles W. Cephas, who celebrated his 18th birthday, to Vera Flint, who had been ill; to Anita Myers, out-going president; and to cheer Iona Collins, who had had a bereavement in the family.

Pot-Pourri: The John (Gwendolyn de Cecilia) were the weekend guests of Dr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Dickens in Washington, where they attended the 25th anniversary dinner-dance given by the Barristers of Columbia in the Grand Salon of the Hotel Sonesta.

The following Wednesday Gwendolyn and John hosted the Granville Winbornes of Baltimore, Zenobia Hart and Dr. La Gora Piper of Washington at the opening of the New York City opera season...the premiere performance of Hanacek's "The Makropoulos Affair. The opera was presented under the auspices of the President's Advisory Committee on the Arts. The black tie [illegible] was followed by [illegible] and dancing in [illegible] F. Kennedy Center [illegible] Performing Arts.

Mrs. Bertha Winston recently hosted her nieces, Mrs. Evelyn Pillar and Mrs. Elise White of New York City. Mrs. White teaches in the New York public schools and is also an instructor at Columbia University. Mesdames Pillar and White have recently returned from a month's tour in Europe. In Hamburg, Germany, they spent an evening at the opera, where they heard their friend, Coletta Warren, who was starring in "Fireworks." They were blessed by the Pope in Rome, and visited the cathedral in Costa del Saul, in southern Spain.

Kay L. Davis (she's the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pierre H. Davis Jr., and a 1971 graduate of Northwestern High School) is appearing as one of the dancers in the Juniata College's dance department of music's production of the Rodgers and Hammerstein Broadway musical "Carousel," this season. Miss Davis is a sophomore at Juniata College.

Several Baha'is from the Baltimore area flew to Panama City, Panama to attend the dedication of the newest Baha'i House of Worship, recently. They included Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Byrd and W. Dubois Johnson. Following the dedication a Baha'i Intercontinental Conference was held in Panama City.

The Baha'i House of Worship in Panama is the fifth such edifice in the world. Others are in Frankfurt, Germany; Sydney, Australia; Kampala, Uganda; and Wilmette, Illinois. The Temple in Panama is the first completely round building in Panama and cost over a million dollars.

Martin's West was the scene recently of the Annual Spring Dance sponsored by the Rector's Guild of St. James Episcopal Church. The gala affair was attended by nearly 400 people who dined and danced to the lively music of Sherman Lewis.

Guild members who served as dance hostesses included:

Eliza Johnson, warden; Althea Quarles, assistant warden; Emma Baker, Jacqueline Banks, Clara Bailey, Lelya Coleman, Joyce Carter, Aldena Clifford, Carolyn Cole, Charlene Coleman, Barbara Lambert, Mildred Parrott, Gloria Phillips, Bernice Clapp, Ann Spradley, Elaine Stevens, Barbara Thomas, and Patricia Smith.

Health Dept. Family Planning

The Health Department has amounced formation of an Advisory Council for the city's Family Planning Project 722. The Council, which has both community-patient representatives and professional members, will advise on activities of the Family Planning Project, according to Melvin Moore, administrative health officer for Family Planning.

Established to foster the growth of healthy two-way communications between the Project and the community, the Council will report to the Commissioner of Health, the Director of the Health Department's Bureau of Maternal and Child Health, and the Family Planning Project.

Members will participate in the planning for the project; help in the location, acquirement and development of sites for clinics; assist in recruiting staff; help evaluate the program; and assist in interpreting family planning services to the community.

Installed on March 29, the Council has approved the revised proposal for federal refunding for the Family Planning Project. The Project is funded three-quarters with federal funds and one-quarter in City matching funds.

STOP WALLACE
Vote for A. Eugene CHASE

It is time GOD, in this year of dismantling government help to the disabled, the poor, and small businesses, that you send to the Democratic National Convention a person proven to be a skilled effective fighter for the rights and needs of the people in the 7th district. Prices are rising, joblessness is increasing, small businesses are closing, crime is increasing, while big businesses grows larger and war goes on.

Your delegates to the Democratic National Convention needs to have the skill to pick the right candidate with the ability to win the Presidency of the United States, a candidate that will fight racism, war, inflation, unemployment and crime.

Democrats must unite to get Nixon out of the White House. We need a candidate and a program to save this country.

We can help bring this about in Miami by sending A. Eugene Chase, a proven fighter for this community to the Democratic National Convention.

Only 7 days left to enter NAACP's 'Human Dolls on Parade' contest

Those AFRO readers who wish to enter their children in the NAACP's annual "Human Dolls on Parade" contest only have until May 19 to do so.

To date, nearly 50 babies, toddlers and youngsters have been entered in the yearly fund-raising drive, which aims to send delegates to the National Convention to be held his year in Detroit Mich. in July.

Also 53 churches from the pleasant [illegible] for this cause.

Winners will be announced at Douglass Memorial Church, May 28 beginning at 3:30 p.m.

The campaign, which is headed by Mrs. Elizah Costin and Mrs. Enolia P. McMillan, chapter president, aims to raise funds for the Baltimore branch.

Last year, with a total of $7,658,eight delegates were sent to the convention. The balance went into the Freedom Fund and the Positive Action Programs.

Parents and organizations wishing ti enter children may contact Mrs. Costin at 327-5457 or the NAACP office, 523-8503.

The first place winner will receive either a gold loving cup of $100 government bond; second-vuce: siver oving cup or $50 bond; third, fourth and fifth, drinking cup or $25 bond. The same prizes will be awarded to the two category winners, group-sponsored and individual.

The sponsor who reports $1.00 ormore will receive an expense-paid trip as an alternate delegate to the Convention, and any youth council which reports $500 or more may send a representative to the convention.

All babies who report $10 or more will receive a prize.

New babies added to the list this week are:
