'Guilty' for Spivey; he asks new trial

Sentencing was withheld Tuesday for Charles Spivey, 19, who was convicted of murder and attempted robbery by a Criminal Court jury.

Judge Paul A. Dorf postponed imposition of sentence after Spivey asked for a new trial.

Spivey was found guilty of first degree murder (without capital punishment) in the July 5 slaying of Daniel Smallwood, 40, 1100 block Whatcoat St.

Jurors were told Spivey and David Sweets, 19, accosted Mr. Smallwood and a companion, William Junior Roberts, 42, as they walked down an alley in the 1800 block of Edmondson Ave.

The victims were asked for money and narcotics, testimony revealed. They were also ordered to take off their shirts, and remove their shoes when nothing was found, according to Dominic Jamele, prosecutor.

Mr. Roberts, 1800 block Clifton Ave., stated Spivey became angry and began arguing with Sweets to give him the gun so that he could "kill them both" saying, "I'll kill them both".

Testimony developed that Smallwood was shot four times by Sweets when he tried to escape as the bandits argued, testimony showed.

Spivey and his witnesses had treated the defendant was watching television with friends at the time of the shooting.

However, testimony indicated the programs they described were broadcast July 4, the day before the murder.

—Mitchell wins big in AFRO precincts

election, as he did against that lined up to support congressman Samuel Friedel two years ago.

On this point Cong. Mitchell said, "The victory in the Primary election hopefully indicates the beginning of a new era in politics in our community.

"It was clear that in the 7th Congressional District we were up against almost the total of the existing political power structure.

"It was clear," That almost everything in that political structure was aimed at thwarting the will of the people in terms of their right to choose their representatives.

"The one thing that we had in our campaign was the commitment and the dedication of people — the poor and affluent, professional and unskilled, young and elderly. Our support came from the total social and economic spectrum in the community."

Cong. Mitchell admitted there had been some despair; at first, it seemed that the morale of our supporters was being threatened by the overwhelming outpouring of money into the oppositions camp.

"However, after we scheduled regular meetings, and the Mitchell volunteers recognized how strong they were in numbers, there was the feeling that the lack of money could not hurt us, and that we would be assured of victory."

The strong leadership provided by the AFRO-AMERICAN Newspapers, the Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance, The East Baltimore Ministers, college students from Morgan, Coppin, the Community College of Baltimore, black elected officials, Organized Labor, and hundred of others who gave assurance that we would determine our own political destiny on May 16.

The congressman added: "It is impossible to thank fully each individual and organization in this brief statement. However, during the coming weeks I hope to give more tangible evidence of my gratitude to those organizations and individuals which performed so magnificently.

"I shall continue to serve as an aggressive advocate Congressman. The victory has been like a shot of adrenalin into the blood stream of the community.

"One minister at the victory celebration, which was an unprecedented demonstration of belief, summed it up very well when he said, 'Parren, you know King was right, the truth crushed to earth shall rise again.'"

TH DISTRICT TABULATIONS

Unofficial results for all Democratic congressional candidates in the 7th follow:

Parren J. Mitchell—32,480
George L. Russell, Jr.—29,545
Richard C. Manning—1,840
John G. Grimage—845

On the Republican side, Verdell Adair, a black school teacher emerged as the winner of the GOP 7th congressional nomination. Mr. Adair will oppose Congressman Mitchell for the district's congressional seat in November. The GOP unoffical results are:

Verdell Adair—1,860
Samuel D. Schapiro—1,320
Monroe Cornish—1,011

RUSSELL HAS NO COMMENT

At presztime, City Solicitor Russell could not be reached for his analysis of the election or to answer AFRO questions about his future plans.

After conceding his defeat by Mitchell last year Tuesday night, "The beauty of my future is that it is uncertain. I am much richer for seeking the congressional nomination because of all the strong friendships I have made."

However, State Senator Verda F. Welcome (D.-4th), who supported Mr. Russell when Mitchell would not give "Walk-around" money to her organization, told the AFRO Thursday, "I am certain the Seventh Congressional District congratulates Parren Mitchell on his re-election and wish for him a successful regime.

"He has another opportunity to unite the community which is needed so."

Sen. Welcome's club received $5,000 from the Russell campaign contributions, supplied mostly by white power structure supporters of the city solicitor.

In Senator Welcome's home precinct, 6th of the 13th ward, Mitchell outpolled Russell. The count was Mitchell, 160; Russell, 137.

AFRO PRECINCTS FOR MITCHELL

In AFRO precincts, where 75 per cent of the registered voters are black, Mitchell received 61 per cent of the votes cast to Russell's 39 per cent or 10,765.

This means that out of every 100 votes cast in AFRO precincts, Mitchell got 61 and Russell, 39.

CITY WIDE JUDGES' RACE

OTHER PRIMARY results:

JUDGESHIP: Noted rights attorney Archie D. Williams making a valiant effort in his first try for public office, fell victim to the highly financed campaign of Mandel appointee, Judge Marshall A. Levin.

Mr. Williams was seeking a seat on the Baltimore Supreme Bench.

While Mr. Williams made an impressive showing of 22,050 votes in the Democratic primary, the community was not able to overcome the money ladened campaign of Judge Levin and vote Williams to the Bench.

While Williams lost the major white vote, he swept the AFRO precincts with 9,873 votes.

Levin received only 3,140 votes in the AFRO precincts.

The citywide judge vote on both the Democrat and GOP tickets follow:

Marshall A. Levin, 43,065, 4,555; Thomas H. Ward, 30,910,—2,989; Archie D. Williams, 22,050.—3,109.

Another black lawyer, James W. McAllister, who did no active campaigning for a seat on the Court of Special Appeals, was swamped by a former law partner of Governor Marvin Mandel. Judge Richard P. Gilbert.

The vote on both Demo and GOP slates was:

Richard P. Gilbert, 35,635—4,372

James W. McAllister, 23,343—3,040

OTHER RACES FOR CONGRESS

In other Congressional races in the city Mrs. Rosalie S. Abrams, 5th District state senator, lost her bid to unseat Congressman Clarence D. Long in the 2nd District (Northwest Baltimore and Baltimore County).

Vote:

Long, 56,379

Abrams, 21,868

Congressman Paul S. Sarbanes in Baltimore's 3rd District (East Baltimore) won renomination, leading a field of four. He was on AFRO ballot. The vote follows:

xPaul S. Sarbanes, 43,188

Harry J. McGuire, 19,304

Frank X. Gallagher, 16,363

Walter T. Dixon, 1,291

PRESIDENTIAL VOTE RESULTS

PRESIDENTIAL: Alabama Governor George C. Wallace, the victim of an assassination attempt Monday, won the Democratic Presidential nomination in six of the state's eight congressional districts. Wallace, forced to cut short his campaigning in the state because of the point blank gunning by Arthur Herman Bremer, still managed to win the popular majorities in 21 of the state's 24 subdivisions, over ten other presidential hopefuls on the democratic ballot.

Only voters in Alleghany and Montgomery counties and Baltimore city buck back the Alabama Gov's effort to carry the whole state, as he lost in the three subdivisions.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey carried the popular vote in Baltimore city, and Allegheny counties. While Sen. George S. McGovern won the plurality in Montgomery County.

Mr. Wallace now adds Md. to his primary victories in Michigan, Alabama, North Carolina, Florida, and Tennessee.

The Wallace victory in Md., a serious blow to the presidential bid of Sen. Humphrey, who carried the state in the 1968 presidential election with 538,310 votes, adds luster to the strong conservative image of Md.

In 1964, Wallace received 214,849 or 43 per cent of the presidential primary vote. Tuesday, he received 216,019 or 40 per cent of the democratic vote. The number of Wallace votes which may be termed "sympathy votes" cannot be determined. What seems obvious is that Marylanders still prefer the Gov's racial extremism to liberal candidates like Humphrey.

ONLY 12,086 FOR CHISHOLM

Black Congresswoman Shirley A. Chisholm (D. New York) in her first bid for the democratic Presidential nomination received only 12,086 votes. It was predicted that she would do better. Especially in the black pockets of the city and state. However, strong black support for her never developed as most black leaders went with Sen. Humphrey and his strong position on civil rights.

Humphrey received 144,949 state wide votes. McGovern, the third place finisher, received 116,311 votes.

AFRO PRECINCTS NIX WALLACE

In the 7th congressional Humphrey emerged the winner with 36,007 votes. Surprisingly, George Wallace finished second with 9,424 votes in the predominantly black district. Shirley Chisholm finished fourth with 5,568 behind McGovern who garnered 7,260 ballots.

In AFRO Precincts Senator Humphrey led the field by a wide margin. AFRO voters gave the liberal Sen. 19,293 votes. Mrs. Chisholm received 3,140 votes. While McGovern received only 1,619 votes. Wallace picked up a mere 518 votes in AFRO Precincts.

NIXON TOOK GOP VOTE

President Nixon won the state's Republican primary. Mr. Nixon received 96,648 votes from the states' GOP voters, while Paul N. McCloskey, Jr. got 8,876 and John M. Ashbrook received 6,673 votes.

Over 41 per cent of the states' 1,590,460 registered voters participated in the primary. Some 646,736 or 47 per cent of the 1,153,579 democrats cast ballots. While only 28 per cent of the states' Republicans voted.

WHO GOES TO CONVENTIONS

DELEGATES: Six delegates were chosen in each congressional district to represent the state at the democratic Convention. Two Republican Delegates were elected from each congressional district.

In the 7th, three persons on Congressman Mitchell's slate of six delegate candidates were elected.

Mr. Mitchell will go to Miami in July for the Democratic convention, along with Del. Hildagardis Bostwell, (D. 4th) and Mrs. June Wing who were elected from his slate.

All three will go to the convention as uncommitted delegates, which means that they did not commit themselves to any Presidential hopeful in Tuesday's primary.

Morgan football coach Earl Banks, making his first political score, was elected an uncommitted convention delegate from the Russell slate. Joining him in the winner column is Sen. Verda F. Welcome, (D. 4th) also from the Russell slate, and uncommitted.

City Councilman Robert L. Douglas (D. 2nd) is the sixth delegate elected. Douglas is committed to Humphrey and ran on the Russell slate.

Again, Congressman Mitchell was the top vote getter. He received 22,358 votes. Earl Banks surprisingly edged out state Sen. Julian L. Lapides, (D. 2nd) in what some specialists see as his initial warm up for higher political office.

At the GOP convention will be Del. Aris T. Allen (D. AA) a winner in the fourth congressional, and Archie M. Jones and Madie E. Mitchell Republican winners from the 7th.

Registered Republicans committed the states' 26 Republican delegates to the convention to President Richard M. Nixon.

The state's 48 elected democratic convention candidates who are committed are split between Humphrey, Wallace and McGovern. Sen. McGovern has 17 committed to him; Humphrey has 5 affiliated with him, while Wallace has 14.

STRONG RUN IN THE 3RD

Making a strong showing against devastating odds were convention candidates Mrs. Louise G. Murphy, a black school teacher, and Mrs. Kay M. Carter, a black social worker at the University of Md.

Both women were candidates from the predominantly white 3rd congressional, and were given little chance to attract white or black votes.

However, Mrs. Murphy received 3,331 votes and finished 26th in a field of 77 candidates.

Mrs. Carter garnered 2,692 votes to place 32nd in the field of 77.

Seat Pleasant's black mayor, Henry Arrington, won a seat to the convention from the state's 8th congressional district.
